The PRESIDENT. By the action of the Senate this morning, the hour of 11:30 was fixed as a special order for the consideration of Senate Bill No. 660, House Bill No. 839, which is on the calendar (Page 1) for third reading.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

SPECIAL ORDER

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 660 (House Bill No. 839), on third reading, special order of business, as follows:

An Act to amend sections four and ten of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149), entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" by increasing said tax for a limited period of time and providing for the distribution thereof

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections four and ten of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" are here amended to read as follows:

Section 4 Imposition of Tax Exemptions and Deductions A permanent State tax of three cents a gallon or fractional part thereof is hereby imposed and assessed upon all liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by distributors within this Commonwealth excepting liquid fuels delivered to the United States government on presentation of a duly authorized United States government exemption certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the department and such liquid fuels used or sold and delivered as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States Providing That the tax herein imposed and assessed shall be collected by and paid to the Commonwealth but once in respect to any liquid fuels

In addition to such tax an additional emergency State tax of two cents a gallon or fractional part thereof is hereby imposed and assessed upon all liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by distributors within this Commonwealth as aforesaid for the period commencing on the day this act becomes effective and ending on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven Provided however That the Governor may by this proclamation at any time prior to said date suspend the imposition and collection of said additional tax for the reason that the revenues therefrom are no longer needed for the purpose of unemployment relief

Distributors shal lbe liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the tax imposed by this act

The tax shall be payable upon liquid fuels sold and delivered to or used by the Commonwealth and every political subdivision thereof

Each distributor who shall promptly pay on or before the last day of a particular month the tax due for the preceding month shall be allowed in consideration of leakage spillage shrinkage evaporation and any expense to which he may be put in carrying out the provisions of this act a discount of two per centum on the aggregate amount of tax which is payable by the distributor for such preceding month The discount may be deducted by the distributor from the amount of tax payable for such month

Section 10 Disposition and Use of Tax (a) One-half cent per gallon of the permanent tax collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund of the State Treasury and such moneys paid into said fund are hereby specifically appropriated for the purposes hereinafter set forth

The moneys so paid into the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund except those that are refunded as hereinafter provided shall be paid to the respective counties of this Commonwealth on the first day of June and December of each year in the ratio that the average return made during the three (3) preceding years to each county bears to the average amount returned to all counties for the three preceding years Provided That the distribution of tax to the counties from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund that is payable the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one shall be made under the provisions of the acts of Assembly repealed by this act

All moneys received by the counties hereunder shall be used only for the purpose of construction reconstruction maintenance and repair of roads highways and bridges including the payment of property damage now due or hereafter to become due occasioned by or the relocation or construction of highways and bridges and for the payment of interest on bonds issued for highways and bridge purposes The county commissioners of each county shall make to the department on or before the first day of May and November of each year on forms prescribed prepared and furnished by the department a report showing the receipts and expenditures of such moneys received during the preceding six months by the county from the Commonwealth under the provisions of this section Such reports shall be transmitted to the Department of the Auditor General for audit Upon the failure of the county commissioners to file any such report the department shall withhold further payments to the county out of the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund until the delinquent report is filed

(b) The remaining two and one-half cents per gallon of the tax collected under the provisions of this act all penalties and interest and all interest earned on deposits of the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund shall be paid into the Motor License Fund and are hereby specifically appropriated for the same purposes for which moneys in the Motor License Fund are appropriated by law

(c) The entire amount of the additional emergency tax of two cents per gallon or fractional part thereof collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the General Fund

Section 2 This act shall become effective the first day of the month succeeding its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, through inadvertence some minor errors have crept into this bill that should be corrected before final action. On page 3 of the bill, line 20 reads as follows: "that the Governor by this proclamation" should be corrected to read "his proclamation," and in line 21, page 5, there should be inserted before the word tax the word "permanent."

Mr. President, I move that the vote by which the bill passed second reading be reconsidered for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill has been set, reset and set again for final passage, and there is no need of further delay to pass upon this bill in the Senate, for this reason: the bill was passed by the House, sent to the Senate, was amended on the floor of the Senate this week. It will, therefore, have to go back to the House for concurrence and for amendment, and any typographical errors, or otherwise, or errors and substitutions, or otherwise, and additions, can be made in the House committee, without delaying the passage of this bill, when, as and if it is passed by the Senate; and I, therefore, say to the members of this Senate that it is time for voting on this bill, and I, for one, will oppose the offering of any amendment for this bill this morning which would cause delay by reason of requiring its reprinting.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, this bill has been juggled around on the calendar with nowise the facility that Senate Bill No. 31 has been, and I do not think it is unreasonable to request that the vote by which the bill passed second reading be reconsidered for the purpose of amendment. The fact that the House has another shot at the bill does not say that we should not correct errors that are obvious in the terms of the bill,

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and Mr. CAVALCANTE and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—19

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Baumer, | Law, | Rankin, | Rodgers, |
| Cavalcante, | McCreesh, | Reed, | Rupp, |
| Frey, | McGinnis, | (Washington) | Thompson, |

| Kahle, | Pytko, | Roberts, | Trainer, |
| Lanius, | | | |

| Batchelor, | Gelder, | McClure, | Shapiro, |
| Bennett, | Graff, | Norton, | Staudenmeier, |
| Buckman, | Harris, | Owlett, | Thompson, |
| Chapman, | Homsher, | Pierson, | (Westmoreland) |
| Clark, | Howell, | Prince, | Woodward, |
| Coyne, | Hunsicker, | Reed, | Ziesenheim, |
| Ealy, | Mallery, | (Dauphin) | |

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, His Excellency, the Governor, is inconsistent in recommending a tobacco tax and a gasoline tax instead of a general sales tax, because they are intrinsically sales taxes. I hold in my hand replies from Governors of various States in reference to the general sales tax.

A national survey is being conducted by one of the large national organizations, with a membership of 2,000,000,000, to secure information on methods used in meeting the financial burden imposed by unemployment relief, old age pensions, etc. The following telegram was sent to the Governors of the various states having sales tax laws:

"We would greatly appreciate a telegram from you answering the following questions:

1. Has the sales tax been satisfactory as a revenue producer?

2. Have you experienced any serious difficulties in its administration?

3. Do you feel that there has been any serious evasion of the tax?

4. Has it been your experience that opposition to the tax soon disappears after it is put into effect and the people become accustomed to it?

5. Has this tax been effective in relieving the financial necessities of the state?

6. Has it strengthened your ability to relieve unemployment distress?"

Attached are copies of replies so far received.

Raleigh, North Carolina, March 25, 1935.

"Replying to your telegram:

1. The three per cent sales tax in our state with certain basic food exemptions will this year approximate seven and one half million dollars.

2. We have experienced no serious difficulty in administration.

3. There have been some evasions under the exemption provisions and the usual percentage of administrative difficulties attendant upon any tax collection.

4. There is less opposition than at the time of its original enactment as is evidenced by the fact that our present sitting legislature will probably reenact it without the exemptions. The House of Representatives having passed a bill to this effect yesterday.

5. The returns from this tax are turned into our general fund and they enabled the state during the last two years to take over the responsibility for a full eight months of school throughout the Commonwealth, North Carolina being perhaps the only state in the Union that kept all schools open last year for the full eight months term. The tax goes into the general fund sixty-five per cent of which supports our school program. Thus we have been able through this tax to balance our budget and meet all obligations promptly and in cash as well as reduce greatly our tremendous load of indebtedness.

(Signed)
J. C. B. EHRINGHAUS, Governor."
(Democrat.)

Springfield, Ill., March 23, 1935.

"Honorable Governor Horner has referred your wire to this department. Answering questions regarding our experience with retailers occupation tax act:

1. Our act producing approximately $39,000,000 per annum.

2. Have experienced no serious difficulties in administering act.

3. There has been no important measure of evasion.

4. After act was in force a short time practically all opposition due from retailers disappeared. Only consumer opposition due to absence of currency less than one cent. This department taking steps to provide fractional stamps in mill denominations; that should eliminate all consumer opposition.

5. Act has put Illinois on sound financial basis.

6. Act enabled state to meet extraordinary demands for money to relieve unemployment distress.

(Signed)
S. D. NUDELMAN, Assistant to Director, Department of Finance."
(Governor-Democrat.)

Des Moines, Iowa, March 23, 1935.

"Answering telegram, sales tax does produce revenue; no serious difficulties; no evasions; opposition to the tax disappears after it is understood. I believe it to be a most fair and efficient tax.

(Signed)
CLYDE L. HERRING, Governor of Iowa."
(Democrat.)

Charleston, West Virginia, March 23, 1935.

"Consumer's sales tax satisfactory in West Virginia. Experience no serious difficulty in administration. No extensive attempt to evade. Opposition faded when necessary for tax understood by people. Tax has been effective in maintaining our free schools to which it is applied. This tax spreads the unusual Government requirements over the broadest base and I believe it is absolutely fair when placed in the background of our whole tax structure.

(Signed)
H. G. KUMP, Governor."
(Democrat.)

Indianapolis, Indiana, March 23, 1935.

"Indiana has no sales tax but gross income tax on all types income including sales. First—produces satisfactory revenue, $13,000,000 annually. Second—No serious administration difficulties. Third—Evasion probably less than on most types of tax. Fourth—Principal opposition from organized retail merchants who want consumers sales tax. Fifth—Has kept schools open, lowered property tax and balanced state and local budgets Sixth—Majority of revenue for schools and not for relief. Published material follows.

(Signed)
PAUL V. McNUTT, Governor."
(Democrat.)

Pierre, South Dakota, March 25, 1935.

"In re your letter March 22 gross income tax now operating in this state. General sales tax enacted by 1935 legislature effective July 1, 1935.

(Signed)
TOM BERRY."
(Democrat.)

Phoenix, Arizona, March 23, 1935.

"Sales tax in Arizona has been entirely satisfactory. Legislature just reenacted broadening scope of same. No serious difficulties in administration. Very small percentage of tax evasion. Opposition to this method of taxation has disappeared almost entirely. This method tax collection tremendously effective in relieving financial difficulties of state making it possible for Arizona to care for its unemployed and needy as well. Consider this one of the most effective and equitable methods of tax collections.

(Signed)
B. B. MOEUR, Governor."
(Democrat.)

Jefferson City, Mo., March 23, 1935.

"Missouri retailers occupation tax rate one half of one per cent has produced the following results:

1. Total revenue, 1934, was four and one-fourth million dollars.

2. Main difficulty in administration has been lack of field men due to small appropriation for 1934.

3. While there have been evasions, we do not consider the per cent any greater than in any other form of taxation.

4. We feel chief objection is from merchants who have been absorbing the tax, but with a pass-on feature would be very acceptable.

5. This tax has been used for school and emergency relief purposes.

6. Without it Missouri could not have met the unemployment and relief requirements. Legislature is now seriously considering a two per cent rate passed on to the user or consumer to meet requirements for old age pensions, emergency relief, schools, insane poor and also to lighten tax burden of real estate. It looks as if the two per cent rate will eventually be passed.

(Signed)
G. H. BATES, Supervisor,
Retailers Occupation Dept."
(Governor-Democrat.)

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I heard the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia remark that the answers to his inquiries came from Democratic Governors. I would like to inquire whether the distinguished Senator from Pennsylvania, Dr. Woodward, had addressed the same inquiry to Republican Governors, serving in states where the sales tax is in force.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes, there is no discrimination, but they have been more tardy in replying than the Democratic Governors.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I take it that the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, is opposed to the Governor's tax program.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am in favor of a general sales tax, instead of a piece-meal sales tax.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, that is on the assumption that the tax program passed by the House will only be borne by the consumer or the general public.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, all taxes are, yes.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, as I understand the Governor's program, it is intended that the tax will be borne by those who are best able to bear it.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, on the ability to pay theory, yes.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, agrees with me in that regard.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I propose a sales tax, plus an income tax, taxing the poor and the rich. I believe in "socking the rich."

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I am inclined to agree with the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, I believe in a sales tax on those that are best able to pay. I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia whether the sales tax will not be borne by the public right at the outset.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the sales tax, what is known among the tax experts as a "regressive" tax—you know what that means—it took me three years to learn what that means— it means that it operates over a long period of time against the poor and in favor of the rich, because the rich man can stand it better than the poor man, and the tax experts call that "regressive." It is harder on the poor than on the rich.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, in other words, the Senator from Philadelphia admits that a sales tax is harder on the poor than on the rich.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I admit it.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Philadelphia whether he can reconcile himself to the idea that certain portions of the Governor's program will tax the rich, and the tax itself is borne by the poor?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes, but the Governor's mistake is in putting out a program of twenty-two taxes, because that is sure to get him in a mess. What I propose is two taxes, one a sales tax that hits everybody, and the other an income tax which hits the rich—two instead of twenty-two—you ought to join me.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I will be glad to join the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, if the Governor will join with him.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, we will get him some day, yet.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, whether he is consistent in asking that the Governor's tax program is going to be borne by the public, he agreed a moment ago, will be borne by the public. It is only an assumption and I do not think it is fair for us to assume that the rich man will fear the burden of the tax under the Governor's program, where the poor man will be compelled to bear it, whereas the assumption that is taken by some of our colleagues in this body appears to be that the poor man will not bear the burden of a general sales tax.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I enjoy levity in these Senate Halls as much as anyone, but when we are discussing a matter of this importance and we see this general indulgence in laughter, I cannot help but think it is a good deal like "Nero fiddling while Rome burned."

We have had experience with a general sales tax in this Commonwealth, and we know from that experience that even though this general sales tax will be levied, that it will not be sufficient to raise the amount of revenue that is necessary under the present emergency, and I beseech the members of this State Senate to lay aside their cloak of smugness and get down to business on the tax program that will provide revenue for the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, whether or not a general sales tax can be enacted into legislation unless it has the signature of the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I believe that that is proved for in the Constitution, Senator Gelder.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, in that case the Governor of the Commonwealth will have to join with the members of the General Assembly if there is a sales tax for the people of Pennsylvania. Now I want to call attention to just one feature of this bill: it provides that this additional 2% tax shall be diverted from the General Motor Fund to the General Fund of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The one fund which has been a worthwhile fund in Pennsylvania for unemployment relief, and which has given us the most permanent value is the Motor Fund. We are here taking this tax away from the Motor Fund of Pennsylvania and putting it into the General Fund of the general funds of the Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor THOMAS KENNEDY) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 233, entitled:

An Act to amend and re-enact the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 826), entitled "An act authorizing courts of common pleas to stay writs of execution against and tax sales of certain real property in certain cases; providing for the continuance of return days of writs of execution; and authorizing sales thereon without issuance of further writs," extending the provisions thereof for two years; and exempting mortgages issued under the National Housing Act.

House Bill No. 275, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand one hundred twenty of the act approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," providing for and regulating joint sewer improvements.

House Bill No. 276, entitled:

An Act to amend section three thousand two hundred and forty of the act approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled: "Third Class City Law," providing for and regulating joint sewer improvements.

House Bill No. 277, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand five hundred and forty of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 103), entitled "The Second Class Township Law," providing for and regulating joint sewer improvements.

House Bill No. 278, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand four hundred forty of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1206) entitled "First Class Township Law," providing for and regulating joint sewer improvements.

House Bill No. 677, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three hundred eleven, three hundred eighteen and three hundred twenty-one of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "General County Law," as amended; further amplifying the powers of the retirement board in counties of the second class; increasing the contributions of such counties, county poor districts and employes; and restricting rights to retire for disability in certain cases.

House Bill No. 877, entitled:

An Act validating writs of scire facias to revive municipal claims entered by boroughs and townships of the first class, where more than five years have elapsed since the original claims were filed or a prior revival thereof made.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor THOMAS KENNEDY) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 600, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Rochester General Hospital of Rochester Beaver County Pennsylvania

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 693 (House Bill No. 132), on second reading entitled:

An Act prohibiting the employment of miners in the bituminous coal mines unless certificated after examination by a miners examining board providing for the appointment of such boards and defining their powers and duties and providing penalties.

be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining for further consideration.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Graff, that the bill originally was in the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, my reason for asking it to be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining, is that there have been a number of requests for a hearing, and it seems to me, that the proper committee for this bill would be the Committee on Mines and Mining, and, therefore, I made the motion as I did.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Graff.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Graff permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALVANTE. Mr. President, I would like to know for what purpose this bill is to be recommitted.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, I will say that this bill passed the House finally on March 20th, when it first came over to the Senate, and there have been a number of requests for a hearing and for further study, and for that reason I made the motion that I did.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to ask what committee reported this bill?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, that the bill was reported from the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, then, if the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Graff, desires a hearing, it could be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special, and, as a member of that Committee, I will be glad to grant a hearing.

Mr. President, as a matter of courtesy, the Chairman of the Judiciary Special Committee is not present, and I would be loathe to vote to recommit this bill to any other committee until such time as he is present. There can be no harm in having this bill recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special, or go over in its order until the Chairman of the Judiciary Special Committee is present.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, I would like to say that I have conferred with the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary Special and it is perfectly agreeable to him to recommit it to this Committee. However, if the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, insists, I am perfectly willing to let it go over in its order.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HARRIS. I ask unanimous consent that Senate bill No. 693 (House Bill 132) go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Section 2 Upon the approval of this act the State Treasurer after deducting from the entire amount appropriated for salaries and office expenses and for the unorganized counties shall divide the balance into two equal parts

The one part hereinafter referred to as the second part shall be held intact for distribution on and after the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six in the manner hereinafter provided

The other part shall upon the approval of this act be distributed among the several counties organized under the Mothers' Assistance Fund system according to a budget for each county prepared by the Secretary of Welfare after taking into consideration the following basis of distribution

(1) The number of families receiving assistance on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (2) in addition provision for other eligible families which could not be aided from the funds available for the past biennium

The apportionment to each county shall be based upon the average grant per family prevailing in such county during the year ending the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four

Section 3 On the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six the State Treasurer shall set aside out of the second part to each county organized at the beginning of the biennium under the Mothers' Assistance System a sum equal to that apportioned to it under the preceding section by the Secretary of Welfare provided the amount so set aside to any county together with the unexpended balance of the amount apportioned to the county during the first year shall constitute the State's assistance during the second year to such county

Section 4 No county shall receive its allotment of the State appropriation available for any year under the method of distribution provided by this act unless such county has accepted the provisions of the act approved the tenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred ninety-three) as amended and has placed at the disposal of the board of trustees a sum equal to the amount available from the State appropriation for such year No county shall receive any sum from the State under sections two and three of this act unless such county shall appropriate a like sum for the same purpose

Section 5 Out of the amount hereinbefore appropriated there shall be set apart for the counties not organized under the Mothers' Assistance Fund law on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-four a sum equal to the amount that would be their allocation if the amount available for Mothers' Assistance were allocated to counties on the basis of population The amount thus allocated to any unorganized county shall be divided by the State Treasurer into two equal parts and one such part shall be available for each fiscal year of the biennium Any unorganized county organizing during the first or second fiscal year of the biennium shall be required to match only such portion as would have been available for the months of the year or fiscal period remaining after such acceptance had such county been organized at the beginning of the fiscal period.

Section 6 Out of the amount hereinbefore appropriated the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be set apart and applied for the payment of the salaries of the State Supervisor of the Mothers' Assistance Fund and of such assistants clerks and other employees as may be required for the proper conduct of the work of the supervisor for the traveling hotel and other expenses of the supervisor and her assistants for the cost of making special investigations and for incidental contingent and other expenses of every kind and description necessary for the proper administration of the Mothers' Assistance System

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

The House met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The Speaker (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rabbi David L. Silver, Kesher Israel Congregation, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Unto Thee, Oh Divine, do we pray today to endow us with wisdom and foresight in guiding the destiny of our fellowmen. Though the times be difficult, with menacing clouds of distress and insecurity still on the horizon, may the lawmakers of this Commonwealth become imbued with the fortitude and vision essential to restore hope and well-being to those who dwell herein. The integrity of man is being challenged today by potent forces, social and anti-social, which have wrought havoc in many a quarter. Many indeed are they who have been engulfed in the maelstrom of economic and political crisis, helpless victims of dire misfortune. May, therefore, the laws herein devised bring true aid and comfort to the needy and may the welfare of all, and not the privilege of the few, be the sole objective of what issues forth from these chambers.

May the members of this House be blessed with happiness, and through them may the spirit of justice reign here supreme. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

All other acts and parts of acts whether special local or general inconsistent herewith are also hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in this bill, House Bill No. 458, I am thoroughly in accord with the principles therein contained, and would ask the members of this House to vote in favor of this bill.

I cannot help but direct your attention, however, to the fact that being in accord with the principles set forth in this bill that at the begining of the session, on January 15th of this year, I introduced a bill known as House Bill 122. I want to say, however, in fairness to the gentleman from Philadlphia, Mr. Burke, that I do not wish that statement to be construed in a manner that would indicate that which I have indicated before, to wit, that my bill was copied by him. The gentleman, Mr. Burke, advised me that before the session started, he had in contemplation such a bill and such a principle to be set into law, and I am frank to say that I took his word and, therefore, do not wish it to be imputed to him that my bill was copied. I do say, however, that the substance of the two bills is identical. I want it noted on the record that the Republican party of this Commonwealth, and the Republican representatives in this House stand in favor of the principle in this bill, and so standing in favor, introduced such a bill which we would like to have had enacted in the law.

I also wish to direct the attention of the membership of this House to the fact that a bill similar in nature and character is now in the House Committee, being the bill of Senator Shapiro, the Republican Senator from Philadelphia, Senate Bill No. 8, which is practically identical in substance with this bill.

It seems rather strange to me that we should go through the double work of passing a bill in this House and then sending it over to the Senate, when all we would have to do to cover the same subject would be to pass one bill. However, I take it that partisan politics continues to exist.

I do want to say one thing, that I regret very much that the gentleman from Philadelphia was rather consistent in defeating or causing to be defeated the amendments made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, so as to include the employes of the Registration Commission, but I take it there that also partisan politics had something to do with the bills that we pass, and that it depends upon whose axe is being ground and who is in control of the particular job. However, I also do not blame the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, for talking on this bill, and I hope that my laryngitis will not be any worse for having done so. I will ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not going to ask the indulgence of the House very long on this bill. This bill is what I call a quintuplet bill. We have already passed four bills, all tending to the same end, and for me to enumerate the merits of this bill would be a matter of duplication, but the fact that I call these bills quintuplets suggests to me another wonder, which we have all witnessed today.

Last week the partition on the back of the House was removed, and today we see the partition, an invisible partition which has run down through the center aisle since the session has opened, it has vanished.

Here is a very good, a very valuable and helpful idea which I want to give to the members of this House. I hope you do not think me forward as a new member in trying to give any advice to many of you members who have been in these seats for five or six sessions, but it is a matter that has been very forcibly been brought home to me by the minority leader of this house.

You will probably recall about two weeks ago that he admonished me on the floor of this House with the remark that sometimes ghosts come back to haunt to you. I wonder if the minority leader of this House was not visited within the last few days by the ghost of the Salary Survey Commission. He put himself on record in 1927, and I think the ghost has come forward within the last few months to urge him to support legislation of this character.

Let this be a lesson to each one of us, in order that we may be reminded that these ghosts may come back at any time to haunt us. Let us recall the last line of that old story that we heard as children, "And the goblins will get you if you don't watch out."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 385, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 1013), entitled "An act regulating the issuance of licenses to marry; prohibiting the issuance of such licenses to certain persons; regulating the time during which licenses shall be valid, and the time when returns shall be made of marriages solemnized to the clerk of the orphans' court; and prescribing the duties of the clerk of the orphans' court," by requiring three days to elapse between the application for, and the issuance of, the license.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Berks whether he has had anything to do with the introduction of this marriage bill by the lady from Philadelphia, Miss Brancato?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I did not.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 179, Printer's No. 293, on page 16 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. JOHN E. BROWN.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 179, entitled:

An Act to repeal section eight of the act approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 401), entitled "An act to amend the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred and seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending, and consolidating the laws relating thereto,' by further regulating the affairs of such counties; imposing penalties for certain violations of said act, as amended; and repealing certain existing laws."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I say that this bill only concerns the fourth class counties, and not them unless the recorder has appointed a solicitor. This repeals Section 8 of the Act of 1931—I believe it is—where the recorders of the fourth class counties may appoint a solicitor. It leaves this matter entirely in the hands of the recorder. He may appoint him if he wishes. In Washington County we have an attorney for the recorder, and he draws a salary of $550 a year; not very much, but a great principle is involved, as the solicitor, the members of the Bar claim, is entirely unnecessary. I don't think that many of the fourth class counties have a solicitor. We wish to dispense with ours in Washington County.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. John E. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Washington to say that this would do away with the solicitor for the recorder of deeds in all fourth class counties?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, yes; the act refers to all counties of the fourth class. The recorder of deeds may appoint one person as his solicitor. The said solicitor shall advise the recorder of deeds upon all legal matters that may be submitted to him, and so fourth.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, where will the recorders of deeds in these fourth class counties secure their legal information as to the recording of foreign papers, the validity of acknowledgments in foreign countries and advice upon the indexing system in the office, and various other matters pertaining to that office?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, he could secure his information from the county solicitor. We have different solicitors in the Court Houses.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, doesn't the gentleman from Washington know that it is not the duty of the county solicitor to furnish information to all the officers of the county, and that he cannot be compelled to furnish such information to the recorder of deed's office?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I have been informed by members of the Bar that the solicitor for the recorder has never been called upon; that his services are not necessary.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that this office of solicitor for the recorder of deeds is necessary in many counties, particularly in those counties having a large percentage of foreign population, for the reason that many papers are placed upon record coming from foreign countries. It is necessary for the solicitor to know whether those papers are in proper shape to be recorded, and to know whether they conform to the requirements of the law of the state of Pennsylvania. For the further reason that in many counties, to my knowledge, that have a solicitor, vast savings can be effected through the recommendations of that solicitor as to the recording systems of the counties, and as to the supervision of the work in the recorder of deed's office.

You will note, members of the House, that this act says, "may retain a solicitor." If a solicitor is not necessary, the recorder should not retain a solicitor, and it is the fault of the people of that particular community that they put into office a recorder who retains unnecessary help, but I think it is only right and proper that where a solicitor is required, that the man at the head of that office should be permitted to retain a solicitor. That is all this act does, and yet if you repeal the act, you will say to every recorder of a fourth class county in the state of Pennsylvania that "You may not have a solicitor, although you may require one." You will further say to him, "You can get no advice upon the affairs of your office for the reason that the county solicitor is not compelled to give you such advice." I think it is only fair to these gentlemen in office to let them have a solicitor if one is needed, and to depend upon the judgment of those officials that no solicitor is appointed if he is not needed, and if an official transcend the trust that is put in him, it is the duty of the people of that community to see that he is not returned to office. I, therefore, ask the members of this House to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to say to you I am also a member from a fourth class county, and I have some information regarding this very matter that I think might help you when you come to vote.

Four years ago our recorder appointed an attorney at a thousand dollars a year, which the law allows and permits. The first time that the Salary Board members came down to her office, they told her, "Now, we don't need a solicitor, an attorney. We haven't got $15 worth of legal advice, and you can easily get that from any attorney in the city." Her reply was, "The law gives me the right to appoint an attorney, and I am going to appoint him," and she did. The next time they came down, the Salary Board told her the same thing, and she said, "I am still going to appoint an attorney, but I will reduce his salary to $900 a year." That is an authentic case, and I can prove every word of it. This recorder required the attorney's information to about $15 a year, and the taxpayers paid a thousand dollars for two or three years, and now they are paying $900, and that appointment was made just on political influence. Why should the taxpayers be required to pay a thousand dollars a year for what the recorder can buy from any attorney in the city. He doesn't have to be a district attorney. There are a dozen young attorneys that would be glad to answer any question that the recorder would bring up for fifteen or twenty-five dollars.

Vote "no" on this bill and save the taxpayers of the fourth class counties five hundred to a thousand dollars a year.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I also happen to come from a fourth class county, and for the reasons previously stated, a solicitor is needed. However, in my county we pay him the sum of three hundred dollars per year.

Now, it would not be proper to make a remark, perhaps, that if they had a Democratic recorder the rates would be less, and it is not the fault of the county if a Republican recorder sees fit to pay nine hundred dollars, but I will not make that remark, because I am asking my Republican friends to vote against this bill.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Van Sickle?

The Speaker. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VanSICKLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like just to inquire as to the gentleman's business?

Mr. VanSICKLE. An attorney, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

STATEMENT BY MR. ANDREWS

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to call the attention of this House to the fact that after having voted $215,000,000 in new taxes, the House places itself almost unanimously in opposition to the first economy measure presented to the membership; the first opportunity to reduce the burden upon the local taxpayer.

Mr. McCREARY asked, but did not obtain unanimous consent to make a statement to the House.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 749, Printer's No. 316, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and fifty-six of the act apporved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth class and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as amended reducing the number of assistant district attorneys in counties of the fifth and sixth class

On page 10 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, be extended five days.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. GEORGE E. DOWNEY. Mr. Speaker. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harmuth was required to leave the hall of the House for a short conference, and he requested that House Bill No. 734, Printer's No. 363 be passed over for the present until he returns.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1311 as follows:

An Act to amend section one thousand five hundred and eleven of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as added authorizing school districts to provide for the treatment of diseased tonsils of pupils and to furnish glasses

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one thousand five hundred and eleven of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as added by the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand thirty-two) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1511 Any school district may With the consent of parents guardian or person standing in loco parentis provide for the care and treatment of defective eyes [and] teeth and treatment or removal of diseased tonsils or adenoids of pupils of its public schools and may furnish glasses to pupils at the expense of the school district

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I feel that there is a certain amount of merit in this bill. However, I think that there are some matters that have not been fully considered. I cannot divulge to the House what went on in Committee, but I can say this, that until the bill was placed on the calendar I was very much in favor of it, and I can further state that I have taken the matter up with school directors and physicions, and I feel that under all the circumstances this bill should be recommitted to the Committee on Education.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I make a motion at this time that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education, and I want further to state, Mr. Speaker, that I make the motion before it has been read for the third time, in order that it can be considered, and probably or possibly amended in the Committee on Education.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. FLANAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I object to this bill being recommitted.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, in the course of the confusion we were unable to hear the remarks of either of the gentlemen, and we just don't know where we are.

The SPEAKER. The purpose of the motion is to recommit the bill to the Committee on Education for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, are we to understand that the sponsor of this bill has no objection to its being recommitted?

The SPEAKER. The sponsor has objected.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, in order that my position may be clear on this matter, I will repeat what I did say, and possibly add a little to the reasons why I think this bill should be recommitted to the Committee on Education. I stated, in the first place, that I cannot divulge what took place in the Committee, but I can state to this House that until this bill was placed on the calendar, and even after it was on the calendar, I was very much in favor of it. There was considerable sentiment at the time for amendment of this bill.

I have taken the matter up with physicians. I was very much surprised that they had certain objections to it, which appear more or less valid to me. I also took the matter up with several school directors, and they are very much opposed to it, and I think there are certain things in reference to this bill to be further considered.

We are putting an additional burden on the school boards, and we have to be careful along that line. There is another question involved in this bill, and that is the question of how far the school board owes an obligation to the students to give them medical attention, and I understand that a State organization of physicians is working up a program with the assistance of the Federal Administration, with which this bill may be to some extent interfere. That program, as I understand it, is to get money from the State Government for the purpose, at least in certain districts, of examining all of the children and giving them the medical attention which is necessary. We are now providing in this bill that the school board will have authority to give attention along certain medical lines to certain of the population. This is putting a burden on the school board, and there are certain reasons in connection with it, which I think should receive further conisideration by the Committee.

I did not want to get on the floor to oppose the bill, and I am not on the floor for that purpose, but if the bill is not recommitted I will have to propose it, and in fairness to the sponsor, I thought it was proper to move to recommit before it was read the third time, because if there are any amendments to go in, they can be put in by the Committee at that time. Therefore, I ask you to vote for this motion.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the sponsor of this bill, I wish to state that the suggestion of the gentleman from Dauphin is agreeable, namely, to recommit House Bill No. 1311, Printer's No. 395, to the Committee on Education.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman the purposing in moving to recommit the bill—for what purpose?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of further study and amendment.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I see no reason why the bill should be recommitted. The Committee studied the bill and reported it out, and the bill is merely a bill that gives school boards the option of giving medical attention to tonsils in certain cases. The law at the present time, I believe, gives them that right for the care of the teeth and the eyes.

As this bill is not mandatory, I do not see how it is going to bring or put an added obligation on the school boards.

As Chairman of the Committee on Education, I am opposing this motion to recommit, unless it is the view of certain physicians among our membership that it should be done. They should have a store of information on this subject, and I think we should have their advice. So I would like to ask the various physicians among our membership, and especially the two physicians upon the Committee, just what their reaction might be at this time as to the bill. We have Doctor Merrell and Doctor Hindman on that Committee. I would like to hear from those physicians.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to talk on the merits of this bill.

The Speaker. The merits of the bill are not debatable at this time. The question now before the House is the motion to recommit.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not like to prolong this debate, but since the sponsor has agreed to recommit it and the Chairman of the Committee on Education has on this floor expressed his favoritism for the bill, I think it would certainly receive fair treatment in the committee. There is no indication that there is any desire to pickle the bill, and I don't see why the House should not vote "aye" on this motion.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, since the sponsor of the bill has stated that it is agreeable to him that the bill should be recommitted, I will withdraw my objection.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1170 (Senate Bill No. 242), entitled:

An Act to amend sections four and fifteen of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eight) entitled "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons and drugs and providing penalties for the violation thereof defining the words 'drug' and 'poison' and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality strength and purity" as amended changing the qualifications of applicants for examination and registration and changing violations of the act from misdemeanors to summary proceedings

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, a question of information. I would like to know if there is any member of the House who can explain this bill?

The SPEAKER. Is there any member in this House who will volunteer to explain the provisions of this bill to the gentleman from Schuylkill?

Mr. FERKO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my profession is a pharmacist in the city of Philadelphia, and the other day a member of the State Board of Pharmacy got in touch with me and asked me to kindly support this bill, that they are satisfied with it.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ferko.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FERKO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if this bill prevents anybody but a pharmacist from selling chemicals and poison?

Mr. FERKO. Mr. Speaker, to be truthful, I didn't look into that matter myself, but I believe that the bill is to prevent anyone but pharmacists, especially to put up prescriptions and to run a drug store. That is what I believe.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my purpose in inquiring into this bill was to ascertain whether farmers would be compelled according to page three, line twenty-six of the bill, to go to a drug store to buy chemicals for their purposes. I am still of the opinion that according to this bill probably it would compel a farmer to go to a drug store to purchase his chemicals—according to page three, line twenty-six of the bill.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have just looked at this bill. I have no particular interest in it, except all it appears to do is to change the qualifications of the applicant for examination in order to be a pharmacist, and that it does not change any regulation with respect to who can or cannot sell. In addition to that, all it does is to say that any violation of the act shall be a summary conviction punishable by a fine of twenty-five dollars in lieu of a misdemeanor and indictable. Outside of those two things, without going into a discussion as to what the qualifications of the applicant are, I see that the bill does not change any particular law with respect to who or who can not sell certain articles.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HARMUTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 734, Printer's No. 363, on page 13 of today's calendar, bills on third reading which was passed over during my absence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 734, entitled:

An Act to amend clause forty-six of sections one thousand two hundred and two of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" authorizing the erection of memorials

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the sort of bill that no member likes to oppose, but it seems to me that it is going a little too far.

As I understood it, it not only authorizes boroughs to give speaking rooms to veterans, posts, and camps, the veterans of various wars, but also to furnish them with free utility service from municipally owned utilites, and furthermore authorizes them to erect memorials at a cost of not to exceed one thousand dollars. As I understand it, under the wording of this act it would be possible for a borough to put up a memorial each year at an expense of a thousand dollars.

I haven't any particular objection to the people of a borough getting together and putting up memorials if they want to, but I do think there is a serious objection to putting such authority in the hands of councils, because you know there can be a lot of pressure brought upon those councils to erect such memorials and I think it would be greatly abused.

I think that a measure of this kind should not be passed by this House.

Mr. HARMUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is not mandatory, it is optional as to whether the boroughs really want to build a memorial for the soldiers of the late war, and the cities and counties have that permission already. Therefore, I think it is a good bill. The boys who served in this last war ought to have a memorial if the boroughs desire to put one up. It just gives them permission, it is not mandatory, therefore I think the bill is all right. I hope the members will give that much consideration to the soldier boys.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1067, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-five of the act approved the tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 866), entitled "An act relative to the establishment and jurisdiction of magistrates' courts in Philadelphia, and creating a board of magistrates; providing for a chief magistrate; prescribing their powers and duties; providing for clerks; establishing a central administrative office; imposing upon the City of Philadelphia the cost of establishment and maintenance of magistrates' courts, including payment of all salaries; fixing salaries and restricting magistrates to duties of office; and repealing certain prior acts," by changing the time of holding the election for the office of chief city magistrate and the term thereof, and terminating the term of the chief magistrate now in office.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of the bill before you is very clear and very fair. It provides for the election of a chief city magistrate by the board of magistrates in the city of Philadelphia, by the duly elected members of that particular board. Under the present act the chief city magistrate in the city of Philadelphia is elected for his term of office as magistrate. The present chief magistrate's term of office for the city of Philadelphia as magistrate will expire at the end of this year.

The purpose of this bill is to provide an election of the chief magistrate in the city of Philadelphia by the duly elected members of that board and to eliminate any lame ducks having a voice in the election of this important office.

I claim that it is not a partisan measure and I ask the members on both sides of this House to support this bill.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Pfaff?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Pfaff, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PFAFF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if there is any demand for a change in the election of the chief magistrate by the magistrates of Philadelphia?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, I might answer that by saying, yes.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman kindly name those magistrates?

Mr. PFAFF. Well, Mr. Speaker, I can't specifically name them but I do know that in the last election of the chief magistrate in Philadelphia, there were certain duly elected magistrates in the last municipal elections that had no part in the election of the present chief magistrate in Philadelphia.

Mr. TAHL. In other words, the gentleman can not name a single magistrate in the city of Philadelphia who is in favor of this bill and that includes both Republican and Democratic magistrates?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, I have spoken to several of them, and I don't know that I should have to mention their names, but I do know that there is opposition to the present method of electing the chief magistrate in Philadelphia.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman can't mention one?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, I don't care to.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has answered the same question three times.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, do I understand correctly from the gentleman's remarks that the purpose of this bill is to prevent what we call "lame ducks" from voting for a chief magistrate?

Mr. PFAFF. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Then, Mr. Speaker, why not change the day of the month or the time for electing the chief magistrate instead of changing the term of the magistrate?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, I think the provisions of my bill are equitable and fair.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not answering my question. I asked him if the purpose of it is to eliminate those magistrates who have been defeated for reelection from choosing the chief magistrate, and if so, why not merely change the time when election that should take place?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, the bill specifically regulates or suggests the time for the election of the chief magistrate.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, would it be satisfactory to the gentleman if the bill was merely amended to change the time when the election should take place instead of the term of the chief magistrate?

Mr. PFAFF. No, Mr. Speaker, it would not.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman has stated to the House that the purpose is merely to eliminate those magistrates, who were defeated, for voting for a chief magistrate, that is not the chief purpose of this bill, is it?

Mr. PFAFF. That is one of the chief purposes, Mr. Speaker; yes.

Mr. TAHL. May I ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, how many purposes he has in advocating this bill?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, I might say that all of the purposes that I have stated in my answers to the interrogations were in the interest of a fair and proper selection of a chief magistrate of the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House I am opposed to this bill, because I know that there is no necessity for the changing of the term for which the chief magistrate is elected. If the magistrates of Philadelphia, Republicans or Democrats had requested that it be changed, I would have no objection to this bill, but there is not a single magistrate in the city of Philadelphia, and my friend on the other side has been unable to mention one, who is in favor of this bill and I want to ask you to defeat this bill, because there is no necessity for it.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House I do know that there are many magistrates in the City of Philadelphia that do object to the present method, of electing the Chief Magistrate in the city of Philadelphia. I do not know whether it is ethical or not for me to name those particular men or whether there is any necessity for me to name them, but I do know that there is considerable objection to the present method of selecting or electing a Chief Magistrate by the Board of Magistrates in the city of Philadelphia.

USE OF HALL OF HOUSE GRANTED COMMITTEE ON LABOR

Mr. YOURISHIN. I move, Mr. Speaker, that in view of the fact that at the public hearing yesterday of the Committee on Labor on House Bill No. 1199, through no fault of that Committee and over which they had no control, a delay was caused and in view of the fact that the opponents of the bill took the arbitrary action of refusing to speak before the committe, claiming that they had not had sufficient time and leaving the impression with the public that the Committee on Labor was unfair in its tactics, I move that this House grant the Committee on Labor the privilege of using the hall of this House on Tuesday of next week from two to five to have a public hearing on House Bill No. 1199, so as to give the opponents of this bill a chance to be heard before the Committee of Labor.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

RESOLUTION NO. 103

Mr. KANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up House Resolution No. 103.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 21st, 1935.

Whereas, It is the opinion of the Committee on Mines and Mining of the House of Representatives that a great part of the market for Pennsylvania anthracite coal has been lost by reason of high frieght rates and the depreciation of foreign currencies, which make possible low price labor in those countries and lower cost of water transportation; and

Whereas, Railroads and other carriers involved would be largely compensated for any reduction in rates by the increased volume of anthracite coal which would be shipped as a result of restored markets for this commodity; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives has made every endeavor to uphold standards of working conditions and wages of the mining industry of Pennsylvania, which must inevitably suffer if the serious reductions of the anthracite market should continue and increase; and

Whereas, The Committee on Mines and Mining of the House of Representatives has unanimously agreed to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint seven members of the House of Representatives to constitute a committee, as non-political as possible, whose duty it shall be to investigate the cost of transportation from the anthracite producing regions of Pennsylvania to consumption points in maritime Canada and New England, and the seaports of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and that if said committee find that high rates have materially reduced or will materially reduce the market for Pennsylvania anthracite coal in competition with coal produced in Great Britain or other foreign countries or in competition with fuel oil selling at unreasonably low prices due to world-wide overproduction of cheap grades of crude oil to endeavor to secure lower freight rates to the markets above mentioned by negotiation with carriers involved and if necessary by requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to revise and reduce such transportation rates as are within their jurisdiction; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee make its report to the House of Representatives at the present session of the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE TRANSPORTATION COST OF COAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints at this time the following committee to investigate the transportation cost of anthracite coal in accordance with House Resolution No. 103, Messrs. Kane, Baldi, John J. Downey, Roan, Hirsch, Stank and Bradley.

RESIGNATION FROM COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication which was read by the Clerk:

House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

March 20, 1935.

Honorable Wilson G. Sarig,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Sarig:

Being unable to accept the appointment on the Committee to investigate the University of Pittsburgh, I ask you to appoint another member in my stead.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Jacob B. Schrock.

JBS-MS

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber, to serve on the Committee created by the passage of Resolution No. 61, to investigate conditions at the University of Pittsburgh vice Jacob B. Schrock.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair has a very important matter to bring before the House at this time.

The Chair has received a number of requests this morning asking that we have no session tomorrow.

The Chair wishes to lay before the House the situation as it is. If we have no session tomorrow we will have a very small calendar for Monday evening. We passed fifteen bills on first reading this morning, and if we have a session tomorrow we will have those fifteen bills on third reading, on Monday evening, they will be passed on second reading tomorrow. It so happens that this morning a majority of the bills on the second reading calendar were not called up consequently if we have no session tomorrow we will have a very slim calendar for Monday night.

The experience of the Chair in past years has been that the months of March and April reach the high tide of every legislative session. When the warm weather comes in about the first of May, the members will begin to think of going home; that has been the experience in every session, and the Chair feels that we should work with full steam ahead during the months of March and April. If, however, the members feel that they would rather stay a little longer or prolong the session, it is up to the members of the House themselves—the House is its own boss. The Chair is only the servant of the House. The Chair will leave it to the House to decide whether they want to stay here and have the committees work tomorrow and also advance the bills on second reading so as to have a calendar Monday night or whether they wish to adjourn today and come back next Monday night. However, in case you wish to adjourn today, we would have to have a four o'clock session this afternoon. In case we decide to stay over until tomorrow, we can dispense with the four o'clock session this afternoon and do the rest of the work tomorrow morning.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I inject myself at this time to make a few remarks in reference to our staying here tomorrow, with the condition of the calendar. I think that the Chair is failing to take into consideration the fact that we have started with Thursday sessions possibly earlier than we have in many former sessions. We have been working along here four days a week pretty steadily. It makes it pretty difficult for a great many of us to get the Fridays and Saturdays at home. If I thought that we could, by working Thursdays now cut down the length of this session, I would certainly concur in the Speaker's opinion, but in view of the fact that there are many functions yet to be performed by the Legislature that have not as yet come along on the program, and that we cannot speed up by being here now, it seems to me that you ought to give us all the opportunity you can to be at home at this time, because a little bit later on, as I see it, we are going to have heavy calendars anyway, and we are going to stay here at that time to perform the duties that are absolutely necessary to be performed before the Legislature can adjourn. I do not think that it is necessary to have a heavy calendar at any time. That presupposes that the thing to do is to pass bills. I think that the people would be very glad if we failed to pass bills rather than passing a lot of bills, and if we have a light calendar it may make it a little easier on Monday night. I, therefore, will urge upon the Speaker that if he has the opportunity as it now presents itself to give us a short session this week, that the Speaker do so.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wants to get the sentiment of the House.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that every representative here was elected to come down here and work. If we were elected to do this job, let us stay here and do it. There are a lot of men here that are in business that want to handle two jobs at one time. If you can't handle your business and also handle this job, give one or the other up. You were elected to come down here and represent the people. Let us stay here and do what we were elected to do.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am wondering what the people up in Erie County will think. I am trying to represent them, I am willing and anxious to put in all of the time that is necessary. If I had not been, I would not have campaigned for this office. I am wondering why people or representatives will campaign for an office when they haven't the time to fulfill the duties of that office. I simply want to corroborate what the gentleman from Allegheny County says, that if you can't handle two jobs, give up this one and attend to your own, but when you agree with the people in your district that you will come to Harrisburg and represent them and try to make wise and beneficent laws, why don't you attend to your job.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I make a motion?

The SPEAKER. What is the character of the motion?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, a motion on the question we are debating now.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be glad to have a motion so as to bring the matter to a test before the House, and in order to get the sentiment of the House.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move this House have an afternoon session beginning at 4 o'clock, and that after the afternoon session, we adjourn until next Monday night at 9 o'clock.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By MESSRS. McDERMOTT, HOLSTROM and RINN. RESOLUTION No. 107.

In the House of Representatives, March 27, 1935.

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board has created a Lehigh County Relief Board to administer the relief funds made available for said county; and

Whereas, The Department of Labor and Industry has established a State employment office in the City of Allentown, Lehigh County; and

Whereas, There have been numerous complaints of gross abuse of the discretionary power and authority vested in the Lehigh County Relief Board and in the State employment office at Allentown, and it is reported that certain groups and individuals have been discriminaed against; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of three Members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to make a rigid investigation of the conduct and operation of the Lehigh County Relief Board and of the Allentown State employment office, and to investigate such facts and circumstances surrounding the conduct of such board and office as it deems necessary for the information of the House of Representatives;

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives during this session as early as possible;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bill numered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1006.

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Treasury Department for the refunding of moneys escheated to the Commonwealth

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 433.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 27, 1935.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 433, Printer's No. 30, entitled, "An Act making an appropriation to the City of Philadelphia for monies advanced by said City to the Delaware River Bridge Commission jointly with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with interest which monies including the monies so advanced by the City of Philadelphia were repaid to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by the Delaware River Bridge Commission."

GEORGE H. EARLE.

RESOLUTION NO. 57

Mr. SHEPARD asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up House Resolution No. 57.

The Resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 18, 1935.

Whereas, Organizations of colored citizens are endeavoring to have the Postmaster General of the United States issue an emancipation progress stamp commemorating the progress of the colored people of the United States since their emancipation January first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania commend the efforts of the colored citizens of this country in their endeavor to have an emancipation progress stamp issued as an evidence of the progress of the colored people of the United States since the date when their liberties were granted and full citizenship accorded to them.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the reason for asking this privilege at this time is because of the fact that a delegation of colored citizens from Pennsylvania will await upon the Postmaster General tomorrow, and ask his interest and aid in this respect, and we feel that the support and good will of the members of this House will greatly facilitate that meeting and help us to get this stamp commemorating emancipation.

Therefore, I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on this resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 371, Printer's No. 359, on page 8 of today's calendar, bills on second reading.

Agreeably to order,
The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with
The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 371, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand twenty-four), entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" as amended by excepting from the provisions of the act certain occupations and professions and further regulating the hours of labor

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand twenty-four), entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the term "establishment" when used in this act shall mean any place within this Commonwealth where work is done for compensation of any sort to whomever payable Provided That this act shall not apply to [work] farming

The term "person" when used in this act shall be construed to include any individual partnership or other unincorporated association corporation and municipality

The term "week" when used in this act shall mean any seven consecutive days and the term "day" shall mean any twenty-four consecutive hours

On the question,
Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The Speaker. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 26, by inserting after the word "farming" the following: "nor to household servants in residence at the home of their employer."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am offering this amendment as a supporter of this bill. I endeavored to negotiate with the sponsor of the bill for the inclusion of this amendment, and I may say that I don't believe the sponsor of the bill is sincerely and heartily opposed to the amendment, but he did not wish to make the amendment before the bill was drawn up. The purpose of this amendment is to exempt from the provisions of this act the solitary cook, nurse maid, which she frequently is in a private home, who stays, resides with the family, and whose hours of labor are almost impossible to compute. It seems to me that this applies to practically every member of this Legislature, and if you are going to be subject to possible prosecution every time there is a disagreement as to the hours of labor of the woman who takes care of your baby, or something of that sort, this bill would become intolerable. I am speaking as a friend of this bill. This bill is a good measure, it is to protect the class of people who have no protection, who have no organization, who are scattered in small units throughout the commonwealth, who do not have an organization that can brow beat and threaten for them. It is for a class of people for whom collective bargaining is a joke without any protection of this Legislature. As a friend of this bill, if you want this bill to become a law, do not make it impossible and intolerable so that it will never go through the Senate, and if it should become a law, it would be repealed. I merely want exemption from the provisions of this bill for the class of people whom we have always regarded as a member of the family, and whose hours of labor are impossible to compute.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose this amendment also. The sponsor of the amendment very well says that under the present conditions the hours of this type of labor are almost impossible to compute. I know of one case where they are working eighty and ninety hours a week—absolutely intolerable. If you are trying to put in this amendment you might as well put in the words "domestic service" and be done with it because about eighty per cent of the domestic servants at the present time "sleep in," and if you are going to put this bill into effect with that amendment added, why, then, they will all be compelled to sleep in the home of their employers, because they will insist upon it and they won't permit them to go out because it will mean the difference between being regulated and not regulated. If you want to protect the domestic servants then you want to defeat this amendment but if you want to protect the domestic servants then be honest about it and exempt domestic service the way it has been under the laws as it has been heretofore. I ask you to vote against this amendment.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems that we are all in favor, and that we are all in favor, and that we are all perfectly friendly with labor and with working people until it hits our pocket book. We have this provision in here for protecting people in the homes. It is true that our homes are our castles, but we have no right to make a sweat-shop out of our homes when they involve other people. This amendment is going to affect a large number of people that work in private homes. I have worked in private homes as a man and I know it is hard work and it means long hours and many of these people do not earn much money. They work all day long and then serve parties at night and even have to get up, they are on call practically all of the time. It seems that it is only fair if we are interested in labor at all that we protect these people that are the most exploited and at least give them an opportunity to get out and enjoy God's air and sunshine because they usually get so little money that they ought to at least have time enough to do that.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment

AMENDMENT LAID ON THE TABLE

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this amendment be laid upon the table.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.
Whereupon, a division was called for, seventy-nine members having voted in the affirmative and twenty-six in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?
It was agreed to.

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 That section three of the said act as amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred nine) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 (a) [No] Except as hereinafter provided in this section no female shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any establishment for more than six days in any one week or more than [fifty-four] forty hours in any one week or more than [ten] eight hours in any one day Provided That during weeks in which a legal holiday occurs and is observed by an establishment any female may be employed by such an establishment during three days of such week for a longer period of time than is allowed by this act but no female shall be permitted to work more than two hours overtime during any one of such three days nor more than the maximum hours per week specified in this act

(b) Females employed in establishments other than industrial establishments and in employments other than those hereinafter specifically provided for shall not be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any such establishments for more than six days in any one week or more than forty-four hours in any one week or more than eight hours in any one day including any overtime as specified in sub-section (a) Provided That female telephone and telegraph operators over the age of eighteen years may be employed for a total of two hours overtime on any one day in emergency cases when necessary for the continuous operation of a telephone exchange or a telegraph office but no such operator shall be permitted to work for more than forty-four hours in any one week

The employment of such persons at any other time than as stated herein shall be deemed a violation of the provisions of this section unless it appears that such employment was to make up time lost in the same week in consequence of the alteration repairs or accidents to machinery or plant upon which she was employed and dependent for employment but no stopping of machinery for less than thirty consecutive minutes shall justify such overtime employment nor shall such overtime employment be legal unless a written report of the same is sent to the [Commissioner] Secretary of Labor and Industry but no female shall be permitted to work more than two hours overtime during any one day nor more than the maximum number of hours per week specified in this act [Provided That aforesaid restrictions as to hours shall not apply to females engaged in the canning of fruit and vegetable products And provided further That the one day of holiday in seven may be subdivided into two days of twelve hours each for women employes in hotels boarding-houses and in charitable educational and religious institutions at the discretion of the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry Provided That if it should be hereafter held by the courts of this Commonwealth that the power herein sought to be granted to the said board is for any reason invalid such holding shall not be taken in any case to affect or impair the remaining provisions of this section]

(c) Females employed in the canning of perishable fruits and vegetables may be permitted to work for not longer than ten hours in any one day including any overtime as specified in subsection (a) Provided That no female so employed may in any case be employed or permitted to work for more than forty hours in any one week or for more than six days in any one week

(d) No female shall be employed or permitted to work in domestic service more than fifty-four hours in any one week

[(b)] (e) Whenever any female shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with more than one establishment in any one week or in any one day the aggregate number of hours during which she shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with such [establishment] establishments shall not exceed the number of hours prescribed in this section for such females in any one week or any one day

(f) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the work of nurses in hospitals nor to the work of females over twenty-one years of age earning at least thirty-five dollars a week in any of the following occupations (1) bona fide executive position (2) learned professions or (3) court stenographers

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 2, page 4, line 16, by inserting after the word "persons" and before the word "at" the following: "and the working of such females whether for one or more employers"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the object of this bill is to divide employment so as to employ unemployed. The amendment has that object in view. The amendment provides for the abolition of what is as two-job employes. The bill itself provides that the male employes dare not work more than a certain number of hours, some forty hours, some forty-four, and so on. Nothing in the act prohibits one employe obtaining employment with one employer and working with that employer forty hours a week, and at the same time obtaining employment with another employer and working thirty or forty hours a week for the other employer, so that the bill asks for the shortening or lessening of the hours, and really makes it possible for the over energetic employe to hold two jobs. This amendment would prohibit the female from taking two jobs, and I ask this House to vote in favor of the amendment, and thereby increase the probability of employment for those out of employment.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment, as the gentleman has stated, is with regard to a girl having two jobs. This act calls for a penalty and penalizes the employer who would work a girl more than forty or forty-four hours a week. This amendment penalizes the employe, and for that reason I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on the amendment.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my friend has put his finger right on the point that the amendment seeks to rectify. The act puts penalties on the employer, but the act puts no penalties on the employe. I submit to you that it is just as bad for the employe to be a chisler as it is for the employer to be a chisler, and I submit to you that the employes should be willing so to divide their work so as to help the unemployed, and that the entire burden should not be on the employer. The employe ought to be willing to stop and let the other girl have a job.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, under the proposed amendment as offered by the gentleman, who and how are they are going to determine whether a girl has two jobs and is violating this law.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, my friend has asked me how a two-job girl can be discovered. The answer is the same. There is no doubt in my mind but that the employes of an establishment will soon inform on the employe who is working in two different places, and the chiseling employe would be discovered the same as the chiseling boss would be discovered.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, after the employes of an establishment discover that some girl is working some other place other than where the girls discover she is working, what provisions have you in this amendment to penalize such an employe?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I really think that the gentleman should clarify that question. It is a little confusing to me.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that this amendment is an obvious attempt to muddy the water. I ask the members of the House to vote it down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 2, page 6, line 8, by adding after the word "stenographers" the following: "secretaries"

Amend Section 2, page 6, Line 8, by adding after the word "stenographers" the following: "State employees"

Amend Section 2, page 6, Line 8, by adding after the word "stenographers" the following: "detectives"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the amendments that are now before you were discussed in conference this morning. I think the discussion established the fact that it is absolutely impossible to apply a forty hour rule or a forty-four hour rule even to our own stenographers in this House. They are working much longer than forty hours. The general thought is that you can not apply forty hours with state employes when there is a rush season, or if there are other occasions when employes must work more than forty hours.

Now the proposition as to the detectives, it is absolutely impossible to engage a female detective and send her out on a case and have her work forty hours on that case and then drop it. You might as well not employ a female detective in the first place. There are cases where it is necessary to employ a female detective and to restrict her to forty hours is to render her services useless. I say to you that the true intent and purpose of this bill is to regulate the employment of females in industrial establishments and the effort being made to pass it over to mercantile establishments and the professions makes it almost impossible of enforcement. I would ask the membres to vote in favor of this amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker ,for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers I want to inform him that I have an amendment that will take care of detectives, also one that will take care of state employes, but only during the time of the session.

Referring to the word "secretary," you will find that we have made provision in this act to take care of any executives receiving thirty-five dollars per week or more. The secretary can work for as low as five dollars per week and still she would be exempt under the amendments of Mr. Sowers. We have made all the provisions that are needed. We have had seven weeks to discuss this bill and I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on the amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amendment Section 2, page 6, Lines 5, and 6 by striking out the words: "earning at least thirty-five dollars a week."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment now before you strikes out the words "thirty-five dollars a week." For Philadelphia, thirty-five dollars a week is O. K., but for the balance of the country I doubt whether it is O. K. It provides for a sliding scale varying with the population for the cities. The scale runs as low as twenty-five dollars and sometimes runs higher than thirty-five dollars, I believe. Therefore, if the law would say thirty-five dollars, it would be almost impossible for an attorney practicing in the country to employ a secretary, because many of the attorneys, I am informed, that practice in the country do not make thirty-five dollars a week clear themselves, and there are plenty that don't make it in the cities also. I submit that it is a mistake to specify in this act the salary that a secretary should receive; that it is a mistake because wages vary in different parts of the state.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this amendment. As an attorney in another part of the state, I do not want the protection that the gentlemen from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, so kindly offers. I am very certain that attorneys can so arrange their work that they will not have to employ their secretaries, whom they pay less than thirty-five dollars a week, more hours than this bill already will permit. If we are going to pass a bill here which is to help shorten the hours of women, we do not want to put in so many exceptions so that it will not mean anything at all. These amendments have been carefully considered by your Committees on Labor and everybody interested has proposed amendments—they have all been carefully discussed. The bill has been before the House on several occasions. If you adopt this sort of amendment, you had better throw the bill in the waste basket now and not pretend to be passing a forty hour week for women, because it will not be that when you get through with it.

I ask you to vote against this amendment.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if this amendment goes through it will destroy the purpose of this bill entirely. Thirty-five dollars a week was granted at the public hearing, and that seemed to be the wish of all department heads and all industry throughout our state, so I ask the members to vote "no" on this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Will the House agree to the section?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 2, Page 6, Line 8, by inserting a subdivision namely: "(h) females may be employed or permitted to work in mercantile establishments during the two weeks prior to December 25th of each and every year not more than forty-eight hours in any one week."

Amend Section 2, Page 6, Line 8, by inserting a subsection namely: "(g) No female shall be employed or permitted to work in boarding houses, boarding schools, hotels, charitable, educational and religious institutions for more than fifty-four hours in any one week."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendments, which now have before you provide that during the peak season in mercantile establishments, namely, the two weeks before Christmas, female help may be employed forty-eight hours in any one week, that is, for the two weeks prior to Christmas.

The other amendment provides that female help may be employed in boarding houses, boarding schools, charitable and educational and religious institutions for fifty-four hours in any one week.

Now we have in the bill the provision that domestics may work fifty-four hours a week in the home. A boarding house is a home, a boarding school is a home, and if it is proper for domestics to work fifty-four hours a week in a home, it seems to me to be proper for domestics to work fifty-four hours a week in such boarding houses. It seems to me that we should not hinder the Christmas rush; we ought to encourage it. It is the time when the products of labor and of factories are sold and disposed of and to hinder the disposition of the products of labor at that time is to hinder industry, and I ask you to vote "aye" on the amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, has forgotten the main purpose of this bill. He should bear in mind that the purpose of it is to increase employment. Permitting these girls to work ten, twelve and fourteen hours in any peak week just means that other girls that are not working will have to stay at home. I believe that today throughout all parts of our state we have hundreds upon hundreds of girls who have been laid off and who would be glad to accept one or two hours of work at any time of the year, whether it be Christmas or any other time of the year. Maybe a few girls find it impossible to find work and they would be only too glad to get work. I ask the members to vote "no" on these amendments.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendments?
They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The Speaker. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 2, sub-section (b), page 4, line 9, by inserting the following: After the word "(a)" "Provided, however, that for a period not to exceed two weeks during the first six months of the calendar year and for a period not to exceed three weeks during the second six months of the calendar year such female employes may be permitted to work six hours per week more than their normal basic work week."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before explaining the purpose of these amendments, I wish to state that the sole reason that they are being presented now on second reading is due to the fact that there is a difference of opinion between the sponsor of the bill and myself as to the necessity for the amendments.

I might state that during the seven weeks that this bill has been before the House, either in committee or upon the floor the sponsor of the bill has cooperated in every way insofar as giving us an opportunity to express our demands is concerned. However, the difference of opinion is still there, and I feel that this amendment should be submitted to the House so that the members themselves may decide which opinion concerning this amendment is correct.

This merely applies to the peak period before Christmas and to the peak period so-called, inventory period, during the first six months of the calendar year. The amendment is not as drastic as the provision in the retail code applying to the same periods.

On page five of the retail code, section four, sub-section (d) provides for a peak period of not to exceed two weeks in the first six months of the calendar year and not to exceed three weeks in the last six months of the calendar year and it provides for an additional eight hours a week for each employe during those so-called peak periods.

I am not submitting this amendment for myself alone, because the distributive trades and the retail trades feel that they should have some protection during those periods. The retail trades, as you know, cover the retail stores, grocery stores, and the distributive trade include both the retail trade and the wholesale distributors. For that reason I urge the members to consider carefully the effect on the smaller towns and other sections of the state and the third class cities where you have the smaller stores and where the same possibility of extra help and of extra profits, can not be offered the same as they can in Philadelphia and the larger cities.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appreciate the sincerity of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mason, but we have no scarcity of female help, and at any time when the occasion might call for additional help, we have found it is quite easy to get it and for that reason I ask this House to vote "no" on this amendment.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call your attention to the fact that this bill has already been amended to permit forty-four hours per week throughout the year in mercantile establishments such as will be effected by the amendment. If this amendment is now going to be added to it, you will extend the hours of the workers in those establishments for those particular weeks for fifty hours a week, which is only four hours less time than the present law allows.

Down in Washington they are seriously considering a measure providing for thirty hours a week for men and women. Are we now going to vote for fifty hours a week for women?

I ask you to vote against these amendments?

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?
It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The Speaker. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2, sub-section (f), page 6, line 6, by striking out the words "thirty-five dollars a week" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"twenty-five dollars a week if engaged in employment in cities under 25,000 population, twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents a week is engaged in employment in cities of 25,000 to 100,000 population, thirty dollars a week if engaged in employment in cities of 100,000 to 500,000 population, and thirty-five dollars a week if engaged in employment in cities of over 500,000 population."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in presenting this amendment I followed exactly the retail code in reference to this type or work. Section four (c) covering the exact salary scale and the exact population scale that I have placed in this amendment. I feel that this amendment is fair for the small establishments in the smaller counties and cities of our State and that is the sole reason and the sole purpose of my presenting the graduated scale rather than the maximum scale used under the retail code as it now is in the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot see why any female should be paid differently for working in a small community and doing the same work as if she was working in a large city. She is still doing the same type of work and she should receive the same pay for her work. There is no reason for such an amendment, and I therefore ask the members to vote "no" on this amendment.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker in order to vote intelligently on these amendments, may I interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker in the mail that I have received I have had nothing but protests from the female people who work at peak hours. I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria just as a point of information, why it is their idea to change these from the code as it is now written. I believe they have considered the employment situation in the country.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker I will say that at a public hearing we discussed this problem with all the representatives throughout the state and it was their request that we make the exemptions on the thirty-five dollars a week, that that would meet with their approval and for that reason we inserted the thirty-five dollars per week.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker may I ask why that was not in the national code, because I believe labor is represented in these code meetings, is it not?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker I did not write the code, so I cannot answer that question.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 6, by adding after line 8, the following paragraph: "(g) Females employed in hotels and boarding houses may be permitted to work not more than six days in one week, nor more than fifty-four hours in one week, nor more than ten hours in any one day."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House the amendment just read was offered for the purpose of protecting a business not an industry, if you please, that is threatened by extinction if the act now laid before you is passed by this Assembly.

Many of the hotels and boarding houses throughout our State are small. I am speaking particularly of the average boarding house in that portion of the state whence I come. In that section we cater to small summer resorts interests, and if you please many of those places have as their guests only six or eight or ten people and it becomes a physical impossibility for them to hire more than one person in their hotel or boarding house. The character of the service that these individuals who are employed by them render is domestic in its nature alone. I call the attention of the members in this House to section two sub-paragraph (d) which provides that no female shall explain why he differentiates as between domestic service more than fifty-four hours in any one week, and I defy the sponsor of this bill to get up before this House and explain why he differentiates as between domestic service in the house and domestic service in the small hotel. I am saying to the members of this House that if you wish to pass laws, they must be sane, they must be sensible, they must be workable and they must be enforceable, and when we pass an amendment that is going to treat all domestic service alike, we fail to do that very thing, and what you will do is, you will drive out of existence the little fellow and you will make it possible for only the large hotels to exist. It is for that reason that I am asking the members of this House to vote for the amendment.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, during the past few years it has become quite the vogue for lawmakers to step in and regulate not because they like the job of regulating or imposing regulations, but simply because there arises the necessity for so doing. This necessity arises from the fact that some of you lawyers can't realize or can't hope to know anything about—and doctors and the rest of the professional men. It is a fact that we have had a shrinkage in employment due to the increased use of machinery, and to stop the increased use of machinery means to deaden our progress. Therefore, there is need for employment to stretch into the service fields, and it is an absolute falsehood to state that any service of this kind, which is rendering service to the traveling public, or rendering service to any sort of people will go out of business if any regulation is put on that particular service industry, such as small hotels. Service resorts only grow up in the communities where that service is demanded, and if any person believes that because one person shuts down a small hotel that there is not going to be another one, if the business so demands, then they are wrong. We have to regulate every one of the hotel service plants. There is no difference between a chambermaid in a small hotel and a chambermaid in a large hotel. There is just as great a percentage of unemployment in the small rural communities as there is in the larger communities. We sit up here and impose taxes to take care of unemployment. The best way to take care of unemployment is to find employment for it. The increased taxation on these small so-called hotels and tourists camps which we have got to impose either in this term or the next term to take care of the unemployment is going to be far greater than the increase they will have to spend in moneys for new help or added help.

I ask you to vote "no" on this amendment, because there is absolutely no need for a greater number of hours in the small hotel than there is in any other hotel. The time has come when we have got to face an issue of creating employment, and we are trying to do it with this bill, and if every man steps in and tries to take his own community out of the bill—we all represent different communities, we all have different problems—we might as well scrap the whole works.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose this amendment, also. This was a labor bill, but it certainly won't be if you put more amendments like this into it.

I am authorized to say that if you continue to amend it organized labor is going to oppose it; you can not pass a measure and then butcher it up the way you are doing this one and then go out before the public and say that you have just passed a labor bill.

If you are for the workers of Pennsylvania, if you really want to protect them, whether you be Republicans or Democrats, if you want to pass a bill that is going to help them do it and not one that has so many amendments to it that it does not mean anything at all.

I can only repeat what I have said that down at Washington the administration is seriously considering a thirty hour week for men and women, and here we are in Harrisburg with an administration which is supposed to be in sympathy with the one in Washington seriously considering an amendment to a women's labor bill that will extend the hours to fifty-four and beyond.

It has been well said, one of the purposes behind measures such as this is to increase employment. There is certainly plenty of unemployment throughout Pennsylvania today, and for any employer to come in here and say that he can't get the help is certainly contrary to the evidence that you can get from any employment agency, public or private, throughout the Commonwealth.

There is a difference between employment in hotels and in private homes but far as that is concerned I don't like to see it extended so much, even for domestic servants in private homes, but certainly we don't want to extend it to the hotels, the stores, and everything else all the way down the line, because if you do you might as well scrap the bill right now because it will not serve the purpose for which it was supposed to be introduced. Members of the House I ask you to vote "No" on these amendments; Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, might I state in reply to the remarks of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that had they confined this bill to what it was intended to apply to, and that was industry, and not to all the other various phases of our life, they would not have run into the opposition that they are now meeting, because in making it cover the entire scope of industry and business, they are endeavoring to legislate on a scale that is impossible, and, consequently, they are meeting the opposition that they now have.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, notwithstanding what the gentleman from Berks has said about labor's club I oppose this amendment. People work outside of factories. I have favored amendments to this bill which applied generally to industry, which affected the whole broad public, but I am opposed to amendments designed in favor of special interests, and God knows, Mr. Speaker, if there is any class of people in this world that needs protection, it is people that work in the hotels of this Commonwealth.

I hope that this amendment is defeated.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOOPES and Mrs. WILSON.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The Speaker. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments wer read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 2, page 5, line 19 by striking out at the end of the line after the word "work" the following: "[for more than forty hours in any one]"

Amend section 2, page 5, line 20 by striking out at the beginning at the line before the word "for" the words: "[week or]"

Amend section 2, page 5, line 20 by inserting at the end of the line after the word "week" the following: "or for more than forty hours in any one week and provided further that the maximum hours of work permitted in any one week between the fifteenth day of August and the fifteenth day of October may be extended by the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry upon application by the employer and upon the submission of proof of the existence of special conditions."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment that you have just heard applies only to the canners in this State.

After many conferences with the canners, we found out that the canners must have a greater extension than provided for by our act—44 hours. They may apply to the Department of Labor and Industry, the Industrial Board, and upon submission of proof in special cases only have an extension of time at their own discretion, or at the discretion of the Board, only in the period from August 15 to October 15. I feel that this amendment is very fair, and I ask the members of this House to support it.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I do not know how we could be more inconsistent. This amendment permits the canners from August 15 to October 15 to work all day and all night practically. I submit that if it is improper to work a few hours longer two weeks at Christmas time in department stores, it is just as highly improper to work all hours from August 15 to October 15 in any industry, and I ask the House to vote down the amendment.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I arise to oppose this amendment also. I understood there was some agreement on a canners' amendment which would have permitted an extension to 54 hours a week with the permission of the Industrial Board, but I have been informed definitely that there was no agreement to support an amendment which gives the Industrial Board authority to extend hours without limit, and that is what this proposed amendment does. I want to say that we are opposed to this amendment in this form. I ask the members of this House to vote against it.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I arise also to oppose the amendment and ask the members of the House to vote against the amendment. The very nature of the amendment concedes the fact that some regulation is necessary, and yet it also says that by the discretion of the Department of Labor and Industry or the Industrial Board, special concessions can be granted to certain canners. It don't use the word "certain," that word is understood. As has been stated, we all recognize the fact that the canning industry has an acute problem during these two months, and an amendment was provided by which they could receive the benefits of a 54 hour week during those two months. At a public hearing through their representatives, they stated that the crops were gathered in the early part of the week and rushed to them toward the latter part of the week, which caused the necessity of having at least two or three days in a week in which they had to work longer hours. Taking a 54 hour week and working an 8 hour day for three days would still allow them three days of 10 hours each, or four days of 8 hours.

They objected to the 10 hour limit on the day's work, and we removed that, but it seems that they insult the intelligence of the inventive genius of American minds by saying that anything that can be foreseen can't be forestalled. They admit that every year the same condition has arisen in the canning industry, and they also admit they have never done anything to cure it. They ask exemption for only the two months that they work, and you exempt them for the whole year, although they work just the two months.

I ask you to vote "no" because it is a special distinction, special class legislation for them alone.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I had nothing to do with the preparation of this amendment. However, there was an understanding between the members who represent the districts where the canning industry thrive and the committee that there would be offered an amendment that would be satisfactory. I did not know what that amendment was going to be until we met here at four o'clock.

About a week ago, I had an amendment prepared that did call for fifty-four hours. It does not make much difference to us whether it is this amendment or the fifty-four hours, but I do want to emphasize the fact again of what we tried to put across about three weeks ago when this matter was referred back to committee, and that is, if we are going to eliminate this amendment and all other amendments pertaining to this particular field, we are going to say that the canning industry must work under a forty hour week as far as women labor is concerned. I want to read to you an article, it is not my article but an article sent out by the Department of Agriculture of our own state and published in one of our newspaper in York county under date of March 26. It states "Value of Canned Foods $25.000.000" That is the head line "Recent estimates place this amount as annual value of Pennsylvania products. High quality foods."

"Harrisburg, March 26.—The importance of commercial canning as an outlet for Pennsylvania cash crops is emphasized in a report of the bureau of markets, state Department of Agriculture."

"Recent estimates place the annual value of Pennsylvania canned foods at approximately $25,000,000, a large proportion of which is returned to local farmers soon after the raw stock is delivered to the canneries."

"Only three states outrank this Commonwealth in the value of canned foods produced. They are California, New York and New Jersey. The Commonwealth also has an enviable reputation for the production of high quality canned foods, due to emphasis on the quality of the raw stock going into the cans."

The article goes on to say, relating further to this marvelous business that has grown up in the state of Pennsylvania and it has been returning, if you please, $25,000,000 to business and the farmers of Pennsylvania.

You will also note in that article, which was turned out by our own Department of Agriculture in Harrisburg, that our competitors in this field are in the states of New York and New Jersey. They are our neighbors, the one on the north, the other on the east. They are today working under a condition similar to the conditions which we ask from the members of this House. If we are going to penalize our canners in Pennsylvania by placing them on a forty-hour basis we might as well fold up our canneries. I am speaking of the smaller canneries, not necessarily of the large canneries in Pennsylvania. We spoke of the large canneries the other day, but there is only one large cannery in Pennsylvania. The rest are small ones. Your very large cannery is just across the river in the state of New Jersey. If we are going to take away the privilege that we offered to this new industry in the state of Pennsylvania and penalize them in favor of our neighboring canneries of New York and New Jersey, we are going to injure our state to the extent of probably, I would say, one-fourth of that cash crop.

I explained three weeks ago that it was the tomato season that is most important and that some provision should be made for that particular season. I might remind you also that among the canning crops which are listed in Pennsylvania, the tomato crop is the big crop. True enough the other crops are also included, but tomato growing is the big problem of our farmers and produces the biggest income.

I want to beg of you members of the House that you save the farmers of this state of Pennsylvania from the destruction that is bound to follow in this particular market if we are going to limit them to forty hours for female labor.

I could go on and repeat what I said on the previous occasion, but I am sure that our members are all sufficiently clear at this time, and that you will remember the arguments that were put up at that time.

I am particularly interested in whether we are going to save the canners as such, but I am vitally interested in that we shall take care of the farmers in York County and neighboring counties in southeastern Pennsylvania that are reaping this benefit of twenty-five million dollars a year.

I repeat that I had nothing to do with the writing of that amendment, but I did have an understanding with the Committee that we would have an amendment that would be satisfactory to us.

I urge you to support this amendment.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentle from Cambria, Mr. Haluska.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, under the provisions of this amendment an emergency must exist; is that correct?

Mr. HALUSKA. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, must this emergency be anticipated, or must it exist?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, it must be a special condition.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, in other words, then the canners cannot anticipate how much crops they are going to get from the farmers?

Mr. HALUSKA. I should say not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. The condition must actually exist, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HALUSKA. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot see where it is going to help the canners.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, notwithstanding the eloquence of my friend to the right, the issue here is not ripe tomatoes, and the issue here is not the quality of Pennsylvania fruit. The issue here is whether or not this House desires to place itself on record in favor of unlimited working hours for working women subject to the discretion of an appointive Board.

I want to point out another peculiar fact in connection with this whole controversy: that the canners came in here asking for 12 hours or 14 hours, and they are defeated on that, and they came before the House not for 12 hours or 14 hours, but unlimted hours. This is a vicious situation.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sorry that on this particular issue I must differ with my good friend, the gentleman from Cambria. This is an economic issue, and it is necessarily an economic issue, unless some provision is made that will protect the farmers, it is going to be a mighty vital issue, I would say to the tune of one-fourth of the total income which might run between five and seven million dollars.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call the attention of the members of the House that those who are interested in this bill were willing to agree to an amendment for the canners. We put in one. We were willing to go even further, but they insisted upon an unrestricted limit, and to that we certainly cannot agree, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I only want to say a few words in reply: Let the canners, like the others, part with some of their money, and hire more help.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOOPES and Mrs. WILSON and were as follows:

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday at nine o'clock P. M.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, there is important business—

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Berks that the motion is not debatable. The question is on the motion.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, noting the consternation that has been caused in the ranks of the Democrats I want to withdraw my motion, and I want to say that I merely made it because we would like to get the seven thirty-six train.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia that the Chair has done everything in his power to try and speed up action, but the Chair can not cut dov n the debate if the members insist on it.

The gentleman from Philadelphia withdraws his motion to adjourn.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 2, page 6, line 7 by inserting after the word "fide" and before the word "executive" the words: "secretarial or"

Amend section 2, page 6, line 8, by striking out after the syllable "fessions" and before "(3)" the word: "[or]"

Amend section 2, page 6, line 8 by inserting at the end of the line after the word "stenographers" the following: "(4) State employes during legislative sessions or (5) detectives."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have no desire to keep this House here any longer than is necessary and I would like to go home right away, but I can't permit the pressure of time to permit an amendment like this to go by without opposition.

It is proposed that we pass a law regulating the hours of women in industry and other establishments but that we shall except legislative employes during sessions of the legislature. In other words, they want to restrict everybody else and save ourselves. If there is anything decent or human about an amendment such as that, it would seem to me that the members of the House would refuse to vote for it without anybody saying anything about it, but I was afraid that they might go along in their anxiety to get home.

Just please realize that this amendment as it is worded in effect means that we tell everybody else in Pennsylvania that they shall protect the dear women but we shall exploit them for whatever hours it suits our convenience to make them work. I can not imagine anything any more ridiculous or more disgraceful and I ask you vote "no" on these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The Speaker. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 2, page 5, by inserting between lines 20 and 21 the following new lettered paragraph: "(c) Females employed in boarding houses educational, charitable, and religious institutions and hotels shall not be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with such establishments for more than six days in any one week or more than forty-eight hours in any one week or more than nine hours in any one day including any overtime as specified in subsection (a)."

Amend secion 2, page 5, line 21 by striking out before the word "No" the following: "(d)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(e)"

Amend section 2, page 5, line 24 by striking out before the word "Whenever" the following: "(e)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following "(f)"

Amend section 2, page 6, line 3 by striking out before the word "The" the following: "(f)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following "(g)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there have been various offers in this session of amendments simllar to the one I have offered here.

In most of the rural sections we have what is known as the one-shift hotel. Many of them are small hotels. Practically all of them are one-shift hotels. Some of them are boarding houses and summer resorts.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentlemen from Berks will state his point of order.

Mr. HOOPES.A Mr. Speaker, we have already defeated an amendment which included the same information as is included in this amendment and I suggest that these amendments here are out of order, and I ask the Chair to rule.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the hours are different in this amendment from what they were in other amendments.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, in the rural communities these small hotels, small boarding houses, we have people, our best citizens, who must continue to operate in that business and I dare say that under this present bill it will not permit them to do so.

I have contracted quite a number of people in my territory and they are all agreeable that a 48 hour schedule, such as I have included in this amendment, is entirely satisfactory. That is the way they are operating under the Code.

At the present time I can point out hotels, small ones in my territory, who are paying their employes for 48 hours, and yet they are running for only 40 hours during the dull season.

In the matter of the institutions, I ask all of you what our state institutions are going to do in connection with this bill as it now stands. We have been asked to economize. We have had tax measures for providing relief defeated then if we are going to burden our own state departments and similar institutions, such as the beneficent and charitable institutions, we are going to place them in a position where I think they will be unable to stand it.

In connection with my amendment, I compared it with domestic help, and I have as yet had nobody tell me the difference between domestic help in a home and domestic help in a small hotel. I am sure that the average home, which can afford domestic help, can better afford to pay for additional domestic help than the average small hotel and boarding house owner.

I ask you, therefore, to vote "aye" on this amendment.

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The third section was read as follows:

Section 3 That section six of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 Not less than [forty-five] thirty minutes shall be allowed to every female employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any establishment for the mid day meal which period shall not be considered a part of the hours of labor [Provided That whenever any female shall be employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any establishment for less than eight hours in any one day the time allowed for the mid-day meal may be reduced to not less than thirty minutes]

Employees shall not be required to remain in the [work-rooms] workrooms during the time allowed for meals

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 3, sub-section (f), page 6, line 4, by striking out, after the word "nurses" and before the word "nor," the words "in hospitals."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to,

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The fourth section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 4 That section seven of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 7 No female shall be employed or permitted to work more than [six] five hours continuously in or connection with any establishment without an interval of at least [forty-five] thirty minutes and no period of less than [forty-five] thirty minutes shall be deemed to interrupt a continuous period of work Provided That whenever any female shall be regularly employed or permitted to work in or in connection with any establishment on a shift of not more than six hours in any one day the interval between work periods may be reduced to not less than fifteen minutes

Employees shall not be required to remain in the workrooms during the rest periods required by this section

The fifth section was read as follows:

Section 5 That section seventeen of the said act as amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws six hundred seventeen) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 17 All prosecutions for violations of this act shall be instituted by the Department of Labor and Industry before a magistrate alderman or justice of the peace [who shall issue a summons commanding the person charged with a violation of the act to appear within not less than five nor more than eight days] and shall be in the form of summary proceedings Upon conviction after hearing the penalties provided in this act shall be imposed and shall be final unless an appeal be taken to the court of proper jurisdiction within twenty days after the imposition of the penalties aforesaid in the manner already provided by law in appeals from penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 5, Page 7, Line 19 by inserting after the word "instituted" and before the word "by" the following: "Not later than three months after the commission of the offense."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the object of the amendment is that if any individual is to be prosecuted under the act the suit must be brought in three months. And now, why should that be done? If an employer and an employe agree to chisel and violate this act, and if a suit is to be brought it should be brought in three months so that the employe can not keep on blackmailing the employer. The law now is two years.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can not see the thought of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers. He speaks of chiselers. The present act says two years. Under this chiseling amendment here it says three months to give the employer a chance to get out of this and bribe his workman and thereby being exempt from any penalties whatever. I can not see the purpose at all in this amendment and I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on the amendment.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this act is to protect the women and to make it a misdemeanor to violate the law. All other criminal acts, with very few exceptions, provide a statute of limitations of two years. There can be no point in making it three months and thus allowing a lot of criminals to escape.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 5, page 7, line 26, by inserting after the word "appeal" and before the word "be" the following: "without an allocatur being required."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of information.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, in order that several of the members who desire to stay until the proceedings are completed may be informed, is the Chair able to inform us about how long we are going to be here?

The SPEAKER. This is the last amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill amends the existing law by striking out the beginning of a proceeding by a written summons before a magistrate or a justice of the peace, and substitutes in its place a remedy by warrant. That means that the offender would be arrested on a warrant, taken before a magistrate and there fined. The arrest might happen and the imposition of the sentence be made in less than one hour, so necessarily there should be an appeal, and the defendant ought not to be required to lay in jail until his appeal, if he wants to take one, is perfected. The words that are sought to be inserted in the act mean this, that instead of the lawyer hunting for the Judge, and the defendant languishing in jail while he hunted for him for permission to appeal, the lawyer can take the appeal and file it with a clerk, and then under the ordinary normal proceedings enter bail.

This amendment was submitted to the sponsor of the bill and the Attorney General, and I believe the amendment was agreed to, and I think the gentleman from Cambria will so state.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose this amendment also. This morning we passed a bill making it a summary conviction to violate the act regulating pharmacists. If it is all right to take a pharmacist to jail, it is all right to take an employer to jail. We have plenty of statutes on the books today whereby people may be subjected to summary proceedings. If the proceedings are unjust, he has a right to petition the court and get an allocater, and have the appeal allowed. Why should we make any difference between the employer who violates the law and anybody else who violates the law.

I ask you to vote against this amendment also.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

The sixth section and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024), entitled, "An act to protect the public health and welfare, by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments, with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment; by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work; by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others; by prescribing penalties for violations thereof; by defining the procedure in prosecutions; and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof;" as amended, by excepting from the provisions of the act certain occupations and professions and further regulating the hours of labor.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. WEISS asked an dobtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 871, Printer's No. 305, on page 16, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. WEISS.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 871, entitled:

An Act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county city of the second class borough township school and poor purposes in counties of the second class and abolishing the existing board for the assessment and revision of taxes and the department of assessors in cities of the second class in such counties.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page2, line 3, by striking out at the beginning of the line the word: "[and]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "four of whom shall and must be residents of the city of Pittsburgh for a period of five years; the remaining members of said board shall and must be residents of the county of Allegheny, exclusive of said city, for a similar period; and said county commissioners shall designate one of such members as chairman. All the members."

Amend section 1, page 2, line 7, by inserting after the word "thereof" and before the word "Each" the following: "The chairman of the board shall receive a salary of six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars per annum."

Amend section 1, page 2, line 8, by striking out before the word "payable" the words: "[which shall be fixed by the salary board]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars per annum. All such salaries shall be."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

SENATE

MONDAY, April 1, 1935.

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore, John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, as we begin a new week and a new month of legislative activity, grant unto us a realization of Thy watchfulness. Not only dost Thou watch over us to help and defend, Thou dost also watch us in all our words and actions. When we speak and act in accordance with Thy will and Thy law, Thou dost approve. When we are led by motives alien to Thy plans and purposes, Thou dost condemn.

Give us quickened ears to hear Thy voice, ready hands to do Thy service, and swift feet to go upon errands at Thy command.

In every contingency strengthen us that we may so acquit ourselves as to have clear consciousness at the close of the day.

We thus pray in behalf of this Senate and all who are gathered in this place for Thy name's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 56

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 56, entitled:

An Act to amend clause (d) of section ten of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1216), entitled "An act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen; and providing for the licensing, regulation, and supervision of residents and non-resident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business," as amended by defining the powers of the courts on appeals from the Department of Public Instruction.

with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 242

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 242, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four and fifteen of the act aproved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, (P. L. 208), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons and drugs, and providing penalties for the violation thereof; defining the words 'drug' and 'poison'; and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law, and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law; and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality, strength, and purity," as amended; changing the qualifications of applications for examination and registration, and changing violations of the act from misdemeanors to summary proceedings.

with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

SENATE BILL NO. 108 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 108 entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph six of section thirteen of article nineteen of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth," making provision for the reinstatement of certain policemen and firemen and restricting the powers of the civil service commission.

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments by the House of Represenatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows: Section 1, Page 2, line 25, by adding after the word "vacancies" the following: and further provided that any policeman or fireman who has been separated from the service without fault or delinquency on his part is hereby reinstated upon the civil service eligible list for policemen or firemen without any further examination whether physical or otherwise and further provided however that any policeman or fireman reinstated in accordance with the provisions of this act shall not be entitled to any pay or compensation for the period during which he was separated from the said service and not actively engaged in the performance of the duties of a policeman or a fireman.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore, John G. Homsher) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 1006 entitled:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Treasury Department for the refunding of moneys escheated to the Commonwealth.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore John G. Homsher) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. WOODWARD read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 751, entitled:

An Act creating County Assistance Boards for the administration of unemployment relief and old age assistance, and abolishing existing agencies created for the administration of unemployment relief and boards of trustees of the Old Age Assistance Fund; conferring powers and imposing duties upon such county assistance boards, the Governor, courts, county treasurers and the Auditor General; imposing on counties the costs of administration incurred by such boards; providing penalties; and repealing inconsistent acts.

Which was committed to the Committee on County Government.

Mr. LAW read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 752, entitled:

An Act requiring applicants for relief to sign a bond, conditioned on the truthfulness of his statements, and the lack of fraud or misrepresentation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. RUPP read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 753, entitled:

An Act to establish as a State Highway a certain section of public road in the County of Lehigh, and providing for its construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO FURNISHING FILING CABINETS

Mr. LAW offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, April 1, 1935.

Resolved, That the Department of Property and Supplies be requested to furnish, if available, sufficient filing cabinets in some Senate committee room for the use of Senators in filing correspondence.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Property and Supplies by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING INFORMATION FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT OF STATE POLICE

Mr LAW offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, April 1, 1935.

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Police be directed to transmit to the Senate as early as possible, such detailed information as may be in his possession or that he may be able to collect, showing the number of men who would be put out of employment if the General Assembly should by law prohibit the payment of compensation to deputy sheriffs by persons and private corporations, and the number of additional men which should, under such circumstances, be added to the State Police Force.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Police by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection. The resolution will be referred to the Committee on State Government.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in this morning's paper I read the speech delivered by His Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania, and I want to call particular attention to this portion of the speech, which was laid on the desk of each Senator tonight—in speaking of his tax program the Governor said: "Confronted with the necessity of raising $203,000,000, this Administration was moved by but one single thought in submitting this 22-point program.

"That thought was that there must be an equalization of the tax burden—that the taxes must be levied upon the basis of ability to pay and that no tax should be levied which would place an unfair weight upon already overburdened taxpayers, and upon the poor."

"I want to call your attention particularly to three taxes which are a levy on semi-luxuries—those on amusements, tobacco and gasoline. I suggested them reluctantly because they are a form of sales tax, which I oppose, but they were necessary because they would provide money immediately. Most of our taxes bring in revenue only at the end of the year; these were to meet our immediate and urgent need for cash."

"There was highly organized propaganda against these taxes, inspired by the special interests affected. Yet, strangely enough, the same interests which opposed these special taxes are advocating a general sales tax. Consequently, I am forced to believe that their opposition was merely a smoke screen, and that their real object is to wreck the entire program, without regard for the needs of Pennsylvania's citizens. Since the most important effect of destroying the program would be to save the $35,000,000 worth of exemptions manufacturing companies enjoy, and to preserve the virtual tax immunity of utilities, I am forced to conclude that the protesting interests are not coming into court with clean hands."

Now, Mr. President, I voted against the imposition of a gasoline tax. I did it, first, because I believe that I am here in a representative capacity, that my opinions have nothing to do with the subject and that when the people whom I represent speak it is my duty to take orders from them, as they indicate; and, separating those protests from the inspired protests, I came to the conclusion that I had sufficient evidence to sustain me in the action I took as representing the community I do represent. On behalf of those citizens I voted against that tax.

Now, I should like to say, though, that even if it were not so, the second reason I voted against the tax is because I believed that it was that which the Governor said he did not want to do, namely, it was imposing additional burden upon people who were already overburdened.

Now, I hold no brief for utility corporations, I do not represent any of them; but I am a citizen representing all people and all industries, and when the Governor says that this $35,000,000 worth of exemptions of manufacturing companies represents that much loss to the communities I should like to call the attention of the Senate to this fact: last week I read the tax report and the financial statement of one of the largest corporations in Pennsylvania, and it might interest the members of this Senate to know that that company had an income last year of $60,000,000, that there was earned, out of that income, $8,000,000, that the company paid out of that $8,000,000, to the Government of the United States, $1,400,000, that it paid to the State of Pennsylvania close to $1,500,000—a total of $2,900,000 which under existing laws that company paid to the two governing bodies; and anyone who says that the utilities enjoy virtual tax immunity, in the face of those facts, I am afraid is not familiar with the real situation.

As a matter of fact, that company has $110,000,000 of common stock, and $20,000,000 of preferred stock, and in order to pay a 6% dividend to those stockholders it was obliged to dip into its surplus to the extent of $1,700,000.

Now, the effect on that company of the new taxes as suggested by His Excellency, the Governor, would be to impose an additional $1,500,000 tax on that company, first, by increasing the eight mills tax on its gross receipts to 2%, which would impose an aggregate tax of $1,200,000 instead of, as it is now, $480,000; and because, second, that company would have to pay a 6% tax on its profits, which would amount to an additional $480,000. And there is a third additional burden—the proposed increase in the personal property tax, by the State, from four mills to six mills. All of these increases, under the Governor's program, would run it up to $1,500,000. So, this company, which pays to the State of Pennsylvania today a tax on its capital stock, a tax on its gross receipts and a tax on its bonded indebtedness, is certainly not "virtually exempt."

And there has been something said about the fact that these corporations do not pay a real estate tax. Well, there is a mistake to this extent, in that statement: these companies do pay a real estate tax on property not actually used. This very company of which I spoke before paid the city of Philadelphia a tax of $100,000 on property not actually used in the performance of its public service. The reason these companies are entitled to that particular exemption spoken of is on the theory that whereas the ordinary corporations in Philadelphia may absorb their real estate tax by charging what they please for their product, and can add the item of tax on there, the utilities are controlled by the Public Service Commission, and cannot, therefore, add that tax to the cost of their product. In addition to that, the State of Pennsylvania created these privileges which exempt the utilities from paying taxes to the cities on real estate; the cities had nothing to do with it. But I think I have shown enough to prove that the statement that these utilities are "virtually tax exempt" is not entirely correct.

Now, under that view of the situation it seems to me I was fully justified in not going along with any program which would increase the burden of corporations now paying a 33 1-3% tax by increasing its tax to 55%, because it seemed to me logical to argue that there would be no desire, no incentive to invest capital in an organization which would not be able to pay even 3% to stockholders—and take the risk of loss, when they could invest in government bonds and have no risk as far as the investment is concerned. That kind of program would serve only to defeat the very object we are trying to accomplish, namely, to decrease unemployment, because taking capital away from industry would certainly increase unemployment.

Now, I felt, when I cast my vote as I did, that I was doing what I thought was proper. I also felt that I was entitled to give my views on the subject as to how to correct this condition. I may be entirely wrong; I do not claim to have all the wisdom, either in the Senate or elsewhere; but I submit that I feel it my duty to suggest this program with several options, which suggestion I make purely as my own, with no political suggestions from anyone and with no responsibility except my own.

If you look at the Governor's program you will find included in the $203,000,000 fund, that it is intended to be raised, there is an item of $49,800,000 deficit said to be carried from the last administration. In that there is $13,843,000 which was borrowed from the Special Fund. There is also an item of $15,000,000 which it is stated will be necessary to carry on relief over March, April and May. March is past, and the Federal Government has, fortunately, taken care of the March term. That means that there certainly can be taken out of the program $5,000,000. That also means that since we are told the State of Pennsylvania is the creditor in the amount of $13,843,000 borrowed from the Special Fund, and that as to that amount of $13,843,000 the State of Pennsylvania is also the debtor, I think that in all good conscience we can ask the State of Pennsylvania for an extension on the payment of that $13,843,000 until some future date, when we are in a better financial situation. In addition to which, if the program of the Governor is reduced to one or two taxes, the necessity of spending $1,750,000 for the collection of those taxes will disappear. That means that with those reductions the program is reduced to the sum, necessary for one year, of $81,810,000.

Now, I suggest that inasmuch as all of these taxes are mere guesses or estimates, and no one knows just what they may produce, instead of postponing, and tying ourselves up with a two-year program, we should limit ourselves at present to a one-year program; and I say that because I feel, and I hope, that the Committee on Constitutional Changes will produce a bill which will enable the State to borrow money. I think we may just as well admit that with regard to the situation on relief, which concerns us so seriously, no one knows how long this condition is going to last, and under those circumstances we ought to be prepared for any emergency; and I think there ought to be borrowing allowed under the new Constitution. I do, however, feel that there ought to be no borrowing permitted without the consent of the public. The people should say whether the borrowing should be permitted. And no loan should be proposed unless there is set up a tax program to pay the debt and interest in accordance with the terms of the bond. And with that kind of a basis our necessity to tax may be reduced to a minimum, if we spread it over a period of time; and so I suggest the one-year program, and in order to raise this $81,807,000 I propose to adopt four of the Governor's tax propositions, the first of which is, to extend the capital stock tax under the present law to both domestic and foreign manufacturing corporations, which, according to the Governor's estimate would produce $16,150,000. Then increase the taxes paid by foreign corporations, to equalize them with taxes paid by domestic corporations, which will produce $15,000,000. Next, reduce the time limit for escheated, or payment of unclaimed deposits to the State by Banking or Savings Institutions, which will produce $1,375,000. Then the imposition of a tax on chain stores (including chain theatres), with the rate increasing according to the number of stores or theatres in the State, which would produce $4,000,0000. These would aggregate a total of $82,025,000.

I suggest the transfer from the Motor Fund to the General Fund, as it is collected, of $59,000,000. The Motor Fund will be in funds by December, when it collects most of the whole year's registration fees, and therefore will be in a position to pay $59,000,000 by that time. That makes a total of $82,025,000.

I want to say further that some two weeks ago I made an investigation, and had a conference with the Highway Department on the question of motor funds; and there is this thing certain—that, allowing them every penny that they say they need for the maintenance of roads, which requires, according to their figures—which I have accepted for the time being—$61,000,000, there still remains $59,000,000 unquestionably, which can be used by postponing our new construction program for a further period. That is the first suggestion I desire to make.

I also desire to make a second suggestion: To impose in place of the former taxes a sales tax at the rate of 2%; to model it on the Ohio plan, including liquid fuels but exempting articles costing 10c or less, and exempting bread, milk and food not consumed on the premises. This should yield, based on information we have, at least $45,000,000. And I want to say that after communicating with the State of Ohio I learned that they were receiving $900,000 per month by means of their 3c tax. That means $3,600,000 a month or $42,000,000 a year; and those figures certainly cannot be as large as they would be in Pennsylvania; for one thing, the figures were not taken during the busy time of their year.

Now, these taxes will answer the Governor's question, at least as to the sales tax bill, in that on a stamp tax basis the stamps are sold in advance and the money will come in quickly. Now, the tax, I say, on the second plan, should produce $45,000,000. It may produce more. Also I suggest that added to that there shall be transferred from the Motor Fund a sum not to exceed $40,000,000, and the two of them together will amount to $85,000,000.

I also accept the Governor's suggestion that there shall be a graded income tax. This State income tax would be for the sole purpose of relieving real estate from its present enormous tax burden, and it would be graduated not above 6%, and would yield $15,000,000.

When any plan is not feasible, or develops to be not feasible, I fall back on my third plan, which is to impose a sales tax at 3%, modeled on the Ohio plan, including liquid fuels and exempting articles costing 10c or less, as well as bread, milk and food not consumed on the premises. This, based on information, should yield at least $145,000,000. Then, as the second part of that plan, transfer from the Motor Fund to the General Fund, as it is collected, and as needed, not in excess of $40,000,000. Those two together would yield $185,000,000. And at the same time, for the relief of real estate, impose a graduated income tax, graduated not above 6%, for two years, which would produce $30,000,000.

I suggest these three programs, I say, because I feel I have no right personally to tear down the basic principle of the program suggested by the Governor without making a suggestion in its place; and, I say, the method of taxation I propose will adequately take care of the necessities of our situation. I personally do not favor corporations being exempted where there is no new tax imposed. None of these manufacturing corporations on which the tax would be placed under the first plan are being taxed now through the five mill tax. None of the foreign corporations are paying the domestic tax at the present time. And, leaving out the propaganda inspired by the chain stores, there is no real objection, or reason why such a tax could not be imposed on the chain stores, because in my opinion the $250 per year amounts to only 60c a day and if capitalized on every store would have no effect on employment or on the cost of food, as has been contended in letters I have received.

I say in conclusion that I suggest this plan as my own, without any political affiliations and without discussion with any one. Personally, politically, my opinion is that this Republican organization would have been a great deal better off if they had accepted the Governor's plan and passed it. The responsibility for its failure would have been his, because he suggested it; and certainly, if it succeeded the credit would have been theirs, because it could not have been passed without them.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARON offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 1, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, April 8th, at nine o'clock; and that when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, April 8th, at nine o'clock.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 141, as follows:

An Act authorizing the abatement of certain tax penalties and interest on county city (except city of the first class) borough town township school district (except school district of the first class) and poor district taxes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all penalties and interest imposed on delinquent county city (except city of the first class) borough town township school district (except school district of the first class) and poor district taxes for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and all previous years assessed against any real estate shall be abated by the authority levying the tax if said delinquent taxes are paid as hereinafter provided and if the taxes due on such real estate for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five are paid at the time prescribed by law for the payment of taxes

In order to receive the benefits of this act twenty per centum of the delinquent taxes due for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and for all previous years shall be paid on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five twenty per centum on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six twenty per centum on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven twenty per centum on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight and the final twenty per centum on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine

If any taxpayer availing himself of the provisions of this act shall fail to pay any instalment of taxes as hereinbefore provided for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and all previous years as hereinbefore provided then the penalties and interest due on such unpaid installment or installments shall not be abated

Any taxpayer may anticipate the payment of such delinquent taxes for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and previous years and receive the benefit of this act

This act shall be construed to apply to all taxes whether or not liens for such taxes have been returned for non payment or have been filed in the office of the prothonotary of the county or proceedings for the collection of such taxes have been instituted in any court in said county

The benefits of this act shall extend to and accrue to any grantee transferee mortgagee or other party in interest in the real estate against which the above mentioned taxes have been assessed and levied

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, at the request of the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Howell, I ask that Senate Bill No. 31, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section six as amended and section eight of the act approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 719), entitled "An act regulating certain political parties; providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to national party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation," prohibiting candidates for certain offices from being candidates for more than one party nomination, and requiring candidates' affidavits from candidates for additional offices go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 329, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the maintenance of the Falk Clinic of the University of Pittsburgh, including instruction of the students in the School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh in the departments of the Falk Clinic not included in the instruction given in hospitals.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 532 on third reading, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend the act approved the twenty-third day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven (Pamphlet Laws thirty-four) entitled "An act making the verdict of a jury in the several courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth a lien in certain cases" extending said act to all courts of record.

be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for further amendment.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill was discussed last week and I think the purposes of the bill were thoroughly explained. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, seems to think that it is going to effect his county seriously. I do not think so. I think it ought to be passed for there is no reason for recommitting the bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, nineteen Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty-six in the negative.

Whereupon, the question was decided in the negative.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 352, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Court hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill 379, entitled:

An Act providing for the purchase and distribution of milk to undernourished and needy children in the public schools imposing duties on boards of school directors teachers principals medical inspectors and the Department of Welfare and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 3, Section 5, line 19, by striking out before the word "Section" the ["; also line 28, by striking out after the word "law" the "]"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in offering these amendments I desire to state that I have been informed that the bill in its present form eliminates the appropriation and it is of no effect. I, therefore, amend to cover the removal of the brackets so that that appropriation is restored in the bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, how much is it?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, one million five hundred thousand.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS RECOMMITTED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 402 (House Bill No. 441), on third reading entitled:

An Act to amend sections one two three four and five of the act approved the second day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 6) entitled "An act to enable persons associations partnerships and corporations engaged in farming and raising breeding fattening and marketing livestock to borrow money and secure the repayment thereof by the execution and recordation of chattel mortgages on livestock farm machinery farm equipment and crops and designating the operation and effect of the lien of such mortgages" extending the provisions of said act generally to persons associations partnerships and corporations providing for bonds with confessions of judgments changing fees and agencies from whom borrowings may be made regulating the assignment and release of such mortgages and generally revising and supplementing the provisions thereof be recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture for further consideration.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 403 (House Bill No. 442), on third reading entitled:

An Act to permit certain cooperative associations to give chattel mortgages on rotating stocks of goods or inventories to secure loans from banks for cooperatives organized under the Farm Credit Act of 1933 or from Federal Intermediate credit banks organized under the Agricultural Credits Act of 1923

be recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture for further consideration.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 418 (House Bill No. 51), entitled:

An Act to amend section eight of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1379) entitled "An act creating in counties of the third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners providing for their salaries payable by the county abolishing existing boards defining the powers and duties of such boards regulating the assessment of persons property and occupations for county borough town township school and poor purposes authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors a solicitor engineers and clerks providing for their comward borough and township assessors so far as the making of assessments and valuation for taxation is concerned and pensation payable by such counties abolishing the office of providing for the acceptance of this act by cities" by so changing the provisions of the act that individual written or printed notice of assessed valuation for triennial years shall be given to property owners alone.

NAYS—1

Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information before we enter on the reading of Bills on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette. Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of information.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, on Tuesday afternoon of last week, the Committee on Judiciary Special reported out Senate Bill No. 219 (House Bill No. 311), and on page No. 1481 of the Journal, a motion was made that all bills reported from committees be read the first time. The motion was agreed to. In looking over tonight's calendar on Bills on Second Reading, I do not find Senate Bill No. 219, and I wish to be informed as to its whereabouts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary Special supply the information?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, may I ask the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, what bill he refers to?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I refer to the Train Limit Bill.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, as to that particular bill, I can readily explain to the Senator that this bill along with the Full Crew Bill, in the Judiciary Special Committee, both bills were indefinitely postponed by a majority vote of the committee. There was a bill brought out on the second reading calendar, House Bill No. 132, Senate Bill No. 693 (Printer's No. 245), the last bill on the second reading calendar, which was passed. A motion was made to send it out to the floor as committed, and I, as Chairman, inadvertently gave to Senator Clark the wrong bill. The error was detected at the desk, immediately brought to my attention, and I immediately passed to Senator Clark the bill that was ordered by the Judiciary Special Committee to be reported out as committed. Both the Full Crew Bill and the Train Limit Bill were indefinitely postponed by a majority vote of the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President. I wish to interrogate the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, be interrogated?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, was the bill reported to this Senate?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, no, the bill could not have been reported to the Senate. The bill erroneously was given by me to Senator Clark to report, and it was detected at the desk that this bill was erroneously reported to the Senate. It could not have been reported legally, because the bill was indefinitely postponed by a majority vote of the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, my question is whether Senator Clark reported the bill on the floor of the Senate and sent the bill to the Clerk after being reported?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I would say no, he could not have reported the bill—he may have gone through the maneuvers, but he cannot legally report a bill which is indefinitely postponed in the committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, there seems to be an evasion to the answer to my question. Now, as I understand it, when bills are reported by committees, they are reported by a member of the committee reporting, and the bill is then handed to a page boy and delivered to the Clerk, and my question is whether that bill was reported, and whether it was delivered to the Clerk as being reported on the floor of this Senate.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, I again wish to state in no uncertain way that there is no Senator who can report on the floor of this Senate any bill which is indefinitely postponed in committee, and if, through error or inadvertence, a bill is reported out or attempted to be reported out which has been indefinitely postponed in committee, I say that acts as a nullity, and I repeat again, without fear of successful contradiction, that that bill was not reported on the floor of this Senate, and I dislike the language of evasion; I have never started to evade, and I do not propose to start at this late date in my legislative career.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, may I inquire, by whom was the bill erroneously reported?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, the bill was reported by the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, at the direction of the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary Special, who happens to be the speaker on the floor.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, be interrogated?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, did the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, report this bill to the Senate?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I went through the motion, but I did not look at it, and it was handed to me, as the Chairman of the Committee had already told you.

Mr. CAVALCNTE. Mr. President, did the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, report the bill?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I did not report the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, what did the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, mean by "going through the motions?"

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, we all know how the bill was reported without explaining that to him.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it appears by Rule 34 of this Senate, which reads:

> "The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the Senate and the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I submit that the Senator from Fayette is out of order, in that there is nothing before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, was recognized leading up to a question of information; the Chair understands that the rule which he is about to quote has to do with the question originally raised, and it would be perfectly in order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I now read from Jefferson's Manual: "The report being made, the committee is dissolved and can act no more without a new power"; and I say that when that bill was reported to this Senate, that that bill is not any longer in the possession of the committee and cannot go back to the possession of the committee without some action by this Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, state his point concerning this proposition. What is the point developed in his last statement?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order, that since that bill was reported out, it must remain reported out until referred back to that committee by some action of the body.

The PRESIDENT. It appears to the Chair that the question at issue is whether or not the committee did report out the bill. Under legal authority of the committee, the Chair is constrained with the idea that the Chairman of the Committee in voting to indefinitely postpone, could not, therefore, report the bill out, unless with a negative recommendation.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. ARON. There is nothing pending before the Senate at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order in the judgment of the Chair is well taken.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 693 (House Bill No. 132) on second reading, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the employment of miners in the bituminous coal mines unless certified after examination by a miners examining board providing for the appointment of such boards and defining their powers and duties and providing penalties go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, meeting today at the Penn-Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Retailers' Association, representing retail merchants in all sections of the State, reiterated its former position of unqualified opposition to a State retail sales tax. Asserting that ability to pay should be the prime consideration in an emergency tax program, the assembled retailers endorsed several alternative revenue measures.

William H. Hager, Lancaster, President of the Retailers' Association, released the following statement:

"We oppose the sales tax because it is a levy on necessities and is economically and socially unsound. It violates the fundamental principle that taxation should be levied in accordance with the ability to pay. It is asserted that at least 60 per cent of all retail purchases are made by consumers having less than $2,000 annual income. Such a tax, on a 3 per cent basis, would lessen the purchasing power of Pennsylvania citizens by seventy millions annually, thereby retarding production and employment. Moreover, a considerable volume of retail business would be driven out of the State into adjoining states, in order to escape the imposition of the tax.

"We call upon the General Assembly to turn to other revenue sources for the additional taxation required to meet the grave financial emergency now confronting the Commonwealth. We further recommend that careful consideration be given to the advisability of limiting appropriations to one year only, in view of the approaching constitutional revision and the hope of an early business recovery.

"Specifically, we urge that the exemption now granted to manufacturing corporations from the imposition of the state capital stock tax be repealed in order that the industrial interests of Pennsylvania, which have so long enjoyed virtual tax-freedom, may contribute their fair share to the cost of government. Regardless of whether their business has been conducted at a profit or a loss, all other corporations are compelled to pay this tax and retail merchants, in addition, pay a mercantile tax on their gross sale. No principal of equity or logic justifies the continued exemption of manufacturers from this tax.

"We favor a tax on the net income of corporations (even though this will mean a third tax on incorporated retail stores). We likewise endorse the principle of a graduated personal income tax.

"We favor the principle of a state tax on intangible personal property on an equitable basis.

"We favor either an increased gasoline tax or, in lieu thereof, that a very substantial sum be diverted from the Motor Fund for general state purposes.

"We favor an increased tax on the receipts of public utilities in order that Pennsylvania may derive proportionately the same revenue from this source as other states are obtaining.

"We recommend that a further comprehensive survey be made of the costs of government with the view of eliminating all unnecessary expense.

"We urge that an intensive investigation be made into the subject of unemployment relief with the view of securing a more efficient and less expensive administration thereof.

"We urge that legislation providing the procedure for the revision of the state constitution be enacted without delay, thereby permitting an equitable revision of our existing taxation laws.

"We call upon the political leaders of the Commonwealth and upon the representatives of commerce, industry, labor, and agriculture, to lay aside uncompromising opposition and to work together upon a program that will bring about the greatest amount of good to the people as a whole."

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both Houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 56, entitled:

An Act to amend clause (d) of section ten of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1216), entitled "An act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen; and provided for the licensing, regulation, and supervision of resident and non-residential real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business," as amended by defining the powers of the courts on appeals from the Department of Public Instruction.

Senate Bill No. 108, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph six of section thirteen of article nineteen of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth," making provision for the reinstatement of certain policemen and firemen and restricting the powers of the civil service commission.

Senate Bill No. 242, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four and fifteen of the act approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 203), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons and drugs, and providing penalties for the violation thereof; defining the words 'drug' and 'poison'; and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law, and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law; and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality, strength, and purity," as amended; changing the qualifications of applicants for examination and registration, and changing violations of the act from misdemeanors to summary proceedings.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO DISPLAYING UNITED STATES FLAG ON ARMISTICE DAY

HOUSE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House fo Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, The eleventh day of November of each year has been designated by statute a holiday to be known as Armistice Day; and

Whereas, The day so designated commemorates the signing of the armistice which ended the carnage of the World War; and

Whereas, True and fitting recognition of Armistice Day will serve to keep in the minds of the citizens of this Commonwealth the terrible cost of war and the magnificent sacrifices which brought that war to a successful conclusion; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be urged to issue a proclamation calling upon the State officials to display the United States flag on the State Buildings, and the people of this Commonwealth to display the flag at their homes and other suitable places, on that day and to otherwise properly observe the same.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the foregoing nominations.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE.

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

(8) The following are excerpts from a report based upon an investigation of relief conditions in three Pennsylvania counties made by members of the Staff of the New York State Temporary Emergency Relief Administration:

"During the latter part of 1934 complaints of all sorts flowed into the office of the State Relief Administration. The majority of these complaints after close examination seemed to come from relief clients who complained of the great inadequacy of relief.

"With the change of the political administration of Pennsylvania, a new Administrator was installed in the State Relief Office. Upon taking over control of the Relief Administration, Mr. Johnson became concerned about the great number of individual complaints and desired to learn of their validity.

"The Pennsylvania Relief Offices requested the Director of the New York State Temporary Emergency Relief Administration to loan them several men who were experienced in making home investigation and surveys involving eligibility and adequacy of relief. The request was made to an out of State organization because it was considered advisable to have individuals making the survey who would have no interest in the local or political situation.

"After a conference with Mr. Guyler, Director of the Relief Division of the State Relief Administration, the decision was made to make the survey in certain communities in the State from which the majority of complaints of various types seem to emanate. The final decision was that the survey should consist of a study of cases in Erie County which would include some of the Corry cases; in Westmoreland County and in Luzerne County. In the latter two, central points were chosen to be studied. These were the Pittston and Hazleton District.

"Although the State Administration had asked chiefly for a study of eligibility and adequacy, the writers of this report have considered it advisable to present information concerning procedure and policy of the various local offices. This information was obtained with comparatively little extra effort and is therefore being presented to the State Administration in the interest of a better understanding of the problems of the local Relief Office.

"The study was made covering the period from October 1, 1934 to February 15, 1935.

"This study started on February 18, 1935 and the field work was completed March 17, 1935. The report was presented to the State Relief Administration on Friday, March 22, 1935.

"For the information of those individuals concerned with this report, a brief outline of the experience, qualifications of those individuals making this study is herewith presented.

"Ernest Stark, Supervisor Relief, New York City, New York State T. E. R. A. Age 31. Graduate Ohio State University, Business Administration. One year Post Graduate Social Work. Two years Administrative Staff New York City Emergency Relief Bureau. Two years T. E. R. A. Special Investigator and Research Supervisor, special surveys.

"Alton E. Ball, Special Investigator New York State T. E. R. A. Age 27. A. B. Degree Colgate University. One year D. P. W. Investigator. Six months T. E. R. A. Special Investigator.

"Frederick O. Bird, Special Investigator New York T. E. R. A. Age about 36. Six year American Red Cross. Two years Consulate Service. Four years Real Estate Operator. One year Assistant Field Representative T. E. R. A. Six months Special Investigator T. E. R. A.

"Harry Levin, After Care Worker Hebrew Orphan Asylum New York City. Age 29. Graduate University of Pittsburgh. One year graduate school social work. One year case work. Four years after care work.

"Leslie F. Random, Special Investigator. Age 30. Graduate Brown University. Two years case work. Four months instructor new cases. Eight months Special Investigator T. E. R. A

"John Raymond, Special Investigator, T. E. R. A. Age 33. Brooklyn College. One year Investigator Veteran's relief. Six months Special Investigator T. E. R. A.

"Harry Richman, Special Investigator New York T. E. R. A. Age 28. Graduate City College of New York. Two years graduate school social work. One year family Welfare Work. Three months T. E. R. A. Special Investigator.

"The writers of this report at this time wish to express their appreciation to all members of the local Relief Offices as well as to those members of the State Office who were instrumental in facilitating the work. Without the full cooperation of all of the above, it would have been impossible to complete the survey in the time allotted.

"Selection of records of cases to be studied was made by the writers of this report on a purely random basis.

"At the time of selection of cases, a listing was made and given to the Filing Department and the Case Records for all those cases listed were required to be on hand. The writers of this report then closely examined the case records and budget sheets and transferred all pertinent information to the Schedule Sheet.

"At the completion of the transferring of the information to the Schedule Sheet, visits to the homes of each of the clients selected were made. In the home the information which had been placed on the Schedule was rechecked and other information pertinent to the purpose of this survey was obtained and noted. All information obtained from the records was placed on the Schedule Sheet in blue or black ink. The checking of this information in the homes and the placing of further information on the Schedule Sheet was done in red ink so as to furnish a contrast and to definitely identify information obtained in the home.

"When the home visits were completed the information for all cases was summarized and tabulated on Summary Sheets and broken down into tables and so arranged that they could be used for report purposes.

"The main point to be stressed concerning the Clerical Personnel in the various offices is the lack of adequate personnel. In not one office that was visited were there enough workers to carry on the complete functioning of a relief office adequately.

"It was discovered that the clerical forces on hand in the offices were for the most part over-worked without being adequately compensated for extra time required of them. In all of the offices the local Administration deserve considerable credit for the upkeep of the morale of the workers. There was no time when it was noted that workers who spent hours overtime several nights a week, made any noticeable objection.

"The writers of this report are of the opinion that the State Administration has an excellent system of financial control.

"Only 31 or 2.3 per cent of the 1,327 cases studied were found to be ineligible. This is, indeed, a gratifying low figure when one considers the high pressure of case loads and other handicaps under which the various Local Administrators and Visitors are working. In the majority of these cases the ineligibility was due to the recent income of the head of the household. In several of these cases this income had been discovered by the local investigator and in some of the cases where the income had been discovered, the cases had been closed.

"The relief clientele had an average residence in the State of 33.5 years. This again is just another part of the picture of relief throughout the State. It shows that the majority of clients are people who have in the past settled in Pennsylvania and built themselves homes and made definite connections. Generally the relief client is not of the transient group and because his long residence in the State, he is a definite state responsibility and should be taken care of on an adequate basis, if it is at all possible.

"Information concerning political affiliations cannot be considered as accurate. Population figures show that approximately 54 per cent of the individuals voting in the last election in the communities visited were Republicans while 44 per cent were Democrats. However, when questions concerning political affiliations were asked, a great many of the clients denied all connections with any political party. Fully 50 per cent made the statement that they never voted, many of them because of non-citizenship. 629 admitted political affiliations. 173 or approximately 24 per cent claimed to be Republicans and 416 or approximately 75 per cent claimed to be Democrats.

"Information obtained indicated that the pay scale for Visitors and Junior Visitors varied in the various Counties. On the whole the pay scale was very inadequate for the type of work these people are expected to do."

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT L. JOHNSON,
Executive Director.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Pytko, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I have before me an editorial appearing in the Philadelphia Record under date of April 1st—that is, today. I am moved by a spirit of charity to refrain from reading the title, nevertheless, in order that none here present might be left open to conjecture with regard to the title, I shall read the editorial in its entirety. I quote: This is the title:

"HE VOTED FOR McCLURE."

The editorial itself I quote:

"There is no politician more dangerous than the imitation liberal."

I would like to make mention of the fact that I requested the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, to retain his seat in this body until I had the opportunity of reading this editorial in his presence. I quote further:—

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand the rule of this Senate has always been that you cannot attack the credibility of a member, whether you read some one else's statement, or make it your own.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I take issue with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, you can attack the credibility of any member of this body.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is raised by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Pytko rose to a question of personal privilege. He was asked to state his question of personal privilege, and he is now stating the question and referring to an editorial dealing with the subject matter. In the judgment of the Chair, he is strictly in order.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, shall I continue?

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Pytko, may continue.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I quote further:

"He always pretends to be a 'friend of the people,' a champion of human rights—but when the showdown comes, he is lined up with the forces of reaction. Such a man is Senator George Woodward, of the Sixth District. Senator Woodward has built up something of a reputation as a liberal legislator—"

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I call for the order of the day. The hour of twelve o'clock having arrived, I submit there is nothing in order but the adjournment of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the clock is really determining the question, and the order of the day being determined, and the Chair having the call before it, it must rule affirmatively.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 12 o'clock midnight, until Tuesday, April 2, 1935, at 11 o'clock A. M.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, April 1, 1935.

The House met at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rev. William Leroy Mudge, Executive Secretary of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we look to Thee in the beginning of this session with the consciousness of our own weakness and lack of wisdom, but rejoicing that in Thee can be found the source of infinite wisdom of power and of love. May Thy rich blessing rest upon this House as it is now in session, upon its speaker, its officers, and each member, and may they depend entirely upon Thee. Thou art a great God and greatly to be feared above all gods. Thy will is in the heavens and Thy kingdom ruleth over all. May we understand tonight that Thy laws are immutable, and that through the ages Thy love reacheth all understanding and all purpose. Bless, we pray Thee, the Governor of this state, the Senate as well as the House of Representatives; all those who administer and make our laws, and may we not forget our President and those who are in authority with him.

We exact righteousness in this nation and realize the fact that sin is a reproach to any people. May we so live in righteousness that we may breathe righteousness. Bless the world we earnestly beseech Thee.

Wilt Thou stay the hand of war, the spirit of hate and of envy among men. Hasten that day when we shall realize the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

Now, bless us, we pray Thee, as we are gathered here. May the spirit of good dwell in our hearts, that in all things we may do that which is pleasing in Thy sight. Forgive us our sins and shortcomings save us we pray Thee and we will give the glory to Thee, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. BERNHARD (Concurrent).

RESOLUTION No. 108.

In the House of Representatives, March 27, 1935.

Whereas, Unless immediate relief is given, hundreds and thousands of additional farmers will lose their farms and their homes, and millions more will be forced into our cities and villages, and the army of the unemployed will necessarily increase to alarming proportions; and

Whereas, There is no adequate way of refinancing existing agricultural indebtedness, and the farmers are at the mercy of their mortgagees and creditors throughcut this state and nation; and

Whereas, The Frazier-Lemke Refinance bill, being S. 212 and H. R. 2066, in the Congress of the United States, provides for the liquidating and refinancing of agricultural indebtedness at a reduced rate of interest, thru the Farm Credit administration and Federal Land Banks; and

Whereas, The Frazier-Lemke bill has the endorsement of twenty-two state legislatures, and in addition the lower Houses of the state of New York and Delaware, and of many Commercial clubs, Chambers of Commerce, bank organizations, and of business and professional men and women, as well as the great majority of the farmers of this nation; and

Whereas, The enactment of this bill will have a vital effect not only upon agriculture, but upon all classes of industry; and

Whereas, Agriculture is the basic industry of this country, and there can be no recovery until agriculture is put upon a sound basis;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, That it is the sense of your memorialists, the members of the General Legislative Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania the Senate and the House concurring, that the Congress of the United States should enact the Frazier-Lemke bill without further delay.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this Memorial, duly authenticated, be sent by the Secretary of State to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from this State, to the President of the United States, and to U. S. Senator Lynn J Frazier and Congressman William Lemke.

Referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. CLIFF S. PATTERSON, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations reported as committed, House Bill No. 1152, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two thousand nine hundred one and two thousand nine hundred twelve of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by further equalizing license taxes on residents and nonresidents and providing further exceptions to the tax on transient merchants.

Mr. CLIFF S. PATTERSON, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations reported as committed, House Bill No. 1152, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand six hundred and eleven and section two thousand six hundred and twenty-one as amended, of the act approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," by further equalizing license taxes on residents and nonresidents, and providing further exceptions to the tax on transient merchants.

Mr. CLIFF S. PATTERSON, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations reported as committed, House Bill No. 1153, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand nine hundred ten as amended and section two thousand nine hundred twenty-two, of the act approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," by further equalizing license taxes on residents and nonresidents and providing further exceptions to the tax on transient merchants.

Mr. WELSH, from the Committee on Printing reported as committed, House Resolution No. 79.

RESOLUTION

BASEBALL GAME BETWEEN MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. HALUSKA offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, Some diversion is necessary for the members of this House in order to break the monotony of studying legislative bills, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives be requested to appoint a committee consisting of three Democrats and three Republicans, whose duty it shall be to arrange a time and place for a baseball game to be played by two teams, selected from among the members of this House. The game to be billed as "Democrats vs. Republicans;" and if the committee deems said contest worth an admission, that the net receipts be devoted to some worthy charity.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Mr. ALEXANDER offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, The Governor's program has in the main been passed by this House and awaits action by the Senate, and

Whereas, The other business of the House is not proceeding with the customary dispatch, and seemingly for the reason that the interests of the various counties are so diverse that it is difficult to find a common ground, therefore be it

Resolved, That the month of April be set aside by the General Assembly for the consideration of legislation applying only to the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and that all other matters be dropped for the time being except legislation for Delaware County which may also be considered during said month without much delay since most of the program of that county has it seems been completed; and that after April the legislation of the remaining counties be taken up in the order of their importance and population, and that Mifflin County come last since it has presented but one bill which has been pickled in committee, unless there be some other county which has no legislation whatever, in which case such county shall be last on the list.

Referred to the Committee on Legislative Apportionment.

UNITED STATES FLAG ON STATE BUILDINGS

Mr. FINNERTY offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, The eleventh day of November of each year has been designated by statute a holiday to be known as Armistice Day; and

Whereas, The day so designated commemorates the signing of the armistice which ended the carnage of the World War; and

Whereas, True and fitting recognition of Armistice Day will serve to keep in the minds of the citizens of this Commonwealth the terrible cost of war and the magnificant sacrifices which brought that war to a successful conclusion; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be urged to issue a proclamation calling upon the State officials to display the United States flag on the State buildings, and the people of this Commonwealth to display the flag at their homes and other suitable places, on that day and to otherwise properly observe the same.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

An Act To re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-four (one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-four) entitled "An act relating to milk and the products thereof declaring an emergency with respect to their production and marketing creating a Milk Control Board establishing its jurisdictoin powers and duties regulating the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution delivery and sale of milk and the products thereof providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor requiring licensees to furnish bonds for the protection of producers authorizing the examination of the business papers and affairs of and requiring the filing of reports by licensees other milk dealers and producers and permitting with limitations the dissemination of information obtained therefrom authorizing the issuance of subpoenas by the board or its agents and conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts or to prohibit violations of orders of the board providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the Milk Control Board imposing penalties and making an appropriation" by extending the provisions of the act for a further period of time prohibiting the sale of milk in certain cases enlarging and modifying the definition of milk to include ice cream mix powdered whole milk and powdered skimmed milk changing adding to and increasing license fees and further prescribing the method of computing such fees requiring all licensees to file bonds or collateral without any exceptions providing for a supersedeas in certain cases of appeal conferring certain powers upon the Governor conferring upon the board certain additional powers over cooperative agricultural associations or corporations providing new and changing existing penalties and making an appropriation

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the title and all the sections of the act approved the second day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-four (one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-four) entitled "An act relating to milk and the products thereof declaring an emergency with respect to their production and marketing creating a Milk Control Board establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties regulating the production transportation manufacture precessing storage distribution delivery and sale of milk and the products thereof providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor requiring licensees to furnish bonds for the protection of producers authorizing the examination of the business papers and affairs of and requiring the filing of reports by licensees other milk dealers and producers and permitting with limitations the dissemination of information obtained therefrom authorizing the issuance of subpoenas by the board or its agents and conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts or to prohibit violations of orders of the board providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the Milk Control Board imposing penalties and making an appropriation" are hereby reenacted and amended as follows

An Act Relating to milk and the products thereof declaring an emergency with respect to their production and marketing creating a Milk Control Board establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties regulating the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution delivery and sale of milk and the products thereof authorizing the board with the approval of the Governor to fix prices to be paid or charged for milk and the products thereof providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees thereof requiring licensees to furnish bonds for the protection of producers authorizing the examination of the business papers and affairs of and requiring the filing of reports by licensees other milk dealers and producers and permitting with limitations the dissemination of information obtained therefrom authorizing the issuance of subpoenas by the board or its agents and conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts or to prohibit violations of orders of the board providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the Milk Control Board imposing penalties and making an appropriation

Whereas Unhealthful unfair unjust destructive demoralizing and economic trade practices have been and are now carried on in the production sale and distribution of milk and milk products in this Commonwealth whereby the dairy industry in the Commonwealth and the constant supply of pure milk to inhabitants of the Commonwealth are imperiled and

Whereas Such conditions constitute a menace to the health welfare and reasonable comfort of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth and

Whereas It is necessary to protect the well-being of the inhabitants of this Commonwealth to promote the public welfare and to preserve the strength and vigor of the race by declaring that the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution and sale of milk in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is a business affecting the public health and affected with a public interest and

Whereas The production and distribution of milk is a paramount industry upon which the prosperity of the Commonwealth in large measure depends and

Whereas The present acute economic emergency being a part the consequence of a severe and increasing disparity between the prices of milk and other commodities which disparity has largely destroyed the purchasing power of milk producers for industrial products has broken down the orderly production and marketing of milk and has seriously impaired the agriculture assets supporting the credit structure of the Commonwealth and its local governmental subdivisions and

Whereas The danger to the pubic health and welfare is immediate and impending the necessity urgent and such as will not admit of delay or relaxation in public supervision and control in accord with proper standards of production sanitation and marketing the foregoing statements of fact policy and application of this act are hereby declared to be matters of legislative determination

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in the exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth and to protect the public health and public welfare it is hereby declared that the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution and sale of milk in the Commonwealth is a business affecting the public health and affected with a public interest and it is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act shall be an emergency measure enacted for the purpose of regulating and controlling the milk industry in this Commonwealth for the protection of the health welfare and comfort of the inhabitants thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 871, as follows:

An Act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county city borough township school and poor purposes in counties of the second class and abolishing the existing board for the assessment and revision of taxes and the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the city assessor in cities of the third class in such counties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in each county of the second class there is hereby created a board to be designated as the board for the assessment and revision of taxes composed of seven persons citizens of the county The members of such board shall be appointed by the county commissioners of such county four of whom shall and must be residents of the city of Pittsburgh for a period of five years the remaining members of said board shall and must be residents of the county of Allegheny exclusive of said city for a similar period and said county commissioners shall designate one of such members as chairman All the members shall hold their office for the term of four years from the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and the county commissioners shall fill all vacancies in the board for the unexpired term thereof The chairman of the board shall receive a salary of six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars per annum Each member of such board shall receive a salary five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars per annum All such salaries shall be payable monthly out of the treasury of the county

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in each county of the second class to make and to have supervision of the making of all assessments and valuations of property whether real or personal taxable under any general special or local law for county or city purposes and of all lists of residents and inhabitants as required by existing law and shall prepare and cause the publications or notices hereinafter directed to be made

Section 3 The said board shall divide the county into convenient districts and shall appoint one subordinate assessor for each of said districts The subordinate assessors shall receive such compensation as the salary board shall fix The board shall have the right to appoint such clerks as the salary board of the county may allow for the proper discharge of the duties of said board All salaries herein provided for shall be fixed by the salary board and all such salaries and all other expenses in connection with the making of assessments under the provisions of this act shall be paid out of the county treasury

Section 4 The subordinate assessors shall make the assessment and valuations of all property taxable under any general special or local law for county or city purposes together with a list of all persons within their respective districts as provided by existing law and in so doing shall view all property in their district taxable for such purposes and in cities of the second class shall classify all real estate in such cities in such manner and upon such testimony as may be adduced before them so as to distinguish between the buildings on land and the land exclusive of the buildings The subordinate assessors shall make a personal house-to-house canvass of their district in order that such lists of persons may be accurate and correct in so far as it is possible to so make them All such assessors who shall fail to make such assessments and lists in the manner as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and in default of the payment of such fine and costs to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding ninety days

Section 5 The subordinate assessors shall make such assessments of property and occupations each year preceding the triennial assessment in such counties and shall file the same with the board for the assessment and revision of taxes on or before the first Monday of November of such year

Section 6 The board shall as provided by this act and by the provisions of existing law examine and revise the said assessments and valuations increasing or decreasing the same as in their judgment may seem proper and shall add thereto such property or subjects of taxation as may have been omitted After such revision the board shall by rule fix convenient times for the hearing of appeals from said assessments and valuations and after the hearing of said appeals and the making of whatever changes may be considered proper the valuations as so ascertained and revised unless changed in the manner hereinafter provided or as provided by existing law shall stand as the valuations for the assessments of all county city borough township school and poor taxes until the next triennial assessment

Section 7 When the triennial assessments shall be fixed either for the whole county or in districts thereof notice of that fact shall be given by publication of a list of all owners of real property showing the street number and street name if any the size of the lot assessed valuation of land and improvements thereon if any in one newspaper of general circulation as defined by the Newspaper Advertising Act of May sixteenth one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand seven hundred eighty-four) published in the city borough or township wherein such real property is located and if there be no such newspaper then by publication in a newspaper defined as aforesaid published within the county and circulating within the city borough or township and also in the legal newspaper in the county if any Said publication shall state the time when appeals will be heard and also give notice that copy of the assessments made in any borough or township shall be placed in a particular public place in each such borough or township by the assessor After the hearing of appeals the board shall take such action in regard thereto as may be right and proper

Section 8 After action on such assessments by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes any taxpayer dissatisfied with the assessment on his property may within sixty days after the board has held the appeals provided for by this act appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of the said county as provided by existing law and it shall be the duty of the court at once to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary to make such changes therein as may be right and proper

Section 9 The subordinate assessors shall between the triennial assessments revise any assessments or valuation according to right and equity by correcting errors and by adding thereto any property or subjects of taxation which may have been omitted or any new property or subjects of taxation which may have come into being since the last triennial assessment In each such case the subordinate assessors shall in cities of the second class classify all real estate in such cities in such manner and upon such testimony as may be adduced before them so as to distinguish between the buildings on land and the land exclusive of the buildings

They shall also add thereto the names of any persons who may have moved into such district and strike therefrom the names of any person who have removed from such districts since the last triennial assessment

tions between the triennial assessments by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed or valued has changed by reason of any change of conditions thereon or adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or for the reason that the property assessed or valued has been subdivided or laid out into a plan of lots or other subdivisions or for the reason that improvements have been placed thereon or added thereto or for the reason that any public or other improvement has been made adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or where for any other reason whatsoever the value of the property has changed and it seems to the board necessary and equitable to make a change in the valuation thereof The assessors shall also between the triennial assessments in all cases where it is apparent that any assessment is not in accord with the generality or uniform standard of assessments revise and correct the same by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed do not conform to the generality or uniform standard of assessments Provided however That if such revision or correction of such assessment shall increase the amount thereof the owner of such subjects of taxation whose assessment has been so increased between the triennial assessments shall be given at least ten days' written notice of such revision or correction and have the right of appeal to the court of common pleas in the same manner provided in section ten of this act

All assessments required to be made by the subordinate assessors in the years between the triennial assessment shall be returned to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes not later than the first Monday of November of the year preceding the one for which it is made and the same notice by publication in newspapers of such assessments shall be made as required and directed for the triennial assessments

Section 10 At least ten days' written notice shall be given to any taxable person whose assessment shall be changed between triennial assessments setting forth any change which has been made and the time and place set for hearing, objections thereto

Such notice shall be served by the board or any member thereof or by any subordinate assessor or by any other person authorized so to do by the board upon said taxable person if he or she can be found in the county or upon an adult person residing upon the property in question in case the taxable person cannot be found in the county

When no service is made upon the taxable person or upon an adult person residing upon the property assessed said notice shall be deemed to have been properly served if tacked or conspicuously posted upon the property assessed

No defect in service of any such notice shall be sufficient ground for setting aside any assessment so made but upon proof thereof being made the taxable person shall have the right to a rehearing before said board relative to said assessment and to appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas as hereinafter provided

Section 11 After the hearing of any objection thereto and the making of any changes that may be deemed proper the valuation as so ascertained shall unless changed in the manner herein provided or as provided by existing law stand as the valuations for the assessments for county city borough township school and poor taxes in such county until the next triennial assessment

Section 12 Any taxable person dissatisfied with changes made in any assessment in the years between the triennial may within thirty days after the final fixing of the same appeal to the court of common pleas of said county and it shall be the duty of the court at once to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary make such changes therein as may be right and proper

Section 13 No appeal taken from any such assessments shall affect the validity of any taxes assessed but if such assessment shall thereafter be reduced an exoneration shall be granted or restitution ordered for the excess of taxes paid by reason of any improper increase in the assessment

Section 14 Upon request by any taxpayer he shall at any time receive from the board a statement of his taxable property and its valuation

Section 15 When the said valuations and assessments have been made all taxation for county city borough township school and poor purposes within the limits of such county shall be based upon such valuations and the board for the assessment and revision of taxes shall certify to the councils of all cities in the county the aggregate valuation of city property in each of such cities subject to taxation for city purposes

Section 16 On the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six the terms of all members of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes and of all subordinate assessors and clerks employed by the board in counties of the second class and of all members and employes of the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the city assessor in cities of the third class in such counties shall cease and terminate and the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as now constituted in counties of the second class and the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the office of city assessor in cities of the third class in such counties are hereby abolished It is the intent and meaning of this act that in counties of the second class there shall be but one assessment made for taxation purposes and that all county city borough township school and poor taxes shall be levied on the basis of such assessment

Section 17 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 18 Except where inconsistent therewith this act does not repeal any of the provisions of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws"

Section 19 The act approved the twenty-second day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand ninety-three) entitled "An act creating in counties having a population of from eight hundren thousand to one million five hundred thousand a board for the assessment and revision of taxes providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners fixing their salaries payable by the county defining the powers and duties of such board and regulating the assessment of property and occupations for State and county purposes authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors and clerks defining their duties and providing for their compensation payable by such counties imposing a penalty on subordinate assessors for failure to comply with certain provisions of this act and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessor in so far as respects the assessment of property and occupations for State and county purposes" and its amendments are hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 20 Except as to the appointment of the members of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes which may be done at any time after the final enactment of this act the provisions thereof shall become effective on the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six Provided That this act shall not affect assessments made under existing laws as the basis of city taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and such laws shall remain in force as long as may be necessary for such purpose

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, House Bill No. 871 is a bill for the centralization of the collection and assessment of taxes in counties of the second class, and under the existing law will only affect Allegheny County. Under the existing law the Act of 1899, P. L. 139 creates assessors for cities of the third class. The Act of 1897, P. L. 219 creates a board for cities of the second class, comprised of five members elected council.

Under the Act of 1911 as amended, this was an act creating boards in counties of the second class comprised of seven members.

I could never understand for the life of me why in the County of Allegheny we had on one side of the street a board of the assessment and revision of taxes while right across the street we had another board for the city of Pittsburgh doing exactly the same work.

This is nothing more than what is termed "ox-cart" government, and Allegheny County presents a flagrant example of that type of government.

In 1788, when Allegheny County was formed the travel was by ox-cart and horse and buggy, there was no other means of communication, no paved roads, no bridges, and necessarily under such conditions each little community had to be more or less self-contained and self-governed. Each little community had its school board, its tax collector, its justice of the peace and other indispensible public officials.

Allegheny County comprises a homogeneous and unified community comprising, I believe, two hundred forty-four different units of government,—three third class cities, sixty-four boroughs, twenty-six first class townships, thirty-one second class townships, and one hundred twenty-one school districts.

Naturally in all offices at that time the remuneration was by fees. Since that time Allegheny county has grown to a population of one million four hundred six thousand and six hundred. The conditions have considerably improved with industrial, social and economic developments.

Now, that government, although obsolete cumbersome and antiquated and unduly expensive has been retained in Allegheny County because it gives twenty-five thousand jobs to professional politicians, and they are very reluctant to relinquish any of this rich patronage.

But the tax payers of the state of Pennsylvania and of Allegheny County are aroused as never before because this depression has left them a necessary incentive to abolish the "ox-cart" government. Taxes were probably never more burdensome, and they are continually increasing.

I pledged myself in my first venture in political office to bitterly oppose any increase in the gasoline tax, or the diversion of gasoline fund monies.

We know that the imposition of taxes is unpleasant, and as one of my learned friends told me last week, voting for a tax measure in one session has meant that member's absence in the next session.

But I am fully aware that a crisis exists. We have got to raise money to feed those starving in this commonwealth, and I say that consolidation of governmental units is a step in the right direction, just as the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, stated the other day, we know that tax measures,—and there are many of them in this session right now,—probably are against the wishes of each and every individual, and I say that we can begin right here by consolidation. This bill consolidates and centralizes the board for the assessment and the revision of taxes in the county of Allegheny and will save the taxpayers approximately one hundred sixty thousand dollars.

Now, everyone of us, whether Democrats, Republicans or Socialists,—we were all committed in the last campaign for governmental economy and consolidation wherever possible. This bill is a step in the right direction and will give us an opportunity to redeem that pledge. I hope that this bill lends the necessary incentives for legislation action in governmental economy all over this commonwealth and I hope that nuisance taxes, regardless of what emergencies we may face in the future, will be unheard of, for that reason I urge support of House Bill No. 871.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the present bill that we are now voting on, as you all know, is the one which caused three hours of debate on second reading last Wednesday. The principle back of this bill was endorsed by both major parties in the last campaign.

I personally do not believe that the bill in its present form meets the requirements of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in so far as female labor is concerned. However, I do feel this, that the principle is sound, and that I sincerely hope proper amendments may in the future be placed in the bill in the Senate.

Because of the belief in the principle itself, I shall vote "aye" on this bill, and I feel that I should explain to the House why I am voting "aye" now.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to vote "no" and file my reasons.

House Bill No. 371 as now drafted would prove ruinous to the summer resort hotels of Monroe County. A great proportion of the resort hotels would be compelled to close their establishments and the bill instead of increasing employment would decrease employment. The few resort hotels that would be able to continue operations would only be able to do so with employment of male labor, thereby working an injustice to female labor. For these reasons I am voting "no" on this bill.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and wish to file my reasons for so doing.

It is my opinion that House Bill No. 371 was drawn for the purpose of increasing employment in industrial establishments, and I personally favor and will support such legislation, but this bill does not make any exemption for domestics in small hotels, who should have a 48 hour week instead of 44 hours as provided by the bill.

As I represent a summer resort district and have been petitioned by some 300 hotel and restaurant employees to oppose this bill, in order that they may retain their present employment, I must be recorded as voting "no."

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to vote "no" and wish to file my reasons.

I vote "no" on account of the hundreds of requests of women to vote "no."

Also file protest from National Woman's Party.

IN PROTEST AGAINST HOUSE BILL 371

This bill will throw thousands of women out of work. It is the administration's way of keeping the pre-election pledge, "Every man a job,"—the women can shift for themselves.

If passed, it will be over protests of dozens of organizations and thousands of individuals both men and women.

Special legislation for women means economic slavery for both sexes.

Women demand that no labor legislation shall be enacted which will violate their constitutional right to compete on equal terms with men in any field, business, professional, or industrial.

They are not going to allow a few union and political leaders to tell them what they can do, when they can do it, or deprive them of their right to earn and acquire property.

They are not going to be told to "get married or else"—and be forced into unholy alliances by laws which make it impossible for them to choose their own way of supporting themselves and their dependents.

Pennsylvania women are voters and tax-payers. They are Republicans, Democrats, Socialists, etc. Their rights as citizens cannot be set aside by any Party or "Administration."

America is still America! Its foundational principles of equality and honesty will not be uprooted by foreign cult or influence.

VOTE AGAINST HOUSE BILL 371

NATIONAL WOMAN'S PARTY,
Pennsylvania State Branch
Headquarters: 1716 West Erie Avenue,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to vote "no" and file my reasons.

I vote "no" for following reason:

Protests received from many of my constituents.

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I wish to vote "no" and file my reasons for so doing.

I favor the abolition of the sweat shop but must oppose this bill because the crops of farmers will be wasted by restriction of hours of workers in canneries.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to vote "no" and file my reasons therefor.

1. It places some Pennsylvania industries at a disadvantage with those of other states including canneries.
2. A number of women's organizations have expressed opposition to this limitation on their hours.
3. It does not properly take care of the hours necessitated by messenger service.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I vote "no" and wish to file my reasons.

I favor the plan of the bill, but feel that it should have been amended to take care of certain conditions in parts of the state such as fruit to keep it from perishing.

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to vote "no" and file my reason.

I am voting against this bill because:—

(1) As drawn it will result in many women, now supporting themselves and dependents in losing their employment.

(2) It unfairly discriminates against women in many professions and occupations, where their work is not arduous, but requires more than forty hours attendance each week.

(3) Many women, and women's organizations, have protested against this bill in its present form.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 178, entitled:

An Act to safeguard human health and life by providing for the issuance of permits to and regulation of persons and entities selling milk and milk products conferring powers and imposing duties on the Secretary of Health the Advisory Health Board and otherwise providing for the administration of the act and imposing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1067

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1067, Printer's No. 384, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-five of the act approved the tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 866), entitled "An act relative to the establishment and jurisdiction of magistrates' courts in Philadelphia, and creating a board of magistrates; providing for a chief magistrate; prescribing their powers and duties; providing for clerks; establishing a central administrative office; imposing upon the City of Philadelphia the cost of establishment and maintenance of magistrates' courts, including payment of all salaries; fixing salaries and restricting magistrates to duties of office; and repealing certain prior acts," by changing the time of holding the election for the office of chief city magistrate and the term thereof, and terminating the term of the chief magistrate now in office.

was defeated on final passage Wednesday, March 27th, be reconsidered.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tumelty, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tumelty?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tumelty, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell the House whether or not this bill was fully considered last Wedneday, when it was defeated?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say that the bill was not fully considered, as there were a lot of questions repeated and repeated during the interrogation, and it got to a point where I do not believe that a lot of the members knew exactly what it was.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether he understood the debate last Wednesday.

Mr. TUMELTY. I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Tahl. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether he thought the bill was a bad bill and that is why he voted in the negative.

Mr. TUMELTY. I did at the time, Mr. Speaker. I have since read it over pretty thoroughly and I think it is a pretty good bill.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell the members of the House who got him to change his mind?

Mr. TUMELTY. Myself, Mr. Speaker. I read it over, and I think it is a good bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for and one hundred and five members of more than a majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Pfaff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PFAFF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain to the members of the House what evil this bill seeks to correct?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, under the present act, the election of a chief magistrate in the city of Philadelphia, I don't consider fair and proper.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain to the members of the House in what respect he considers it improper and unfair?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, because there are certain members of that body who may go down to defeat in the next municipal election next fall in the city of Philadelphia, who would be permitted to select or elect a chief magistrate in Philadelphia and I do not think that is fair.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the gentleman wishes to change the date of election?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say that the provisions of the bill are very plain. It provides for the annual election of a chief city magistrate by men elected to the office of magistrate.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, if this bill were amended to make the election in January instead of December, would that satisfy the gentleman from Philadelphia?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, that is just what the bill provides for.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, but it also provides that the election be held annually, does it not?

Mr. PFAFF. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, this bill seeks to change the date of the election and also the term of the chief magistrate, does it not?

Mr. PFAFF. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain why he desires to have the chief magistrate elected every year instead of every five years as it is now?

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, in answering the gentleman from Philadelphia, I think this gives an opportunity to the various members of the boards of magistrates to be elected to that particular office, with its additional recompense, which the office of chief magistrate receives.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, doesn't the gentleman from Philadelphia consider that a magistrate elected for one year has barely time to learn the routine duties of his office and than have another election take place.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I believe that every man who is elected to the office of magistrate in Philadelphia is familiar with the duties of chief magistrate, and I believe that he could fulfill those duties satisfactorily.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I dislike to oppose the bill of any member of this House, and if I did not think that this particular bill was bad, I would not oppose it. I do not care who the sponsor of a bill may be, it makes no difference to me. If it is a good bill, I will vote for it. If it is not a good bill, I will oppose it. I think I have demonstrated this session that so far as I am concerned, it makes no difference to me from what source a bill may come; so long as it is a good bill, I will be for it.

This bill, members of the House, has no merit and I will explain why. When this bill came up for consideration last Wednesday I asked the gentleman from Philadelphia, the sponsor of this bill, if any magistrate, either Republican or Democrat, had told him of the necessity of the change. He was unable to mention any magistrate at all; he didn't mention one tonight when I interrogated him.

I, from experience, as a practicing lawyer in Philadelphia, know that this bill has no merit, because a magistrate who is elected as the president of the board must learn the duties of that office. That office has certain duties in addition to the regular duties of a duly elected magistrate, and it isn't true that any magistrate who is elected immediately after his election has the knowledge or the ability or the experience to act as chief magistrate.

I do not think members of this House, that we should tamper with the minor judiciary, but that we should help the minor judiciary to enforce the laws. This bill does not do that. This bill in my judgment seeks to interfere with the management of the board of magistrates in the city of Philadelphia. There has not been suggested one good reason why there should be an election every year.

I believe and I think you will agree with me that no judicial tribunal has its president or its chief judge elected every year. I again say to you that this bill has no merit at all. It simply seeks to interfere with the proper duties and management of the office of chief magistrate and I think it should be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following communication from the Governor's Office and ask that it be read at this time.

The communication was read by the Clerk as follows:

Meeting today at the Penn-Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Retailers' Association, representing retail merchants in all sections of the State, reiterated its former position of unqualified opposition to a State retail sales tax. Asserting that ability to pay should be the prime consideration in an emergency tax program, the assembled retailers endorsed several alternative revenue measures.

William H. Hager, Lancaster, President of the Retailers' Association, released the following statement:

"We oppose the sales tax because it is a levy on necessities and is economically and socially unsound. It violates the fundamental principle that taxation should be levied in accordance with the ability to pay. It is asserted that at least 60 per cent of all retail purchases are made by consumers having less than $2,000 annual income. Such a tax, on a 3 per cent basis, would lessen the purchasing power of Pennsylvania citizens by seventy millions annually, thereby retarding production and employment. Moreover, a considerable volume of retail business would be driven out of the State into adjoining states, in order to escape the imposition of the tax.

"We call upon the General Assembly to turn to other revenue sources for the additional taxation required to meet the grave financial emergency now confronting the Commonwealth. We further recommend that careful consideration be given to the advisability of limiting appropriations to one year only, in view of the approaching constitutional revision and the hope of an early business recovery.

"Specifically, we urge that the exemption now granted to manufacturing corporations from the imposition of the state capital stock tax be repealed in order that the industrial interests of Pennsylvania, which have so long enjoyed virtual tax-freedom, may contribute their fair share to the cost of government. Regardless of whether their business has been conducted at a profit or a loss, all other corporations are compelled to pay this tax and retail merchants, in addition, pay a mercantile tax on their gross sale. No principle of equity or logic justifies the continued exemption of manufacturers from this tax.

"We favor a tax on the net income of corporations (even though this will mean a third tax on incorporated retail stores). We likewise endorse the principle of a graduated personal income tax.

"We favor the principle of a state tax on intangible personal property on an equitable basis.

"We favor either an increased gasoline tax or, in lieu thereof, that a very substantial sum be diverted from the Motor Fund for general state purposes.

"We favor an increased tax on the receipts of public utilities in order that Pennsylvania may derive proportionately the same revenue from this source as other states are obtaining.

"We recommend that a further comprehensive survey be made of the costs of government with the view of eliminating all unnecessary expense.

"We urge that an intensive investigation be made into the subject of unemployment relief with the view of securing a more efficient and less expensive administration thereof.

"We urge that legislation providing the procedure for the revision of the state constitution be enacted without delay, thereby permitting an equitable revision of our existing taxation laws.

"We call upon the political leaders of the Commonwealth and upon the representatives of commerce, industry, labor, and agriculture, to lay aside uncompromising opposition and to work together upon a program that will bring about the greatest amount of good to the people as a whole."

The SPEAKER. The communication will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Legislative Journal.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 306, Printer's No. 379, entitled:

An Act providing for the registration of milk bottles and containers, forbidding refilling, using, selling, purchasing, giving, taking, retaining, destroying, disposing or trafficking in same without the written consent of owners, imposing penalties, fines and imprisonment, providing for issuing process in nature of a search warrant; providing what shall constitute prima facie proof, forbidding defacement, covering up, removing or concealing name, mark or device; defining procedure; providing disposition of fines; providing that appeal will not invalidate conviction for second offence, but that sentence shall await decisions of appeal, providing that the requiring, taking or accepting a deposit shall not be deemed a sale; providing that registration prior to this act entitles registrants to benefits of act, and providing for the transfer of certificates of registration.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 258, Printer's No. 192, on page 18, of today's calendar, bill on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Mason.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 258, entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" providing for the filing of liens for taxes which have been returned to the county commissioners for non-payment for the filing of joint liens by county commissioners for the county and other taxing districts and for the collection of such liens and imposing certain duties upon tax collectors

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE LAWRENCE COUNTY EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

Mr. EROE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly in the session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one created a State Emergency Relief Board and other Governmental and Commonwealth agencies operating in conjunction with the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board to aid the thousands of unfortunate and starving citizens of this Commonwealth forced to depredation by the depression; and

Whereas, The Emergency Relief Administrator of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania appointed a Board consisting of several citizens in the County of Lawrence to administer relief and welfare to the people of that county; and

Whereas, There have been numerous complaints of gross abuse of the discretionary power and authority vested in the Lawrence County Relief Board and other Commonwealth and Governmental Agencies and it is further reported that certain groups and individuals have been discriminated against; and

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five Members of the House of Representatives whose duty it shall be to make a rigid investigation of the conduct and operation of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board and other agencies above mentioned operating in conjunction with said board dating back to its inception and to investigate such other facts and circumstances surrounding the conduct of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board and other agencies above mentioned as it deems necessary for the information of the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives during this session as early as possible; and

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its Chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the Committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the Committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the Courts of the Commonwealth. Each member of said Committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said Committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases. And be it further

Resolved, That said Committee shall have the further right and authority to issue a requisition to the aforesaid Board and Agencies for such stenographic help or other service as it may deem necessary under the circumstances in the taking of testimony and conduct of hearing et cetera.

Mr. CANNON asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, after listening to the request to speed up legislation and the decision rendered I can not stand idly by when considering the haste with which these matters were passed over last week, knowing that such matters as this prevailed in 1933, when bills on this subject were allowed to remain in committee and be forgotten.

So at this time I am desirous of placing before this Honorable body a fact with which you are very familiar, that there still remain in this Commonwealth large numbers of persons who still seek domestic happiness which can only be obtained through the creation of employment to enable them to earn a real living union wage to support the American standard of living for themselves and those depending upon them.

It is well known that the previous administration really did nothing to promote happiness for the majority of unemployed, most of whom are still in distress. This accounts for the fact that the members of this House are now confronted with the many problems connected with this unemployment situation.

It may prove interesting to some of you new members to know that in this same Assembly Hall in 1933, Gifford Pinchot, then Governor of this commonwealth, informed this honorable body in the month of March of that year that the expenditures for relief were being paid at the rate of six and one-half million dollars per month and would probably reach the seven million dollar rate by the end of that month, whereupon legislation was hurriedly enacted and provided the paltry sum of two million dollars, once again passing the buck in this land of poverty amidst plenty. Later additional sums were provided, but in insufficient amount to meet the requirements, so that it became necessary to call a Special Session in November and December of 1933 to provide additional funds for unemployment relief, old age assistance and pensions for the blind.

In order to create these funds House Bill No. 10 was enacted in the extraordinary session of 1933, creating the State Liquor Store System which was presented as the best system in the nation. That system, however, never did what it was proposed to do in the matter of providing funds for unemployment relief, and so forth. It did provide sixteen hundred or more jobs for those qualifying by competiting examinations, so that the educated person had the advantage of falling right in line for a position, where the uneducated person in distress received nothing.

Therefore it became necessary to call another session in the latter part of 1934 to provide funds which the best system, the State Store System, has failed to provide, so, members of the House, those of us here must now think bravely in order that, as stated in the public press, the poor must not starve. Yes, there are poor unfortunates in this commonwealth who have been in distress for many years and have got through relief from many angles, who have lost the opportunity of earning a living in order to provide domestic happiness. This has also caused them to lose the purchasing power which would be of such great benefit to business. There were many who had practiced thrift and economy in order to save for a rainy day, lost their all by the closing of the banks,—some of those bank buildings which are now occupied by State Liquor Stores.

It is generally conceded that no person in this state or Nation should be permitted to starve and I urge you members, of this House to remain liberal for the benefit of humanity by and try to make as many jobs as possible for those willing to work, and I say do not be short-sighted opportunists like big business, who should know that the great show they once produced has been stranded. Lay higher taxes upon those who can stand the burden, the men of wealth.

Your constituents, the same as mine, placed confidence in you, that is why we are all here, and expected to use our common sense and good judgment.

It has been frequently stated that no one in this commonwealth should be permitted to starve, but many are close to starvation by reason of the former setup and the handling of relief rolls today in many buildings which were formerly plants, factories and going concerns where employment could be had, but which are now used by relief boards in many localities, handled by a setup that dispenses relief as they see fit.

In order to assist in solving the unemployment problem I urge that banks be restricted to banking practices and that the provisions of Article I section eight of the United States Constitution be strictly enforced, that Congress shall have the sole power to coin and regulate the value of money. Plants and factories operate and manufacture for the purpose of creating employment, and there should be no set-up such as the former Emergency Relief Board to make the poor poorer and the rich richer.

And so I ask you, members of this House, in behalf of the humanity that needs assistance, that is compelled to seek relief, that before this session shall end you provide and encourage as much employment as possible for those willing to work, to restore to them all the opportunities possible that they do not remain idle and helpless,—you have had a liberal education during this session. Human nature owes no right to selfish interests. Pennsylvania believes in you do not fail those in distress.

I shall read a few words from a resolution that was placed before this House in December of 1933:

"Whereas There are widespread charges of incompetency extravagancies waste and a deliberate indifferent attitude toward those who apply for assistance on the part of employees in various relief stations and

"Whereas The necessity for a university education as a qualification for appointment to a position in relief stations is deliberate favoritism for sons and daughters of wealthy parents and

Whereas such charges cannot go unanswered by this House but the members thereof and the people of this commonwealth are entitled to know the truth or falsity of such charges therefore be it"

Owing to the social changes referred to that have become a professional disease of error and greed, factories remain idle due to the errors of the broken down system, and the man-made depression continues.

I shall not make any excuses about taking up your time, despite the fact that it costs at the rate of forty dollars per minute. We have spent time discussing whether we should fish or train dogs on Sundays, and we spent a lengthy period of time last Wednesday in discussing the forty-hour week for female help, therefore I pray for action by deeds as well as by words and I also plead with the committee to give consideration to resolutions numbers 10, 11, and 72 and House Bills 830 and 1014 so that we may legislate for the jobless. While it is still necessary to dispense relief, it is worthwhile to restore to Pennsylvania a domestic market.

I want to call your attention to an article that appeared in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, the Philadelphia Record, reading as follows:

"HE VOTED FOR M'CLURE

There is no politician more dangerous than the imitation liberal.

He always pretends to be a "friend of the people," a champion of human rights—but when the showdown comes, he is lined up with the forces of reaction.

Such a man is Senator George Woodward, of the sixth District.

Senator Woodward has built up something of a reputation as a liberal legislator. Certain measures he has proposed in the past have had a comparatively liberal character.

But it is significant that when the votes are counted—when it is a question of politics versus principle—

Senator Woodward is right on deck with the plunderbund."

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that the gentleman from Philadelphia has the right to make statements derogatory to a Senator, and I would, therefore, ask that he desist from further reading an editorial in a newspaper apparently attempting to deride a Senator of this Commonwealth.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has no right to make any remarks derogatory of a Senator on the floor of the House. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, then that concludes my statement, and I will hand up the editorial from the press and will ask that it take the same routine as my statement.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to interfere with the free speech of any member, but I do object to that portion of the gentleman's speech, wherein he hands up an editorial from the Philadelphia Record and asks that the editorial be made a part of his speech, and, therefore, I ask that the Chair do not permit that editorial to become a part of the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has already ruled on that question. Derogatory remarks in reference to a Senator will not be printed in the Journal.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, that concludes my statement.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, The eleventh day of November of each year has been designated by statute a holiday to be known as Armistice Day; and

Whereas, The day so designated commemorates the signing of the armistice which ended the carnage of the World War; and

Whereas, True and fitting recognition of Armistice Day will serve to keep in the minds of the citizens of this Commonwealth the terrible cost of war and the magnificent sacrifices which brought that war to a successful conclusion; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be urged to issue a proclamation calling upon the State officials to display the United States Flag on the State Buildings, and the people of this Commonwealth to display the flag at their homes and other suitable places, on that day and to otherwise properly observe the same.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1935 No. 38

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 2, 1935.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Through the watches of another night, O God, Thou hast guarded us. While we were wrapped in the mantle of darkness, our eyes closed in slumber, Thou wast awake and Thine eyes were open to behold us, for "He that keepeth Israel neither slumbereth nor sleepeth".

Such vigilant, constant love is beyond our power to comprehend. Yet we are thankful for Thy watchcare over us. Without it we would wander far afield and find ourselves confused and hopeless.

Continue to watch over us and lead us during this new day. Make each Senator and officer of this body an instrument to be used by Thee in working out Thy will among the people of this great Commonwealth.

This we ask in the name of the Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceeding session, when, on motion of Mr. HUNSICKER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the foregoing nominations.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 379, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the purchase and distribution of milk to undernourished and needy children in the public schools imposing duties on boards of school directors teachers principals medical inspectors and the Department of Welfare and making an appropriation be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this bill was reported from the Committee on Public Health had cut out of it the appropriation of $1,500,000. An amendment, yesterday, which was not considered by the Senate except casually, to put in that appropriation of $1,500,000; and under the rules of the Senate this bill should go to the Committee on Appropriations. The motion I have made is for the purpose of recommitting the bill to the Committee on Appropriations so that they may consider the appropriation feature contained in the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is it the purpose of this motion to allow the bill to take a peaceful sleep, or is it simply to discuss whether the appropriation of a million and a half too large or too little?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, that is a matter for the Committee to decide. Personally I do not like the putting of any more functions on the Department of Health as regards the control of the schools. I think that each school board has the right to determine matters as to the health of its children, and I believe that each community should furnish the material that is necessary; but that is a matter for the committee to decide, upon consideration of the bill before it.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Well, Mr. President, does the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, realize that this is not a question for the Committee on Appropriations?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, those very questions were disposed of by the Committee on Public Health? I was not on the Committee on Public Health, and do not know what was discussed there; but in these times, when we are having trouble with the problem of finding money for unemployment relief, I should not lightly consider an appropriation of $1,500,000 for this matter.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the appropriation of $1,500,000, or any other sum which may be necessary to carry out this object, which, in my opinion, is a worthy one, will not, in a practical, economic sense, cost the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania one extra penny; because, as I understand the theory of relief, it is to furnish people who are unemployed milk and food, and to take care of the children who will not be properly nourished otherwise; and as a matter of practical operation, when the Department of Welfare furnishes the milk, that will not add to the cost of the milk; and, it would seem to me, therefore, that those who read this bill carefully will understand that the only function of the bill is to place the control of the milk distributed where it properly belongs—in the Department of Welfare, and that would give to the relief agencies in municipalities the opportunity to report to the Department of Welfare those children in schools who require milk. No discussion by the Committee on Appropriations could solve that problem or arrive at a better understanding of it. This is a bill which provides that the various superintendents of the schools in the various districts have a right to report to the Department of Welfare the names of those undernourished children who require milk; and the Department of Welfare is authorized to set up the procedure by which the milk can be delivered to the needy.

Now, I cannot understand how the Committee on Appropriations can help solve that problem. As far as the matter of the amount of the appropriation is concerned, as I said before, first, it limits the appropriation to a million and a half, secondly it reduces the amount of relief by the amount which will be spent for milk, and will not add a dollar of cost to the relief problem.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I understand the discussion by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is outside the motion. I would like to discuss at some other time the great waste and great bureaucracy which has been built up by centralized relief and similar agencies of the departments at Harrisburg; but that is beside the question now, and, on that motion, I insist that the bill go back to the Committee on Appropriations, in order that they may consider this appropriation feature of it.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 149, recalled from the Governor, as follows:

An Act authorizing the selection of two additional jurors in civil and criminal cases to take the place of any juror or jurors becoming incapacitated

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That if in any trial civil or criminal in any of the courts of common pleas municipal courts and county courts quarter sessions of the peace or oyer and terminer and general jail delivery of any county it is the opinion of the trial judge that the trial is likely to be a protracted one and the district attorney of counsel for the plaintiff or for the defendant or both shall request the selection of two additional jurors as alternates the court shall have power to allow the drawing of two additional jurors such alternate jurors shall be seated near the jury with equal power and facilities for seeing and hearing the proceedings in the case and shall take the same oath as the other jurors selected and must attend at all times upon the trial of the case in company with the other jurors They shall obey the orders of and be bound by the admonitions of the courts upon each adjournment of the courts but if the regular jurors are ordered to be kept in custody during the trial of the case such alternate jurors shall also be kept in confinement with the other jurors and except as hereinafter provided shall be discharged upon the final submission of the case to the jury Such alternate jurors shall be drawn from the same source in the same manner and have the same qualifications as the other jurors drawn and be subject to the same examinations but shall not retire with the jury of twelve after the case is submitted to it unless one or two of the jurors in the opinion of the trial judge shall have died or become ill so as to be unable to perform their duty or discharged for other legal cause in which case the thirteenth juror shall take the place of the first juror becoming incapacitated and the fourteenth juror shall take the place of the second juror becoming incapacitated Such juror or jurors so taking the place of any incapacitated juror or jurors shall thereafter be deemed to be members of the jury of twelve and shall have full power to take part in the deliberations of the jury and the finding of the verdict Any verdict found by any such jury having thereon alternates shall have the same force effect and validity as if found by the original jury of twelve

Where the court allows two alternate jurors in accordance with this act each side shall have one additional peremptory challenge in the selection of said two alternate jurors

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in order to correct a typographical error, I ask unanimous consent to amend Section 1, page 1, line 9, by striking out after the word "attorney" the word "of" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 31, as follows:

be so construed as to relieve or exempt him it or them from paying the said six mills tax on any of the said such securities bonds or other evidences of indebtedness as may be held owned by or owing to the said savings institution having no capital stock And provided further That the provisions of this act shall not apply to fire companies firemen's relief associations life or fire insurance corporations having no capital stock secret and beneficial societies labor unions and labor union relief associations and all beneficial organizations paying sick or death benefits or either or both from funds received from voluntary contributions or assessments upon members of such associations societies or unions And provided further That corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations liable to a franchise tax or a tax on capital stock for State purposes shall not be required to pay any further tax under this section on the mortgages bonds and other securities owned by them in their own right but corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations holding such securities as trustees executors administrators guardians or in any other manner shall be liable for the tax imposed by this section upon all securities so held by them as in the case of individuals And provided further That none of the classes of property made taxable by this section for State purposes shall be taxed or taxable for county school or other local purposes

It is the intent of this act that all scrip bonds certificates and evidences of indebtedness made taxable under this section are not taxable under the third section of this act and that only such scrip bonds certificates and evidences of indebtedness which cannot be made taxable under this section are to be taxed under the third section of this act

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move to amend section 20, page 25, line 7, by inserting after the word "company" the following: "nor to interest-bearing accounts in any bank, banking institution, savings institution or trust company."

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third and twenty-fourth sections of the bill were read as follows and agreed to:

Section 21 Collection of Tax The tax for State purposes imposed upon obligations of private and public corporations by section twenty of this act shall be collected in the same manner as the tax heretofore imposed for State purposes upon such obligations it being the true intent and meaning of this act that the provisions of the law in force at the time of the passage of this act relating to the manner of the collection of the State tax upon such obligations shall remain unaffected by this act

Section 22 Constitutional Construction If any section sentence clause or part of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional sentence section clause or part thereof not been included herein

Section 23 Act of Assembly Repealed The act approved the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred seven) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment and collection of the same providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes" and all amendments thereto is hereby repealed but the provisions of this act as far as they are the same as those of existing laws shall be construed as a continuation of such laws and not as new enactments. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as reviving any act repealed by the act which this act repeals and nothing contained in this section shall be construed as relieving any person association or corporation from any taxes penalties and interest imposed for the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and prior years under the provisions of any act or parts of acts repealed by this act or to prevent the collection of such taxes penalties and interest due under such repealed acts in the manner provided in such acts

Section 24 Effective Date This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 693 (House Bill No. 132), on second reading, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the employment of miners in the bituminous coal mines unless certificated after examination by a miners examining board providing for the appointment of such boards and defining their powers and duties and providing penalties be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, explain his reason for asking that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would be very glad to. Several people came to me and said, that certain amendments should be made to this bill and that they desired a hearing, and I discussed it with some of my colleagues here in the Senate. They all think there should be a hearing on the bill and I, therefore, made the motion to recommit the bill for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, my own impression of this bill is that there is nothing technical about it. We had this same situation in the anthracite coal fields for many years. However, if there is a sincere desire to have a hearing and possibly some amendments, I do not know that I have any serious objection to that, but I think that a bill of this importance should not remain buried in committee. I, for one, serve notice that I will not become a party to it. I think the bill should be voted one way or the other. As I have said, I see absolutely nothing that in any way is technical in this bill to anybody. It is simply a question of whether the people that go into the mines shall be protected, whether John Jones has a right to go into the mines, and dig coal, when perhaps he is not a miner at all. The examining board, after giving examination, would determine whether or not he is qualified to go into the mines and risk the safety of others who perhaps are miners. That is all there is to this.

If there is a sincere thought that there should be a public hearing, I, as Chairman of the Judiciary Special Committee, will take the matter up with the committee this afternoon, and will arrange for a very early date to have that public hearing granted.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have a friend in the Department of Mines who criticizes the structure of this bill because he is an anthracite miner and not a bituminous miner. I would like to take the Senator from Schuylkill through the Department of Mines for an unofficial inspection to see whether the structure of the bill cannot be improved. I am very much interested in this bill because it recalls the fight over the anthracite miner's certificate, and I often wonder that the Lieutenant Governor would even speak to me, because I made the suggestion for miner's certificates. The real purpose of the bill, as everybody knows is that nobody but union men can strip coal from the earth, and I am for it myself.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I merely want to say that the sincerity of my motion is evidenced by the fact, I think, that I moved to put it back in the same committee that reported it out. The bituminous section of the State, I understand, want to be heard in this matter and if there is such a large interest who want to be heard, I think it is only fair that they should be.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I wish to disagree with my friend, Senator Woodward, of Philadelphia, that this is an effort to tie up the mining interests so that only union men can be employed. This is a safety measure. It provides that a man must be qualified to dig coal before he is permitted to do so. It also provides that the miner pay for the certificate himself. It puts no expense on the operator, on the miners' organizations, or on the consumer. The entire expense is borne by the man himself who receives the certificate. It is sound logic that the man having the certificate to be a miner possesses certain qualifications and would mine coal with greater safety to himself and the associates with whom he works. I just want to correct the idea that it is not for an ulterior purpose.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information, but before putting the point of information, I wish to interrogate the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, be interrogated?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, willingly.

Mr. CAVALACANTE. Mr. President, did the Committee on Judiciary Special deny any part of the public a hearing on this bill?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, no, there have been no requests for a hearing.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, did the Committee on Judiciary Special wholly and seriously consider the bill before reporting it to this Senate?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I will state that the Committee on Judiciary Special as it is now constituted, in my humble opinion, gives serious and earnest consideration to every measure that is brought before the committee for its attention.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, know of any request for a public hearing other than those which he has heard on the floor of this Senate?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, last evening I had three requests for public hearings, but not from the Senators.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, very much.

Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, before putting my point of information.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, gladly.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, say to this Senate that the requests for public hearing were received by him?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, no, I do not think that has been the practice. The committee Chairman told this Senate that he has had three requests for a hearing last evening.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, say to this Senate the date on which he received these requests for a public hearing?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the requests were not made to me, I am not Chairman of this committee. I was merely advised that hearings were desired on this bill, and in discussing the matter with some of my colleagues, they suggested in view of the fact that there are bituminous mines in my district, that I request that the bill should be recommitted for such a hearing.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, when this bill came up last Wednesday for second reading, the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Graff, offered a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

The Journal of that date shows that when the motion was offered, it met with opposition, after some deliberation, however, the motion was withdrawn and another motion was agreed to sending the bill over in its order. My point of information is this: If during the consideration of this bill, a member of this Senate should leave his designated seat and in answer to inquiries by lobbyists standing without the enclosure reserved for Senators, he should make the following statement.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I submit that the discussion of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is out of order. This is a motion to recommit, and it is not open to discussion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands that while this is a motion to recommit, that the point referred to by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, has to do with that motion to recommit, and does not take into consideration the merits of the bill. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, may proceed.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would ask that the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, postpone his motion for the present, and I ask that the rule of the Senate be read.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order raised with respect to the statement of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, has to do with the recommitting of the bill. Under the rules of the Senate, as the Chair understands, debate is limited to a narrow sphere. The merits of the bill are not to be debated, in the judgment of the Chair. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is not debating the merits of the bill, he is debating the question to recommit, and so far has been privileged to continue in that vein, and, therefore, the Chair ruled he was not out of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of information.

Mr. SHAPIRO. On the motion of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, I inquire what the rules require to overrule the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands that an appeal from the decision of the Chair requires four seconders.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the appeal.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the appeal.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the appeal.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I second the appeal.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, there seems to be a dispute about very little, nevertheless, this appeal, I submit, must be in writing when submitted to the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the appeal must be in writing.

RECESS

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, thirty Senators voted in the affirmative and thirteen in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, at the request of some of my Democratic colleagues, I desire to withdraw the appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

The PRESIDENT. The appeal is withdrawn.

The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is recognized. The Chair would say, as a matter of parliamentary information, that both sides in discussing motions to recommit have strayed far afield, and the Chair would ask that hereafter the speakers confine their remarks to the motion before the Senate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will again restate my point of information on the motion to recommit this bill: If during the consideration of this bill and the motion to recommit, a member of this Senate should leave his designated seat——

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, will state his point of order.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, has arisen on a question of information, and I submit that it is his duty to submit the question of information. I further want to raise the point against the Senator from Fayette that he is not allowed on this kind of a request from the Chair to criticize the members in any manner. I raise the point that he should immediately state his question of information to the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, is absolutely right, and the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, should transmit whatever information he has bearing on the recommitment of this bill to the Senate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to state my point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is not aware of the kind of information that is desired, but in discussing the question to recommit the Senator from Fayette should transmit to the Senate any information he has bearing on the question to recommit.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, that is exactly what I intend to do, and I shall be kind enough to each and every member of this Senate not to mention any names unless I be requested to do so in submitting my point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will proceed.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I shall start again: if, during the consideration of this bill on the motion to recommit, a member of this Senate should leave his designated seat, and in answer to inquiries by lobbyists standing without the enclosure reserved for Senators, he should make the following statement; "Will send it back to the committee Monday night for permanent interment," is this conduct to be regarded as derogative and detrimental to the integrity of this Senate, and if so, would it be an abuse of personal privilege to expose the offending member?

Now, Mr. President, I intend to have great regard for the integrity of this body. I have submitted a point of order, and if those who are interested in the recommital of this bill can assure this body that the purpose of recommittal is not for permanent interment, I will be very glad to withdraw my point of information.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, wish to answer the point?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not know what there is for me to answer on such a wild statement as that.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I submit that the Senator from Fayette has requested information from the Chair, and I suggest he is entitled to an answer.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair can only re-state the message delivered to the Senate by the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary Special, who made a statement that if it is sent to his committee for a hearing, he would not be a party to any "pickling" of that legislation. That substantially is the statement of the Chairman of the Committee, as I got it, and is the only information that the Chair can relay to the Senate.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I have been a member of this body for eight sessions, and one of the things that is most desirable is a full, free and public discussion of all matters of legislation. Time and time again I have asked for public hearings and that bills be recommitted for the purpose of public hearings.

I have absolute faith in the honesty of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, when he asks that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special. If he had any ulterior motives, if he desired to kill this bill, he would ask that it be sent to the Committee on Labor. There is a very grave question as to whether or not this bill should not have been sent to the Committee on Labor, or Mines and Mining. Now, in view of the fact that the Senator has made this request, I think it is the duty all of us to grant this request for a hearing before the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I just want to add my voice to what has been said by the Senator who has just seated. It has been the rule of this Senate for many years that when a request has been made for a hearing, that it be granted, and, for my part, this one is reasonable. I am for this bill—it is precisely as it is in the anthracite region, and I think we should have certificates granted to miners, but the request has been made here for a hearing, and I am for a hearing.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. I will be pleased to be interrogated by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, as this bill is now in possession and on the floor of the Senate for consideration, does the Senator from Allegheny think that this Senate is entitled to know the names of those who are seeking a public hearing on the bill?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I have never heard of that in my eight sessions as a member of this body. It is the first time that question has been raised.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I thank the Sentaor from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion to recommit?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. THOMPSON. (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). This measure that we have just last voted upon is a matter of very great public consequence to a district like my own. While I hesitate to vote against the recommital of the bill for the purpose of a public hearing, because, after all, my voice will largely be found in favor of a public hearing, but I think sometimes a recommitment of bills is not given the proper consideration, and I would suggest on a matter such as this, where there is such a very vital public issue, that in order to avoid some of the unpleasantness that is forced upon some of us, that perhaps a way might be devised to hold these bills on the calendar pending a public hearing, rather than to recommit them to committees for that purpose. I offer that entirely as a suggestion, without any debate on the matter whatsoever.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceed to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 739 (House Bill No. 169), entitled:

An Act to validate certain proceedings improvements municipal assessments municipal claims and municipal liens in the several cities of the third class boroughs and townships of the first class of this Commonwealth and validating such improvements assessments claims and liens providing for the filing of claims and liens therefore and the proceedings for the collection of such assessments claims and liens

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. NORTON from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as amended, the following Resolution:

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1935.

Whereas, A number of bills have been introduced in the House and Senate having a single purpose—to provide for the abatement of penalties and interest, in whole or in part, on delinquent taxes if these delinquent taxes are paid; and

Whereas, Taxpayers should be encouraged to pay their taxes in order that government may function, and legislation should be adopted at the earliest possible time to spur delinquent taxpayers to use every effort possible to pay their taxes; and

Whereas, Bills have passed the Senate and repose in House committees, bills have passed the House and repose in Senate committees, others are on the calendars and still others are in committee awaiting committee action; and

Whereas, It is apparent that confusion exists not only between the House and Senate as to the proper measure to be adopted, but as well among Members of the same House in passing more than one bill to accomplish substantially the same object; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker appoint five Members of the House, and the President pro tem of the Senate appoint five Members of the Senate, who together shall constitute a special committee, whose duty it shall be to draft a new bill or select an introduced bill, either House or Senate, which in its present or an amended form the committee deems to be a proper measure on the subject of abating penalties and interest on delinquent taxes, and to make report thereof to the Senate and House of Representatives as early as possible.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions lie on the table one day be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. On behalf of the President Pro Tempore, the Chair announces as said Committee on the part of the Senate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, and the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, April 2, 1935

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend J. N. Faust, pastor of Lechey's Reformed Charge, Spring Grove, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, searcher of hearts, guide of all who place their trust in Thee, ruler of States and nations. We thank Thee for the blessings Thou hast bestowed upon the people of our state and nation in the times of prosperity. We bless Thee for the guidance of our rulers in times of stress and grave responsibilities. We praise Thee for the spirit of Thy Love that is giving the spirit of true loyalty that people may enjoy the blessings from Thy Fatherly hand, through obedience to the laws of the state and the laws of God.

Look mercifully upon this assembly bowed in the spirit of worship, waiting for guidance and wisdom from God that they may legislate aright for the best interests of the people of our commonwealth. Give to each one a full sense of responsibility toward their fellowman and toward God.

Bless the President of the United States; the members of our national congress; the governor of our state and all members of the state legislature. Bless the people of our state and of our nation that they will be obedient to law as Jesus taught obedience when he said, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesars and unto God the things that are God's". This we ask in the spirit of the love of the Triune God. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. JOHN E. BROWN (Concurrent).

RESOLUTION No. 109.

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly is required to recognize the urgent need of $5,000,000 of additional revenue not later than April 15th to meet the requirements of the Federal Emrgency Relief Administration for further Federal funds; and

Whereas, If the present custom is followed, but six legislative days intervene before that time, thus making it impossible to pass the necessary legislation; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives remain in continuous session, without adjournment, until the necessary revenue measures have been passed to meet the need recited in the preamble hereof.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By MR. HORST (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 110.

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, A number of investigating committees have been created by the House of Representatives to investigate the affairs of local relief boards in particular counties; and

Whereas, It is apparent, from the widespread dissatisfaction, that some inherent defect exists in the present system of relief distribution, and that enormous sums of public money are being expended and are requested for the next fiscal biennium when no taxpayer appears to be assured that such expenditures are actually needed; and

Whereas, Taxpayers are demanding that the light of publicity be thrown upon the whole system of distributing public relief and that some system be devised to cull from the list of recipients of relief those who are unworthy, those who abuse the aid extended to them, and those who paint false pictures of economic conditions in order to fasten a dole system, foreign to American traditions, on the body politic; and

Whereas, The system of investigating relief distribution in particular localities, while beneficial to the locality affected, fails to approach the task of placing relief upon a sound State-wide business basis, whereby red tape may be eliminated and those actually in need aided in a manner suitable to an American citizen; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall each appoint three members of their respective Houses, whose duty it shall be (a) to make a searching and impartial study and investigation of the distribution of public relief throughout this Commonwealth, (b) to ascertain whether, and in what respect, the present system is open to abuse, (c) to ascertain whether additional legal safeguards should be provided, (d) to ascertain whether appropriations for relief may be reduced, (e) to collate and digest reports of other investigating committees, and (f) to investigate such other facts and circumstances as may be deemed necessary and advisable to enable the General Assembly to act with some degree of certainty and establish an impartial, unpolitical, unwasteful, and business system of aiding those of our unfortunates in need and eradicating and punishing those who take advantage of distressing economic conditions for their personal, selfish ends, whether as recipients of relief or as distributors thereof.

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report of its findings to this General Assembly as early as possible.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

RESOLUTIONS

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO DESIGNATE GENERAL PULASKI MEMORIAL DAY

Mr. BARBER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, A resolution providing for the President of the United States of America to proclaim October 11th of each year as "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" for the observance and commemoration of the death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, is now pending in the present session of the United States Congress; and

Whereas, The 11th day of October, 1779, is the date in American history of the heroic death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, who died from wounds received on October 9, 1779, at the siege of Savannah, Georgia; and

Whereas, The States of Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and other States of the Union, through legislative enactment, designated October 11th of each year as "General Pulaski's Memorial Day;" and

Whereas, It is fitting that the recurring anniversary of this day be commemorated with suitable patriotic and public exercises in observing and commemorating the heroic death of this great American hero of the Revolutionary War; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States of America has, by legislative enactment, designated October 11th, 1929, October 11th, 1931; October 11th, 1932; and October 11th, 1934, to be "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" in the United States of America; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and petition the Congress of the United States to pass, and the President of the United States to approve, if passed, the "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" resolution now pending in the United States Congress;

Resolved, That certified copies of this resolution, properly authenticated, be sent forthwith to the President of the United States, the Vice-President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and each of the United States Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS

Mr. ROONEY offered resolution which was twice read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Resolved, That the Committee on Ways and Means be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 722, entitled "An act providing for the levy and collection of a tax upon sales of tangible personal property at retail for school purposes; requiring vendors to be licensed and imposing duties on vendors; imposing duties on county treasurers, on the fiscal officers and agencies of the Commonwealth, and on the Department of Public Instruction; prescribing penalties; making appropriations of the proceeds of said tax, and prohibiting school districts receiving proceeds from said tax from levying taxes on real property and other subjects of taxation except to pay funded indebtedness;" said bill having been in the hands of said Committee ten days and more, having been committed to said Committee February 12th, 1935.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rooney?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rooney, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROONEY. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he at any time consulted either with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, or the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman, who was the acting chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, during Mr. Ruth's illness, and expressed his desire to have this bill reported out of committee?

Mr. ROONEY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, I think that from February 12th until now, a period of two months, was sufficient time for your committee to go over this bill.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask that the gentleman from Allegheny give an answer to the question which I ask him?

The SPEAKER. That is a matter for the gentleman himself, what answer he wishes to make.

Mr. ROONEY. Mr. Speaker, I think I gave the gentleman a proper answer to his question.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask again, did the gentleman at any time consult with Mr. Ruth or with Mr. Furman and express to them his desire to have this bill reported out of committee?

Mr. ROONEY. I did not, Mr. Speaker, but I think that by my offering this bill it was sufficient when I presented it to the clerk, that your Committee should have gone over the bill, looked it over and given us a chance to vote on it.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman how many bills he has presented?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. The question asked is not pertinent to the question now before the House.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rooney, whether he has done anything in an effort to have those bills reported out of committee or have this bill reported out of committee except to file this motion now?

RESOLUTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. ROONEY. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my resolution and offer my bill again next Monday to the Ways and Means Committee of this House.

TO EXTEND PRIVILEGE OF FLOOR

Mr. BURKE offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, The members of the House of Representatives desire to extend to the executive officers of the Commonwealth, and their immediate subordinates; and past members of the House and their families, the privilege of being on the floor of the Hall of the House; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Chief Sergeant-at-Arms be directed to admit the executive officers of the Commonwealth and their immediate subordinates; past members of the House and their families, to the Hall of the House and if seats are not available, such persons may stand at the rear of the Hall of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will direct the Clerk to read Rule No. 91, which we adopted and which contains practically all that is contained in this resolution with few exceptions.

The Clerk read Rule of the House No. 91 as follows:

"None but members of the Senate, their officers, the Governor and heads of the State departments, Judges of the courts of this Commonwealth, and families of the members of the present House and Senate, former members of the Legislature when introduced by a member of the present House and others who may be especially introduced by a member, by permission of the Speaker, shall be permitted to come upon the floor of the House during its session; and no person shall be permitted to occupy the seats of the members; or interrupt a member by speaking to him in his seat, while the House is in session; and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-of-Arms to give notice to any person offending against this rule."

The SPEAKER. The Chair very much deplores the introduction of this resolution, because if it is passed it would break down everything that we accomplished a week ago in the way of preserving order. However, if the House wishes to pass it that is up to the House. The House is its own boss.

RESOLUTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to withdraw the resolution.

RESOLUTION NO. 79

Mr. SHREINER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 79, Printer's No. 450.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 5, 1935.

Whereas, The present session of the General Assembly is composed of members elected from political parties which have all gone on record as favoring legislation protecting the rights of labor and labor organizations; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the administrative authorities in charge of the printing for the Commonwealth be urged to have printed all stationery, envelopes and other desk materials used by the various branches of the Executive, Judicial and Legislative Departments of the State Government, in printing shops that can furnish the Allied Printing Trades Council Label or Typographical Union Label and that such labels be displayed thereon.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 96

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 96, Printer's No. 419.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 19, 1935.

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board expends large sums of money for the purchase of supplies, which if expended for Pennsylvania products will afford work for the unemployed and lessen expenditures for unemployment relief, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives requests the State Emergency Relief Board to specify, wherever possible, in its purchase of supplies for distribution to the unemployed, products of Pennsylvania manufacture where such products are equal in quality and not in excess of the price of products manufactured in other states.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Mr. ANDREWS in the Chair.

NAYS—2

Blumberg, Hagerty,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 751, entitled:

An Act relating to the business of selling or leasing furniture and household articles on the installment or deferred payment plan and prohibiting the joining in one agreement of sale or lease of articles purchased or leased at different times

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill state to the House what his object is in presenting it.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the bill seems to be very well expressed in the act. It applies merely to the business of selling and leasing furniture and household articles. It has been customary if a certain party were to buy a suite of furniture, to put that on a bailment lease. This suite being about paid for the party would attempt to buy another one, probably six or seven months later. That is also placed on the old bailment lease, and in the case of failure to pay on the last lease it has been the practice to take over the old and the new suite. This bill is an attempt to remedy that, forbidding the placing of more than one sale on a bailment lease.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. WELLIVER

Mr. WELLIVER asked and obtained consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, forty years ago I represented my district in this House and they claim I burned the capitol down. I want to say that I have a friend here that was with me forty years ago. I thought I was the only one who was resurrected from the dead to come back here, but I have a visitor here by the name of B. W. Dambly, who served with me in the House forty years ago. It is a pleasure to meet him today. I thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be very glad if the gentleman from Montour will present the gentleman to the members of the House.

Mr. WELLIVER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have the privilege of introducing a gentleman who has come back to life forty years after he served as a member in this House. He was a member when I was a member. The question arises, who burned the Capitol, he or I. I wish to introduce my friend, Mr. Dambly of Montgomery County, who will say a word to you.

REMARKS BY HON. B. W. DAMBLY

Mr. B. W. DAMBLY. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, I had the honor of serving in this House under two administrations,—part of two administrations, that of Governor Patterson and of Governor Daniel H. Hastings, so that I am absolutely nonpartisan. I saw Governor Hastings back yonder plant a sapling about an inch and a half in circumference. What is now the Museum was then the Executive Office. On Arbor Day, which was then a new institution in Pennsylvania, Governor Hastings came down from his office, and with a spade and shovel.—a spade or some other tool in his hand, and planted that poplar there. It is now sixteen to eighteen inches in diameter.

So, I might reminisce, but I will not confess to setting the Capitol on fire. I thought that honor was reserved for Senator Saylor of Montgomery County, who is still living. I won't take that honor from Senator Saylor, but I am willing to leave it in the hands of the gentleman from Montour County, Judge Welliver.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to thank the gentleman from Montgomery County, Mr. Dambly, for his kind remarks to the members of the House.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1461, as follows:

An Act To further amend section six hundred and fourteen of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred five) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" by extending the period of revocation of operating privilege for operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic or habit producing drugs

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section six hundred and fourteen of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred five) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" as amended by section two of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred fifty-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 614 Revocation of Operating Privilege

(a) The secretary shall forthwith revoke for a period of one (1) year from the date of revocation for the first offense for a period of two (2) years from the date of revocation for the second offense and for a period of three years from the date of revocation for the third offense and each subsequent offense the operating privilege of any person upon receiving a certified record from the clerk of the court of proceedings in which such person pleaded guilty entered a plea of nolo contendere or was found guilty by a jury of the crime of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any narcotic or habit producing drug

[(a)] (b) The secretary shall forthwith revoke for a period of one (1) year from date of revocation the operating privilege of any person upon receiving a certified record from the clerk of the court of proceedings in which such person pleaded guilty entered a plea of nolo contendere or was found guilty by a jury of any of the following crimes

1 [Operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any narcotic or habit producing drug or permitting] Permitting any person who may be under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic or habit producing drug to operate any motor vehicle owned by him or in his custody or control

2 Using a false or fictitious name or giving a false or fictitious address in any application or form required under the provisions of this act or knowingly making a false statement or knowingly concealing a material fact or otherwise committing a fraud in any application

3 Any crime punishable as a felony under the motor vehicle laws of this Commonwealth or any other felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used

4 Conviction of an operator of a motor vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury or death to any person or damage to property upon the charge of failing to stop and render assistance or disclose his identity at the scene of the accident

[(b)] (c) The secretary upon receiving a certified record from the clerk of the court of the conviction of any person upon a charge of operating a motor vehicle while the operator's license or learner's permit of such person is revoked shall immediately extend the period of such first revocation for an additional like period

[(c)] (d) The secretary upon revoking any operator's license or learner's permit shall require that such license of any operator whose license or permit is so revoked shall immediately be surrendered to and retained by the department

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Flinchbaugh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Flinchbaugh, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand by Section b on page 4, from line 10 on, that this makes the owner of a car responsible for all of the operators that he may have under him whom he may have employed?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I didn't hear the gentleman. What line was that?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, this is on page 4 of the bill. Commencing on line 10, it strikes out the following: "Operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any narcotic or habit producing drug or permitting." Then it adds: "Permitting any person who may be under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic or habit producing drug to operate any motor vehicle owned by him or in his custody or control."

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, the words "any person who may be under the influence of intoxicating liquor" apply to persons who permit any one wilfully, knowing them to be under the influence of liquor. In answer to the gentleman who has just interrogated me, "permitting any person who may be under the influence of intoxicating liquor," of course, applies when they allow knowingly and wilfully any one who is under the influence of liquor to operate a car.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, it doesn't say "knowingly" in the bill, and my impression is that if this bill becomes a law, operators like Martz, or these fellows running big busses, if one of their drivers happens to become intoxicated or influenced by a drug, they become responsible for the action of that operator, that they would lose their license, due to the action of the chauffeur.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, I want to say that the act, I think, is sufficiently clear. It means knowingly permitting any person under the influence. If I give my car to some one to drive and he afterwards becomes intoxicated without my knowledge, naturally I wouldn't be responsible.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that there is great danger of a wrong interpretation of the act. It doesn't say "knowingly" here, and it may get some owner of a car into serious trouble. I can not see my way clear to vote for it.

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the act reads: "permitting any person * * * to operate." Then after the words "any person" are found the words "who may be under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic or habit producing drug." This clause modifies the word "person," so that the person must be under the influence of that intoxicating liquor or narcotic. If a man permits a person to operate his car who is not under that influence, then he is not responsible. If he permits a person to operate the car while under the influence, then he is responsible. That clause modifies the word "person," and the word "permitting" would take care of the objection of the gentleman.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of this bill to explain its provisions?

Mr. FITCH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is for the purpose of rectifying a mistake that has been made so far as a first class city is concerned, and giving to the firemen and the protected employees of the city of Philadelphia the same privilege that they have in second and third class cities.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 28, entitled:

An Act to amend article nine of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by adding a new section thereto for protecting the safety of the public by prohibiting the operation of certain commercial motor vehicles on Sundays and legal holidays between the hours of nine o'clock ante meridian and nine o'clock post meridian.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Highways for the purpose of a hearing.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 528, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred and ten of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds," changing the dates when registrations may be made for less than the full yearly fee.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 883, entitled:

An Act to amend section twelve of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1237) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" providing for the annulment of void and voidable marriages.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill to explain it.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the present divorce code provides for annulment only in cases of bigamy. The bill before the House provides for annulment of void and voidable mariages. In Newlin's Estate and Pitcairn and Pitcairn, and a number of cases in Pennsylvania, it was decided that void mariages could not be annulled unless the cause was bigamy, and the purpose of the bill is to correct the existing error in the law and permit annulment on grounds that under the law are recognized by the courts as reasons to declare a marriage void.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, if this is going to make more business for the lawyers?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, this bill will tend to make less business for lawyers, because at the present time, if a marriage is void on the ground of insanity or fraud or some other reason, and the parties fail to live together, or if they live together and one dies, then the lawyer makes plenty in the settlement of the estate and having the marriage adjudicated, in the Orphans Court, as void.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the members of this House should give the sponsor of this bill, being a lawyer, a vote of thanks.

The SPEAKER. Thanks are extended to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1935 No. 39

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1935

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Preserve us, O God, from undue self-reliance. We desire to be manly men—men who have confidence in their own powers of thought and judgment. Yet, in making supreme decisions and passing judgment upon questions of vital importance to ourselves and our fellow men, we need to rely upon the wisdom and discretion of Him who is the source of all mental and spiritual discernment.

Make these men willing to be so led by Thy great mind and heart that the actions taken by them during these days of law enactment may be such as to challenge criticism. When we are on Thy side and Thou art on our side we can meet the adverse opinions of opposition with silent confidence in the righteousness of our cause.

May every action of this Senate be rooted and grounded in faith in Thee, the Great Giver of all good laws. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WOODWARD, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Which was committed to the Committee on Municipal Government.

RESOLUTION GRANTING USE OF SENATE CHAMBER FOR A PUBLIC HEARING

Mr. STAUDENMEIER offered the fololwing resolution, which was read twice, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 3, 1935.

Resolved, That the use of the Senate Chamber be granted to the Senate Judiciary Special Committee, Tuesday afternoon, April sixteen, at 2 P. M., for the purpose of a public hearing.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO INVESTIGATION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA LIQUOR CONTROL ACT

Mr. REED (Dauphin) offered the following resolution, which was read twice read:

In the Senate, April 3, 1935.

Whereas, Administration of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act of 1933 has been the subject of considerable discussion throughout the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, It is essential that the Senate of Pennsylvania ascertain facts with relation to the method of handling the liquor business in Pennsylvania during the past two years, and whether the present system can be improved upon, and

Whereas, It is the desire to put into operation the best possible method by which the purchase and distribution of liquor can be effected in Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, It is deemed advisable to create a committee to study from time to time as occasion may arise, the question of the purchase and sale of liquor in the Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate be and he is hereby authorized to appoint a special committee of five Senators to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough inquiry for the benefit of the Senate in considering proposed legislation into the matters aforesaid and all others having any bearing thereon which may come to the notice of said Committee; and be it further

Resolved, That such committee shall have authority to call upon such of the members of the Senate as are learned in the law in prosecution of the inquiry and ascertainment of the facts for the information of the Senate and to require of any officers of the Senate such service as may be necessary to the same end,

That the said Committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the Committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the Committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said Committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

That the said Committee shall make report of its finding to the Senate as occasion requires.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The Chair hears objection. The Resolution will be referred to the Committee on State Government.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE FEDERAL RE-EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, Much complaint is made that the Federal Re-Employment Service in this State has not been complying with the terms of the legislation under which the service was created, and that its failure to comply with these terms has worked great hardship in connection with the employment of citizens of this State; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three Members of the House, who, together, shall constitute a legislative committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the Federal Re-Employment Service in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a view of ascertaining whether such service is or is not complying with the terms of the legislation under which it was created and such other facts and circumstances in connection with the administration of said service as the committee deems proper for the information of the General Assembly;

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly as early as may be;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The Chair hears objection. The Resolution will be referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

RECESS

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

HOUSE MESSAGE

GENERAL PULASKI'S MEMORIAL DAY

April 2, 1935.

Whereas, A resolution providing for the President of the United States of America to proclaim October 11th of each year as "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" for the observance and commemoration of the death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, is now pending in the present session of the United States Congress; and

Whereas, The 11th day of October, 1779, is the date in American history of the heroic death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, who died from wounds received on October 9, 1779, at the siege of Savannah, Georgia; and

Whereas, The States of Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and other States of the Union, through legislative enactment, designated October 11th of each year as "General Pulaski's Memorial Day;" and

Whereas, It is fitting that the recurring anniversary of this day be commemorated with suitable patriotic and public exercises in observing and commemorating the heroic death of this great American hero of the Revolutionary War; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States of America has, by legislative enactment, designated October 11, 1934, to be "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" in the United States of America; now, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and petition the Congress of the United States to pass, and the President of the United States to approve, if passed, the "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" resolution now pending in the United States Congress;

Resolved, That certified copies of this resolution, properly authenticated, be sent forthwith to the President of the United States, the Vice-President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and each of the United States Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this morning the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, introduced a resolution for the investigation of the Emergency Relief System, in Pennsylvania. At least, I understood it was on the subject of Emergency Relief, but I am now told it is on the matter of reemployment service. The resolution was held over because it is difficult to get the full purport of it at this time, and I want to say I am not opposed to it. On the question of Emergency Relief, however, it occurs to me that there was a bill on the calendar of this Senate a few weeks ago, the purpose of which was the restoration of the administration of this relief to the several counties of the Commonwealth. That bill met with some objection as to the form in which it was drawn, and it was sent back to the proper committee for the purpose of amendment. I understand that there are now in some of the committees similar bills the purpose of which is to restore the administration of Emergency Relief, or Unemployment Relief, to the counties; and it is my opinion that this question of the administration of this relief is of more importance than the tax program or any other question before this Legislature.

I have no doubt that the new Director of Emergency Relief is a capable official, who will use his best efforts to bring some order out of the existing chaos and to remedy some of the glaring defects in the present arrangements; but I am firmly of the opinion that no man will be able to cope with the great bureaucratic system which has grown up, demoralizing the whole State and wrecking our financial security.

The reports of the waste in this present system are almost unbelievable. I recognize the fact that it will be necessary for us to appropriate moneys to continue the payments for Unemployment Relief. Everyone recognizes that fact. But I think we have made the mistake of treating this present emergency as something greater than it really is. Similar emergencies have come in all ages, many of them perhaps as great in degree. But, granting that this emergency is greater than those which have come upon us in the past, it does not follow that the methods of dealing with it are dissimilar from those used in other times.

In looking at a text book which was used during college days, a book written by Professor Arthur Hadley, of Connecticut, an economist of Yale University, and former labor commissioner,—I believe this book was first published in 1896, and a reprint of it was made some years later, when I attended college—Professor Hadley points out that the very same methods which we are using today to cope with this unemployment relief were used in England a century ago, and they proved so exceedingly disastrous that it took England over half a century to eradicate the evil effects of that system.

Now, I have here a quotation from the President of these United States, contained in one of his recent messages, or addresses, in which he says:

"The lessons of history, confirmed by the evidence immediately before me, show conclusively that continued dependence upon relief induces a spiritual and moral disintegration fundamentally destructive to the national fibre. To dole out relief in this way is to administer a narcotic, a subtle destroyer of the human spirit. It is inimical to the dictates of sound policy. It is in violation of the traditions of America."

Now, of course, the views which Professor Hadley has expressed as to the conditions in England, and the views which President Roosevelt has expressed in this quotation, would find little support from modern professors and economists and paid charity workers who have never had to face the problem of finding work for others or of meeting a payroll every two weeks. Most of them pay little or no taxes, and their ideas of charity take no account of the tax burden. The Secretary of Welfare under Governor Pinchot emphasized their view point when she said "We now recognize that in order to take care of the individual in trouble we must have a larger vision than that of the borough or township official whose primary concern has been to spend as little as possible."

Apparently, partly in order to help perpetuate the impossible bureaucratic monstrosity that has grown up, the Department of Welfare made a survey of relief expenditures under the various systems. Doubtless some poor boards, under the first Talbot Act, did not function perfectly in all respects, but I believe the report of the department very unfair to the many faithful officials throughout the State who labored sincerely to put that act into effect. How superior the system in force under the original plan was to that now in vogue may be seen from the fact that in the first year $10,000,000 sufficed for the whole State, during which time no person really went hungry; and now the expenditures run about $20,000,000 per month. Granting that some more relief may now be necessary than formerly, this enormous increase can only be accounted for by the inherent defects in the system.

In my opinion these defects can only be cured by cutting up the system by the roots. I dissent strongly from the view that local authorities do not have sufficient sympathy to manage the relief. Let us establish a system whereby a responsible board, created as you may, in each county, shall be given full charge with as little dictation from Harrisburg as possible, to administer the relief; a board whose members can be held responsible for their work and who shall fully account for the performance of their trust.

When the change from the first Talbot Act was made, some of us protested. Perhaps we are to blame for not more strongly opposing the imposition on us of the beginning of the new system. How it would build itself into a great bureaucracy of the present proportions, we did not fully realize. However, though we might be guiltless of what has already happened, we can no longer relieve ourselves of blame if we continue to countenance this iniquity. It would be little short of criminal to allow it to exist longer. Let us get together without regard to party and save our State from further demoralization so far as lies in our power; let us agree on some system which will wipe out this bureaucratic monstrosity.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate, when addressing this Senate on last Wednesday, His Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania said, "And let me point out also that the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator, on Monday last, served notice that Pennsylvania, by April 15th, must meet its fair share of the present approximately $20,000,000 monthly cost of unemployment relief in Pennsylvania by contributing $5,000,000 monthly for unemployment relief."

It is not my purpose, Mr. President, to discuss what taxes should be imposed or whether taxes should be imposed in excess of those now provided by law. It seems to me that the fundamental question which we must consider before imposing taxes is whether the amount mentioned in the budget is necessary at this time. In his Budget Message, before the General Assembly, of February 12th last, Governor Earle gave the following figures:

"We will enter the next biennium with a deficit of almost $50,000,000, which must be met by taxes to be levied during this Administartion. This deficit totals exactly $49,840,952.52."

Of this amount $11,976,777.52 represents the deficit on account of appropriations now in effect; $5,821,175 represents deficiency appropriations recommended, principally subsidies to impoverished school districts; $13,843,000 represents money borrowed from special funds at the last Pinchot special session; and $3,200,000 represents Old Age Assistance and Blind Pensions to the end of this biennium.

These figures total $34,840,952.52, which probably may be regarded as the legacy of the sins of commission and omission of the Pinchot administration, but which must be provided for. A balance of $15,000,000 is for unemployment relief.

The Governor stated that the total amount required for the coming biennium would be $355,656,254. We may pause for a moment to consider the mounting cost of government in Pennsylvania. In 1915, for the first biennium of Governor Brumbaugh, the total appropriation to the General Fund was a little over $67,000,000. In 1923, the first biennium of Governor Pinchot, it had risen to over $114,000,000. In 1931, the first biennium of Governor Pinchot's second administration, it had risen to over $195,000,000. And now we have the colossal sum demanded for government in Pennsylvania of over $355,000,000.

According to the Governor's figures $150,000,000 can be secured under existing law, leaving $205,000,000 to be raised; and of this amount the total for unemployment relief is approximately $135,000,000, leaving $70,000,000 to be raised for expenses of government outside of unemployment relief. When we consider these figures, and the vast amount of increase demanded at this time, it would seem as if the present administration were out-Pinchoting Pinchot in the geometric rise in the expense of government; and I think it might be well for the Democratic Party to consider the immortal words of Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural:

"Let us, then, with courage and confidence, pursue our own federal and republican principles, our attachment to our union and representative government, * * * * entertaining a due sense of our equal right to the use of our own faculties, to the acquisition of our industry, to honor and confidence from our fellow citizens, resulting not from birth, but our actions and their sense of them; enlightened by a benign religion, profound, indeed, and practiced in various forms, yet all of them including honesty, truth, temperance, gratitude, and the love of man, acknowledging and adoring an overruling Providence, which, by all its dispensations, proves that it delights in the happiness of man here, and his greater happiness hereafter; with all these blessings what more is necessary to make us a happy and prosperous people? Still one thing more, fellow citizens—a wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not taken from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicities."

In Pennsylvania we have this situation: By Federal taxation our people are being taxed beyond endurance, to raise money for the Federal Government; and that money is not, in very large proportion at least, returning to Pennsylvania. I have only the figures ending with the year,—the fiscal year ended May 31, 1934, but that shows that for that year the amounts which were received by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the Federal Government totalled $72,100,079, whereas the money contributed by Pennsylvania to the Federal Government, including income taxes of over $66,000,000, miscellaneous internal revenue of over $117,000,000, and agricultural adjustment taxes of over $10,000,000, totalled $193,992,574.

Now, I want, Mr. President, to call the attention of the Senate of Pennsylvania to the divergent views on the question of unemployment relief as expressed in the Republican and Democratic platforms of 1932. The Republican Party stood for this principle:

"True to American traditions and principles of government the administration has regarded the relief problem as one of state and local responsibility. The work of local agencies, public and private, has been coordinated and enlarged on a nation-wide scale under the leadership of the President. Sudden and unforeseen emergencies such as the drought have been met by the Red Cross and the government. The United States Public Health Service has been of inestimable benefit to stricken areas.

"There has been magnificent response and action to relieve distress by citizens, organizations and agencies public and private throughout the country.

"To provide against the possible failure of local and State agencies, the President has urged the Congress to create an emergency relief fund to be loaned temporarily to any State on a showing of actual need and temporary failure of its financial resources."

We find there the position of the Republican Party—that unemployment relief is a State and local matter, and only in emergency, and by temporary loan, should the Federal Government relieve that situation.

But let us turn now to the Democratic platform of 1932, which shows an entirely different theory of government. The Democratic platform, upon which President Roosevelt stood, said:

"We advocate the extension of federal credit to the States to provide unemployment relief wherever the diminishing resources of the states make it impossible for them to provide for the needy; expansion of the federal program of necessary and useful construction affected with a public interest, such as adequate flood control and waterways.

"We advocate the spread of employment by a substantial reduction in the hours of labor, the encouragement of the shorter week by applying that principle in government service. We advocate advance planning of public works.

"We advocate unemployment and old age insurance under State laws."

We see, then, that unemployment and old age insurance should be a matter of State legislation, but the pledge and promise made by the Federal Government is that the Federal Government would take over the matter of unemployment relief and old age insurance upon the credit of the States as the diminishing resources of the States make it impossible to provide for the needy.

I do not find in that platform, Mr. President, that there was any statement made that a State with diminishing resources should put up any sum of money called for—a certain amount over that received from the Federal Government. As I see it, money has been spent in Pennsylvania, and that money was raised by Federal taxes. The statement has been made that approximately one-eighth of the total Federal revenue comes from Pennsylvania; and yet in this hour of need Mr. Hopkins says Federal relief in Pennsylvania will be cut off unless this State guarantees $5,000,000 monthly, and that in face of the fact that this State has been drained dry as a result of Federal taxation.

I ask, therefore, Mr. President, by what authority Mr. Hopkins has made this demand upon Pennsylvania before he will furnish relief to the needy of this State? I am constrained to ask, "Upon what meat doth this Caesar (Mr. Hopkins) feed, that he has grown so great?"

I think there is no question that Mr. Hopkins is merely the representative of the President of the United States. And are we to understand that we have a mandate from the Administration at Washington saying, "All relief will be cut off in Pennsylvania unless new taxes are imposed"? And that in spite of the definite pledge and promise of the Democratic platform that when the diminishing resources of the State require it that money would be furnished solely on the credit of Pennsylvania.

Now, with regard to the $70,000,000 to be raised for the ordinary expenses of Government, I say this: We heard a good deal during the recent campaign to the effect that the expenses of Government would be curtailed; but I happen to be the Chairman of the Committee on State Government, to which amendments to the Administrative Code are proposed, but I have yet to see coming over from the House of Representatives any amendments or any Acts of Assembly which would in any sense curtail this over-heavy bureaucracy which we have in Pennsylvania. And the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, has well pointed out the question that relief administration in Pennsylvania has reached a point of extravagance which must be considered by this Senate.

So I say, Mr. President, before we plan new taxes, or impose new taxes, on the overburdened taxpayers of Pennsylvania, I, for one, want to see what the Democratic Administration is going to do to take out the extravagance which exists in government in Pennsylvania today. I want to be absolutely sure what amount is positively needed for relief in Pennsylvania; and, to follow, I want to know why the Democratic Party does not intend to keep its platform pledge to lend Pennsylvania money as it is needed because the resources of this State have been so sadly diminished by reason of excessive Federal taxation.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I heartily agree with the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, that the most serious problem that confronts this legislature at this moment is that of unemployment relief. I agree with him also that eventually this load should be carried by the counties themselves, but I do not agree with him that the counties are at this moment in a position physically, or in their mechanical make-up in relation to their ability to handle vast sums, such as we would impose upon them at this time, should this load be placed in their laps. There is a question in my mind, as it is in everybody's mind, as to whether or not we can carry this load that is being placed upon us. The twenty million dollars is four times as much as it was in 1932, how many more milions can be added as time goes on, no one can tell.

I am of the opinion, however, that if you deny relief you must substitute a job to everyone who applies. I believe the problem is one that our Governor should take up with the Federal Government, with the view of getting sufficient funds for Pennsylvania to start the projects which we already have on hand, the engineering features of which have already been satisfied. I believe that if we can secure sufficient money from the Federal Government to start these projects, that within, let us say, eight months or a year from now, we should set a dead-line on all relief to the State Emergency Relief Board, and then, in turn, have a mechanical set-up in the counties such as could take care of their own relief load, but I believe before we can do anything to solve this problem we must first get sufficient money to provide jobs for at least 80 per cent of the unemployed in this State. I believe that money would be forthcoming if we definitely told the Federal Government that, say within a year from the time we adjourned, we would dissolve this great unemployment set-up which we have in this State, and place the responsibility back to the counties; but it will be necessary before we can do that to make a set-up in counties such as can take care of their own relief problems.

The indigent poor, of course, before we had this calamity fall upon us could be well taken care of by the counties, because they were not so numerous, but with this great load that is now placed upon us, I am certain in my mind that of the sixty-seven counties in this State, there is hardly one of the counties that could take care of the load that would be placed upon it. I would like to see some effort made to have the Federal Government supply sufficient money to Pennsylvania to carry on the program of unemployment to start the projects which they already have on hand, with the view, as I said, of putting 80 per cent of our people back to work for a two-year period, and then definitely set a dead-line when we will dissolve the relief boards, placing the responsibility back on our counties, but, as I say, until we secure sufficient Federal relief to start this program of work throughout this State, we must have this tax program, we must, I think, have the Governor's tax program.

Everybody realizes that these people who are getting relief must be fed, and there is only one substitute for direct relief, and that is a job. I would like to see us thinking in terms of getting these great projects which we have on hand started, and I would like to see us thinking in terms of setting a dead-line some day on this great unemployment relief which we now know is a great burden upon us.

In answer to the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, who seems to question the method by which the Governor arrives at his figures; I am wondering if he has taken the trouble to inquire of the Governor just how he arrived at those figures. It may be possible that the Governor is wrong; however, you will never know whether he is wrong until somebody definitely takes up with him the method which he arrived at these figures and convinces himself and this body if these figures are correct.

Thank you.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, referred to a resolution which was introduced by me this morning, but that resolution does not pertain directly to an investigation of the affairs of the relief administration. It pertains to a matter which is very nearly collateral, however, to the problems presented by the same economic circumstances that bring relief through our relief administration. This resolution pertains to the National Re-employment Service, and an investigation sought of that agency. Now, when the Senator from Dauphin criticizes the attitude of the Administration in not acting more promptly upon matters pertaining to this general field, let me call the attention of this Senate to the fact that it is entirely inconsistent to deny the right of immediate action upon a resolution creating the manner to remedy one of the situations of which the Senator definitely complains.

I asked unanimous consent for immediate consideration of this resolution, hoping to expedite the correcting of one of these problems, and we find that unanimous consent is denied and the resolution referred to committee. Now, surely it is inconsistent to complain on the one hand of not having speedy enough action, and on the other hand to delay the correction of some of the matters of which he complains. Now, I hope that this Administration may never get to the point where it will merit to my mind, the most outrageous of all condemnations. namely, to impugn that the motives are similar to those of the preceding administrations. motives, as the Senator from Dauphin indicates. Surely nothing has been done yet which would compare the motives of this Administration to the motives of the Pinchot administration. And in speaking of this, I also want to call the attention of the Senator from Dauphin, to the fact that these problems have arisen right on the floor of this Senate, when he speaks about our fiscal problems and the Administration's attitude in opposing those we have to face today.

Let us remember that at the last Session of the Legislature, in September, 1934, these fiscal problems were deliberately dodged, and not faced squarely. You take this burden of indebtedness that this Administration has inherited, to a large extent caused by the failure of this body and the lower House to pass an act to provide taxes and revenue to correct the situation of which we complained, and when these funds were taken last September and given for relief purposes, I call the attention of this body that no Act nor any piece of legislation was then enacted to return those funds, that the "buck was passed" to this Administration in that respect, and the same thing exists today—we are still in this Senate defeating tax bills. We are not offering anything—no way has been suggested in the form of taxation here which might be enacted.

We have seen the passing in this State of all kinds of political groups and parties, Republicans and Democrats, conservatives and radicals, and all sorts of things. It seems to me that a new group is forming in this State starting last September, which perhaps for a better word might be called "antis"—"anti" everything—with nothing to suggest, and I submit, Mr. President, until a better system or remedy for this condition is provided, it ill becomes any member of this Senate to stand up and say "I anti everything." We defeat one tax bill after another, and what do we offer in its place?—nothing at all, and I submit to you that the most damaging form of mind that can be encountered politically is just that form of mind of being "anti" everything.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, for three months we have been listening in this Senate to some very fine orations. Recently, on one of the most important questions before the people, we were told authoritatively by Mr. Hopkins that on April 15th Federal money for relief would cease. I understand Mr. Hopkins is the man in authority. He has already spoken, and the big question now is, whether we in Pennsylvania are going to raise money for relief as he directs, or let the people starve. I do not know whether it will take over $200,000,000 or less than $200,000,000, but I do know that we must, in Pennsylvania, raise a substantial sum to take care of the unfortunate people in this great Commonwealth.

Now, the question is, are we going to raise the money, or are we going to let the people starve? It seems to me the time for speaking has ended—the time for action is here. Let us then devise some means of raising the money, in order to take care of the unfortunates of this Commonwealth.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I read this morning an editorial in the Philadelphia Inquirer, as follows:

STATE TAX COMPROMISE ESSENTIAL

It is obvious that Governor Earle's taxation program except, perhaps, for some features, is doomed. An obedient House has carried out his wishes. A disobedient Senate objects to certain exactions that have met with popular disapproval. It has already rejected the two-cents-a-gallon levy on gasoline after hearings that could not be disregarded.

Yesterday the Finance Committee of the Senate was engaged in listening to arguments against the proposed raid upon tobacco and amusements. Ten per cent. added to the cost of tobacco in any form is in the nature of a sock-the-poor tax. The purchaser of a fifty-cent ticket to a moving picture show now pays an additional five cents to the Federal Government. The Governor would make him pay a second five cents.

There seems to be little doubt that the Senate will defeat these levies. There is a prospect, too, that today the contemplated rise from four mills to six on personal property will be put on the sliding board. With gasoline, tobacco, amusements and the excess personal property tax out, the bulk of the revenue figured upon by the Governor disappears.

What is to be done? The State is facing a serious situation and in some manner a way must be found to raise an adequate income. The Senate can not originate revenue measures. That duty belongs exclusively to the House, over which the Governor has control. But Senators can make suggestions, and, if the deadlock at Harrisburg is to be broken, the Governor and Senate leaders will have to reach an agreement through mutual discussions and compromises.

That $203,000,000 will be needed in its entirety is questioned. But that $5,000,000 monthly for an indefinite period will be required for unemployment relief, if Federal Administrator Hopkins is to be appeased, is a certainty. Federal aid will be withdrawn on April 15th unless there is action at Harrisburg, and action there must be.

With funds thus provided to meet Mr. Hopkins' immediate requirements, more serious attention could be given to the revision of the tax program. There is much to be said in favor of limiting new taxation, whatever shape it takes, to one year, leaving a special session of the Legislature to determine what should be done when the year has expired. The situation may be different twelve months hence.

I read this editorial with the thought in mind that the twenty-two point program of Governor Earle's was put forward without any discussion, so far as I have any knowledge, with any Republican member of the State Senate. It is true that Governor Earle is charged with the administration of this State. It is also true that there is a Democratic majority in the House, which is very potent, and which passes all bills that apparently meet with the Governor's approval and suggestion. It is also true that in the Senate we have thirty-one Republican members, who represent their communities, and who also ought to be consulted. At least, that is the way I, individually, feel about it. We are a part of this Government, as much as the Executive is, and as much as the House of Representatives.

Until last Monday night there was not even an intimation from any Democratic Senator that a compromise might be considered. The attitude has been, up until Monday night, "Here is a program. Take it or leave it. If you don't like it, you will get nothing else." As this article states, we have not the privilege in the Senate to introduce revenue-producing bills; they must originate in the House. However, I realize that that does not relieve use of all responsibility.

At a meeting of the Senate Committee on Finance, on Monday night, there was a suggestion made by one Democratic Senator that more consideration ought to be given to the bills reported from the Committee, and he very strongly intimated that a compromise ought to be thought of at that time. All the Republican members of the Senate gladly accepted his suggestion. This bill, as we now have it before us, House Bill No. 925, was reported out to the floor with the understanding that if in the meantime any offer of compromise were to be extended by the Administration, we, the Republican members of the Senate, would permit this bill to go over in its order. Yesterday I spoke with the Democratic member of the Committee, and he agreed to bring about a compromise of some kind; and I was informed that no compromises were being entertained—they are not the exact words but that was the purport of the message given to me yesterday.

Therefore, gentlemen, what are we to do on this side—accept these twenty-two measures as they arrive here, however unsatisfactory we find them to be; or are we to use our best judgment, and are we to be given an opportunity to sit down with our Democratic members in this Senate and formulate a program which we all hope will be satisfactory to the people of Pennsylvania?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, in this Senate this morning, the question has been raised that the Federal Administration has not loaned money to the State of Pennsylvania. Under our Constitution we could not accept such a loan. When propositions have been made to revise and change the Constitution of Pennsylvania, their consideration has been delayed. Until such time as action is taken upon the Constitution of Pennsylvania, so that we may borrow from the Federal Government to meet our needs, we are not in position to say the Federal Government has failed to comply with the call for money.

Are we going to go along and work with the Federal Government? Are we going to try and meet our problems of relief in a fair and honest measure, or are we going to try and play a "bob-tail flush against a full house" that Hopkins holds?

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the foregoing nominations.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Aron, | Graff, | Norton, | Rodgers, |
| Batchelor, | Harris, | Owlett, | Rupp, |
| Baumer, | Howell, | Pierson, | Shapiro, |

| Frey, | McGinnis, | | Homsher, |
| Gelder, | Miller, | | Pres. Pro. Tem. |

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT from the Committee on Highways reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 110, entitled:

An Act to amend section eight hundred and twenty-four as added to the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by neglient operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation; and providing for funds," further regulating the display of caution signals by certain disabled vehicles.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HOWELL from the Committee on Municipal Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 227, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-four of the act, approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 207), entitled, "An act providing when, how and upon what property, and to what extent, liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements, for the removal of nuisances, and for water rents or rates, sewer rates, and lighting rates; for the procedure upon claims filed therefor; the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims; the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened, the distribution of the proceeds of such sales, and the redemption of the property therefrom; for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed, and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed, within six months before the passage of this act; and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly," providing additional powers for a sequestrator of property appointed by court under the provisions of the act.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. Reed from the Committee on Municipal Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 783, entitled:

An Act authorizing municipal corporations to appropriate moneys out of general revenues to pay bonds and obligations issued by such municipal corporations for the payment of the costs of a public improvement, which were to rest alone for their security upon payment of assessments for benefits.

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARON, read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 784, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four thousand one hundred two, four thousand one hundred three, four thousand one hundred twenty-six, four thousand one hundred twenty-seven, four thousand two hundred two, and four thousand two hundred three, of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1063), entitled "An act creating in cities of the first class a Bureau of Building Inspection; regulating the erection, enlargement, alteration, repair, moving, removal, demolition and inspection of buildings and other structures, and the erection, encroachment, extension, repair, inspection, and use of party walls; defining certain words and terms used; repealing conflicting legislation; and providing penalties for violations of this act," conferring certain powers and duties on the electrical bureau and the chief thereof, and requiring the approval of said bureau to certain electrical installations.

Which was committed to the Committee on Municipal Government.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 149, as follows:

An Act authorizing the selection of two additional jurors in civil and criminal cases to take the place of any juror or jurors becoming incapacitated

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That if in any trial civil or criminal in any of the courts of common pleas municipal courts and county courts quarter sessions of the peace or oyer and terminer and general jail delivery of any county it is the opinion of the trial judge that the trial is likely to be a protracted one and the district attorney or counsel for the plaintiff or for the defendant or both shall request the selection of two additional jurors as alternates the court shall have power to allow the drawing of two additional jurors such alternate jurors shall be seated near the jury with equal power and facilities for seeing and hearing the proceedings in the case and shall take the same oath as the

Where the court allows two alternate jurors in accordance with this act each side shall have one additional peremptory challenge in the selection of said two alternate jurors

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 2, section 1, line 18, by inserting after the word "jurors" the words "shall have died or" Amend page 2, section 1, line 19, by striking out after the word "have" the words "died or"

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 352, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend the act approved the twenty-third day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven (Pamphlet Laws thirty-four) entitled "An act making the verdict of a jury in the several courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth a lien in certain cases" extending said act to all courts of record go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 516 (House Bill No. 648), entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 522) entitled "An act relating to dogs and the protection of live stock and poultry from damage by dogs providing for the licensing of dogs by the Secretary of Agriculture providing for the enumeration of dogs by assessors regulating the keeping of dogs and authorizing their destruction in certain cases providing for the protection of licensed dogs and for dogs temporarily imported for trial show and breeding purposes prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs and dogs owned or used by the Board of Game Commissioners providing for the assessment of damages done to live stock and poultry by dogs and for the illegal killing of licensed dogs and the payment of such damages by the Commonwealth imposing powers and duties on certain State county city borough town and township officers and employes directing the payment of all moneys collected into the State Treasury and making an appropriation thereof and providing penalties" as amended by providing for the free licensing of certain dogs of blind persons go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 678 (House Bill No. 925), entitled:

An Act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for State and city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment collection and lien of the same and the distribution of the proceeds thereof imposing duties on executors administrators registers of wills recorders of deeds prothonotaries and court clerks and on persons copartnerships associations banks national banks trust companies and other corporations receiving deposits of money and on certain corporations and limited partnerships conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments imposing penalties and making an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is one of the Administration tax bills, none of which, of course, are popular. No tax bill advancing taxes is popular. This one has had very little consideration in the committee. It was sent out on the floor in spite of the fact that it needed some amendments in the committee. I submitted one yesterday which was agreeable to the Senate, and I had not the time to prepare another, which I would like to submit today. I would like to ask unanimous consent, and do ask unanimous consent to introduce this amendment.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I therefore, move to reconsider the vote by which it passed second reading, for the purpose of introducing the amendment.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. CLARK and were as follows, viz:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Baumer, | Law, | Reed, | Shapiro, |
| Cavalcante, | McCreesh, | (Washington) | Thompson, |
| Frey, | McGinnis, | Rice, | (Centre) |
| Huffman, | Miller, | Roberts, | Thompson, |
| Kahle, | Pytko, | Rodgers, | (Westmoreland) |
| Lanius, | Rankin, | Rupp, | |

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Aron, | Coyne, | Mallery, | Reed, |
| Batchelor, | Ealy, | McClure, | (Dauphin) |
| Bennett, | Gelder, | Norton, | Staudenmeier, |
| Buckman, | Graff, | Owlett, | Woodward, |
| Chapman, | Harris, | Pierson, | Ziesenheim, |
| Clark, | Howell, | Prince, | Homsher, |
| | | | Pres. Pro. Tem. |

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask for only a minute. I would like to express my opinion on this bill. I wish to state merely that any administration is either insincere or ignorant or both which proposes a bill of this kind, which imposes an income tax of 12 per cent, the highest income tax accepted among the States is six per cent, and this bill is double that, or twelve per cent.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I understand that this amendment is to guarantee certain funds to be paid to the county. My argument is that you cannot make any kind of an omelet out of a rotten egg.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, will state his point of order.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, is the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, talking about the proposed amendment?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am speaking on the bill—I am trying to explain why I voted against the proposed amendment, and the reason is this: This bill is so faulty in its structure that it sets up a central collection agency. Now, the four-mill tax is a county tax, and you cannot transfer from the county to Harrisburg a central collection agency without impairing the borrowing capacity of every county in this State. You cannot patch up this bill by amendments.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in my opinion the bill now before the Senate comes in the category of one of the most subtly vicious bills ever introduced in the Senate. Section 3 of this bill is similar to Section 1 of the Act of June 17, 1913, P. L. 507, as amended. The bill would increase the rate of tax from four mills to six mills on what is known as the personal property tax. Section 20 of the bill is similar to Section 17 of the Act of 1913. It would increase the rate of tax from four mills to six mills. That is the corporate loan or municipal loan tax. There are so many points in which this bill is subtly vicious, in my opinion, that I will not attempt to enumerate them all; but, Mr. President, I would like to call the attention of this body to the effect of this bill with regard to the small home owner and farmer.

We have heard for the last six or eight months of the plight of the small home owner and farm owner and of the burden that is placed today on real estate; we have heard from our Democratic colleagues, for six months, that we must have relief from the burdens of real estate taxation; and what do we find, Mr. President? The Governor's budget is not taking care of real estate taxation; it is not mentioned until the Committee on Constitutional Changes brings out the fact that an income tax is probably constitutional under the present Constitution, and then an income tax bill is introduced to take care of relief from real estate taxation for school purposes, which only takes care of about 10 per cent. That does not give any substantial relief at all. Then we find in the Governor's program this bill, which, instead of giving relief to real estate taxation, adds to the burden that is already borne by real estate.

Section 20 of the bill raises the rate of taxation on obligations of all kinds—of cities, boroughs, townships, school districts or incorporated districts of this Commonwealth—from four to six mills. This tax has been one which the political subdivisions have no opportunity to pass on to the holder of the obligation. Today political subdivisions, for the most part, are in no position to stand the 50 per cent increase in the taxes on their indebtedness. They need help with such indebtedness rather than an increase of the burden. Philadelphia alone pays to the Commonwealth more than one million dollars annually in this form of taxation, and it comes out of the real estate taxpayers of Philadelphia. This tax would add at least $500,000.00 on the real estate taxpayers of Philadelphia alone, if this bill were passed. For years the State authorities have recognized that the four-mill tax on real estate indebtedness was a burden on the taxpayer. This bill represents a reversal of the position and a failure to appreciate the plight of the local real estate taxpayers. It would add to the present burden on real estate, because local government, with only a limited field subject to taxation, must depend almost wholly on the tax on real estate for revenue. Here again the result will be to further sock the already over-burdened local taxpayer.

Mr. President, in addition, as pointed out by the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, this bill will transfer to the State the collection of the four-mill tax, and takes away from the county the money at interest, on which this tax is paid, as the basis for their bonds; and I say without fear of successful contradiction that if this bill were passed, every county bond issue in this State would go down in value. You are taking away from it a major part of the security back of the bonds issued by the counties of this State.

After this bill came from the Administration, as it was passed in the House, before it was amended here yesterday, it put back the tax of four mills on the savings of our people. The Act of 1933 expressly exempted from the personal property tax interest-bearing accounts in any banking institution, savings institution or trust company. The Act of December 22, 1933, expressly exempts from the corporate loans tax, interest-bearing accounts of any banking institution, savings institution or trust company.

Section 3 of the bill carried a similar exemption from personal property tax, but Section 20 did not carry a similar exemption from the corporate loans tax. The exemptions granted in 1933, as those of us who sat in the session at that time know, resulted from very prolonged and deliberate consideration. It was the sense of the Legislature at that time that a tax on interest-bearing band deposits was a "sock the poor" tax. It is the poor men and the poor women who principally employed the interest-bearing deposit as a means of saving. With the tax rate raised to six mills, as it passed the House and came over here to this Senate, the interest rate lowered to 2½ per cent on the bank account and levied back a 24 per cent tax on income.

There are any number of other objections to this bill. If we, and many of us are—permitted to pass on income tax bill to relieve real estate from local taxation, I do not think anybody will deny that if we are to pass an income tax bill, we should not add to the present four-mill tax on personal accounts, because this tax has to be paid by the owner of the small mortgage, who is extending credit to the obligor, receiving no interest. What does he have to do? He has to pay the four-mill tax, and that would add 50 per cent to the burden of the small investor, the thirfty man of today; and I repeat, under these various proposals and under our present relief system, as has been so ably pointed out by the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, is a system designed already to put the burden on that small home owner; and it seems to me, Mr. President, after being told in glowing words, and in view of the beautiful phrases for the last six months, that we must relieve the real estate taxation, and then to have the present Administration bring in to us a tax bill which adds a tremendous additional burden to those people, I say it is a subtly vicious tax.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I shall vote against this bill, and I shall vote against it because it upsets the financial structure of the city of Philadelphia. We have $873,000,000 worth of personal property, against which we are entitled to borrow ten per cent. In other words, it gives us a borrowing capacity of $8,750,000. We have issued bonds against that borrowing capacity, so that in the nature of things the personal property tax is a security for the bonds. To pass this bill would mean to remove the collateral which the persons who purchased the bonds have looked to as security for the safe-guarding of their liens.

This bill provides that the tax is payable on the nominal value, and everyone knows the nominal value of a bond of $1,000, probably many of them are selling on the market for less than $20.00. It is a mathematical calculation. It is an illustration of the fact that in a few years' time the value of the bonds today would be paid out in this tax.

But I take it that we are now in a different situation regarding this bill than merely voting against it. I have listened to Senator McClure in discussing the editorial, and speaking of the fact that the time for compromise had arrived. I take the position that the time to destroy is finished, and the time to construct is here. I made a suggestion on Monday evening with regard to the method of arriving at a solution of the problem, which is very serious to every member of this Senate, whether Republican or Democrat, it is very serious to every citizen, and I cannot see how we are going to adopt suggestions of compromise when we are going to destroy the possibility of compromise by voting down every bill as it comes up. This program is the Governor's program from the other side of the House, the people, as I take it, who speak for the Governor. A request has been made to amend this bill. I take that as an indication that there may be some desire to get this bill in such shape as may be satisfactory to all persons concerned, and I, for one, feel that when a gesture of compromise is made, my Republican friends mean what they say, and the time has come to accept it and sit down and see if we cannot compromise. I cannot understand that anyone can say that a bill on the floor of this Senate cannot be put into such shape that it may be acceptable, if the objections to it are made in a serious and sincere way.

I am a Republican and I will stay a Republican, but as a Republican I propose to protect against destructive methods when constructive methods are available to me. I see in Senator Huffman's motion a suggestion of compromise, and I gladly grant any proposition of compromise, of the slightest nature, that will help to bring about order out of chaos, in which we find ourselves now, and I suggest to my Republican friends, that if there is any delay in regard to this bill, it can be laid to the door of the Democrats, and they assume no responsibility by accepting the amendment, or accepting a suggestion to let this bill go over in order. The responsibility for delay will be theirs, not ours, and I suggest—I do not move—but I suggest that we accept this gesture and that somebody make a motion that this bill go over in is order.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I should be very glad to be interrogated.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, does the present bill exempt savings accounts?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it does now, it was amended yesterday, but that does not take care of the burden which this tax would place on local real estate. It cannot be amended to take care of that.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, this bill we have before us is a bill taxing people who have, and the only alternative I have heard in this body is a Sales tax. Now, we know that in this country, for forty years the rich have been getting richer and the poor have been getting poorer, and we know that the Sales tax will make the poor poorer and the rich richer. Here is a tax that is taxing the poor—it may hit some of the poor, but it hits the rich very hard. There is a four-mill tax now on these securities and bonds, and as I understand it, it is only raised two mills, and if there was ever a time in this country when the rich should pay taxes, when the rich should come out and help in this distress we are in today, now is the time. Here is a bill before us now that hits the rich, hits the people who have, and not the people who do not have, and I want to say that I believe in Pennsylvania today, at least 75 per cent are not making a living. The alternative of this bill is a Sales tax, a Sales tax that will make 75 per cent of our population poorer than they are today, and I say, Mr. President, it has been the theory of government in the United States and the State of Pennsylvania for forty years to exempt the rich and tax the poor. I know, and everyone knows, that the "Alexander Hamilton" policy that we have had for the last forty years would wreck any country, and it has practically wrecked this country, and today, when we have a bill here to tax the rich—the poor do not have securities or bonds—a few may have them, but it is the rich who have stocks and bonds and securities, and I say to you, that if there was ever a time in our history, it is now that we should tax the people who have, few may have them, but it is rich that own these bonds or securities, and I say if there ever was a time when the country needs taxes from the rich, it is now, and this body should go out and tax the people who have, even if only temporarily, to save our country. I thank you.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, believe in imposing an income tax of twelve per cent?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, certainly I do. I say, the situation we are in in this country today it is a most serious situation. I say to you that money has got to be raised, and it cannot be milked out of the poor any longer, it can only come from people who have; and I say that in a crisis like this if it is necessary, to save the poor and save our civilization, I believe in a hundred per cent taxation, if necessary, against those who have.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SHAPPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to amend the motion by moving that this bill go over in its order.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, it requires unanimous consent to have a bill go over in its order. That is my reason for moving that its consideration be postponed for the present.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion to postpone.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, his reason for making the motion.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, amendments have been proposed to it. If that be done sincerely, and not for the purpose of delay, I think they ought to be considered. I voted against the considering of these amendments because I felt that perhaps they were offered for the purpose of delay; but if that is not the case, I feel that by placing this bill on the postponed calendar there will be a better opportunity to send the bill back to committee for the purpose of considering these amendments.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I do not think this bill should go over in its order. We are here with the amendments this morning. The bill is on third reading and final passage and we should be allowed to amend the bill here and now. If there be anything else, later on, that needs amendment, that can be taken up either in the Senate committee or in the Conference Committee if and when it meets—if the House does not concur in these amendments.

It would seem to me that after these bills have been talked about for a period of ten weeks and not one of them passed, it is time, high time, that this Senate act upon some of these tax bills; and it does not do to cast discredit upon this character of bill.. This is the kind of bill that we must put through. This bill, if put through, would bring in sufficient to clean up about $40,000,000. It is one of the big items in the Governor's program, and I say that it is the kind of tax that the public in Pennsylvania can best support.

To reiterate what has been said, it taxes the man best able to pay; and, in reply to the objections which are made to this bill, that it limits the borrowing capacity of some communities, I feel that those objections are not sufficient to kill this bill. That can be taken up in conference. The speaker offered this morning to meet that objection by amendment. I offered to meet all the objections this morning by amendment to this bill.

This group did not intend to put this bill through as it was first drafted. Therefore, I say that this motion to postpone consideration of this bill at this time should not be carried.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HDFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, if he is willing to amend the bill so that it will impose a four mills tax instead of a six mills tax?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, certainly not.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, well, that ends it with me then.

RECESS

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

MOTION TO POSTPONE WITHDRAWN

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to withdraw my motion to postpone for the present. I do this because I have been assured that there will be a motion to send this bill back to committee for the purpose of amendment and giving our Democratic colleagues, and any other member of this body, the right to present any amendments that they desire.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I, therefore, freely withdraw my motion for postponement.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, on the same basis I withdraw my second.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to postpone the bill is withdrawn.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, for the second time this morning, in the spirit of compromise, I move that Senate Bill No. 678 (House Bill No. 925), be recommitted to the Committee on Finance for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I feel that I should state my position in regard to this motion. This bill was in the Finance Committee and reported out a day or two ago. When it was discussed in the Finance Committee suggestions were made that there were certain parts of this bill that were perhaps not in accordance with what some members thought that the bill should contain. However, the bill was reported out, notwithstanding the fact that amendments might be made later. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, today offered an amendment correcting one of the alleged inaccuracies of the bill. That amendment—I need not tell you, gentlemen of the Senate, what happened to that amendment. Senator Huffman was never even privileged to read it. It then went on, with the idea of coming to a vote, and a recess was taken. I do not know what the idea was, but a recess was taken.

Statements were made on this floor that we should get together. Statements were made that there should be some spirit of conciliation and co-operation. Certainly I believe in a spirit of conciliation and co-operation. I feel that we are in the midst of strenuous times, and I do not know of any session of the legislature when we were confronted with so many perplexing problems as confront this present session of the legislature, and I want to say that I, for one, feel the responsibility that rests upon this legislature. Remarks were made as to the advisability of this program. The Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward—and I am not going to jest, or I might fall in the shades of Germantown—made the remark at this present session, referring to the Governor, as insincere or ignorant, or both. I want to say, gentlemen, that is not the way to try to bring about a spirit of co-operation. I think that is unfair. Certainly I want to say this, I do not know that the Governor of Pennsylvania—and I am speaking only individually, I have not been asked to speak for him, but I will say that I doubt whether he feels that he possesses any superior wisdom, but I do believe, gentlemen, that he is sincere. And what further happened? He has given a program, and this program is before you. We offered—the Democratic members of this body—we tried at least in a measure to meet them in a spirit of co-operation, and simply asked that this amendment of the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, be allowed to be entered into this bill, and the result would be that the bill would then have to go over for printing, and come up on Monday night, and we would have a chance, in a case of that kind, if you wished, to further discuss and further get together, but that was denied, and then we offered that the bill be put on the second reading calendar so that they, or any other amendments, might be made on Monday night, and that was denied. And then we hear about this spirit of conciliation. I am for it, but I want to say, gentlemen, that I am sincerely for it. I think that that was at least an effort in that direction.

If you are going to send it back to committee—perhaps some of my colleagues will say, "Why not? There you can further amend the bill, you will have an opportunity of doing this or doing that." I do not like to make the statement, but I will, and the statement is this: that I fear the members of this body do not trust the committee, for the fact that if it goes back to committee, what assurance will we have that it will ever see the light of day again on this floor? Therefore, I say, gentlemen, I think it is wrong. We have been denied the right to offer an amendment to this bill, and if it is an important bill, if it is so vicious, if it is so wrong, why not give a chance to put in an amendment correcting an alleged defects in this bill? Now all I say, gentlemen of the Senate is this: Let us be fair, and let us move forward courageously and honestly, stop playing politics, stop talking about this bill and that bill as the Governor's bill, and somebody else's bill. If you do not want this program, turn it down and then come forward with another program. If you will come forward with something, and do not, as the Senator from Thompson, said in his remarks this morning, do not just be against, against, against. Let us be constructive and work together. When a Senator, in all sincerity, speaking for myself and not for anybody else, offers in good faith to introduce an amendment and then the members of this Senate get up and say they doubt his sincerity, I want to say you are not playing the game squarely. We do not realize what is confronting us, and if we are going to keep on playing in this same manner, the time will come soon when we will realize, when we will have to stand up like men and face the situation bravely, courageously and honestly, and if we do not agree in that program, perfectly all right, certainly perfectly all right, and then come along with constructive ideas, and not merely criticism.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think I can say without fear of contradiction that so far as I am concerned I have tried to be constructive. I do not know that I have presented any suggestions which are worthy of being called a solution of the problem, but I think in a situation of this kind I might say, without any egotism, that they are worthy at least of consideration. I have heard a great deal of talk about the Governor's program. I am not interested in whose program it is, but it is a program. As to these suggestions which I have made, I had hoped that there would be some sort of sign from the Governor's office that he would listen to the proposition, because I do not think it makes very much difference whether a Senator made the suggestion or whether a citizen. If any citizen made suggestions to the Governor, such as I have made on the floor of this Senate, I imagine that he would feel he was entitled to have them given some consideration. The answer to that, as I see it by a newspaper of Democratic color in Philadelphia, was a listing of all the names of the Senators with instructions to those people that they should vote down—telegrams, telephone messages and letters—asking them to vote down the sales tax programs. I did not suggest merely a Sales tax program, I suggested a program of several taxes from the Governor's program, and my reason for not desiring to have this bill killed at this time without an opportunity to amend, is that I realized if this bill is defeated now, it cannot be revived again at this Session, and to me it does not make any difference whether the bill goes over in order, or whether it is referred back to the committee, so long as there is an opportunity, and the opportunity for compromise is not lost.

I still say that I cannot vote for this bill and could not vote for the previous bill, because the sentiment of the people whom I represent is against it, and is evidenced by the fact that in spite of the publicity that has been given, I took the trouble to call up my home, my office, and the net result of yesterday's agitation is two telegrams, one of which the gentleman did not even have the courtesy to put his address on so that I might find him. I looked for it in the telephone directory of Philadelphia, and decided that he does not even have a telephone, and that is proof to me that many voters in the district expressed their sentiments in favor of the Governor's program. Of course, many have, but most of the voters in my district have expressed their sentiments against the program, and so I am obliged, as their representative, to answer the instructions I get from the people whom I represent, to whom I shall have to return for the purpose of re-election, if I so desire, at the next election.

I say wether it goes back to the committee or goes over in its order, it is the same thing to me, because I accept the statement of the gentleman who made the motion at its face value. I have not yet reached that stage in this Senate where I am getting a back alley name called to me, and where I would not be able to take the word of a Senator who happens to move that a bill be recommitted for the purpose of amendment. We are bound to accept that as meaning what he says, and I do not intend at this time to take the position that it is a subterfuge for the purpose of killing the bill, or retaining it in committee. I say there are enough men in this Senate now who, having heard this statement, Republicans and Democrats, who will join in a motion to discharge any committee, who, after making a statement on the floor that a bill should go back, will attempt to keep that bill in the committee, I do not believe that this motion will be opposed, a motion that would give the very opportunity desired to amend this bill in committee.

I do not think that Senator Roberts need have any fear that this bill will be kept in committee. This bill, I think, will come out. I think the Republican members of this body are most anxious and willing to have it on the floor so that will be recorded, and I desire to say to my Democratic colleagues, if this bill is kept in committee for the purpose of preventing it from being voted on, on the floor, I will join with them in a vote to discharge this committee, to give us all an opportunity to vote on this very important measure.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I am only interested in passing this bill. I think it is a good bill, none better in the Governor's programme, and I do not believe that any other bill will be devised by our opponents that will fit the situation better than this one will. I offered the amendment in good faith, I do not offer amendments in bad faith. I do not have that reputation in the Senate and I do not intend starting to accumulate that kind of a reputation now. I offered the amendment to this bill because it needed amendment. Having offered it and having been voted down, it does not become me, being sincerely in favor of the passage of this bill, to pass up the only opportunity I have of placing that amendment in the bill, and I want to say to the gentlemen on the other side that I do not believe that their motion is made in bad faith, I believe that bill will come back on the floor, and I want you to understand that is my viewpoint here. I do not believe that when a member makes a motion to recommit a bill for the purpose of amendment that he intends to take advantage of that and keep it there. Therefore, I shall vote to send this bill back to committee to allow me to place these amendments I have in the bill and I hope the other Democrats will do the same thing.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, if this bill goes back to committee in the spirit of fairness and cooperation which we have heard advanced by the chairman of the Finance Committee, I do hope that this interim brings forth the long promised programme, which has been so often mentioned by Harvey Taylor, the Republican State Chairman, that if there is to be any horseswap that our Republican colleagues here, at least, show us the horse which they expect to swap.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I feel that I should make just one more statement in regard to this motion that is pending. I will have to vote against sending this bill back to the committee and I want to have it definitely understood that I can get no assurance from the committee that the bill would be reported back to this Senate. When there is no such assurance given, even though I asked for such assurance and in view of that, therefore, I feel that it would be unwise to send it back to the committee when we have offered a counter proposition to keep it on the calendar, so that amendments could be made, and then acted upon as we might wish. The proposition I made was one by which amendments could be offered. The other proposition is to send the bill back to committee, and—well, anything can happen.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ROBERTS and Mr. LAW and were as follows, viz:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Aron, | Ealy, | McClure, | Shapiro, |
| Batchelor, | Gelder, | McGinnis, | Staudenmeier, |

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

ACTION ON SECOND READING CALENDAR DEFERRED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that all bills on second reading be deferred until next Monday evening.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CLARK from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 705, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction, to aid financially distressed school districts.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. COYNE, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 18, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the appointment of Emilie C. McAllister, 250 Park Avenue, New York City, New York, as Commissioner of Deeds for Pennsylvania with residence in New York City, New York, for a term of five years to compute from the date of confirmation.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the foregoing nomination.

Which was agreed to.

A motion was made by Mr. RICE,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NOMINATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations:

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 1, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following appointment to compute from the date of confirmation:

Thomas Giles, Jr., of Mahanoy City, Schuylkill County, as Justice of the Peace in the Borough of Mahanoy City, Schuylkill County, vice his father, Thomas Giles, Sr., deceased, until the first Monday in January, 1936.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 86

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introducel presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House of Representatives had concurred in amendments made by the Senate to the following Resolution:

SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO SELECT MEASURE ON THE SUBJECT OF ABATING PENALTIES AND INTEREST ON DELINQUENT TAXES

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1935.

Whereas, A number of bills have been introduced in the House and Senate having a single purpose—to provide for the abatement of penalties and interest, in whole or in part, on delinquent taxes if these delinquent taxes are paid; and

Whereas, Taxpayers should be encouraged to pay their taxes in order that government may function, and legislation should be adopted at the earliest possible time to spur delinquent taxpayers to use every effort possible to pay their taxes; and

Whereas, Bills have passed the Senate and repose in House committees, bills have passed the House and repose in Senate committees, others are on the calendars and still others are in committee awaiting committee action; and

Whereas, It is apparent that confusion exists not only between the House and Senate as to the proper measure to be adopted, but as well among Members of the same House in passing more than one bill to accomplish substantially the same object; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker appoint five Members of the House, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint five Members of the Senate, who together shall constitute a special committee, whose duty it shall be to draft a new bill or select an introduced bill, either House or Senate, which in its present or an amended form the committee deems to be a proper measure on the subject of abating penalties and interest on delinquent taxes, and to make report thereof to the Senate and House of Representatives as early as possible.

JOINT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE PERMISSIBLE SIZE AND WEIGHT OF COMMERCIAL MOTOR TRUCKS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Highways:

In the House of Representatives, March 14, 1935.

Whereas, At each session of the Legislature controversy arises as to the maximum permissible sizes and weights of commercial motor vehicles and the registration fees imposed against them, and

Whereas, It is the desire of the State through proper regulation to conserve public safety, to avoid undue damage to the highways and to impose on such vehicles only such registration fees as are properly chargeable against them, and

Whereas, The trucking industry contends that under existing laws and regulations the public is safeguarded, the highways are not damaged by their operations, the registration fees are adequate and greater than the average of the surrounding states and that more severe restriction as to dementional limitations or further increase in registration fees would result only in increased costs of their services to the public and unjustifiable injuries to them without compensating benefits, and

Whereas, The basic facts in connection with this controversy are really determinable both from financial and engineering standpoints; therefore be it

Resolved, That a joint commission to consist of three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and Speaker of the House, respectively, to invstigate the facts in connection with the maximum permissible size and weights of commercial motor vehicles and the registration fees that properly should be charged and to report their findings to the next session of the Legislature, the commission to function in consultation with the State Highway Department, the Department of Revenue and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and to call in such outside experts and consultants as are deemed necessary.

STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD URGED TO CONTINUE DISTRIBUTION OF MILK

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the House of Representatives, January 29, 1935.

Whereas, Unemployment relief has heretofore generally been distributed by the State Emergency Relief Board in th form of food and clothing vouchers or orders; and

Whereas, Many persons are of the opinion that such distribution should be in the form of direct or cash relief; and

Whereas, That method of distribution is already in effect in the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny; and

Whereas, It is of paramount importance that milk be always available to the needy, particularly to the ill and to children; and

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board is able to procure milk more cheaply than destitute families can purchase it directly; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the State Emergency Relief Board be urged to continue the direct distribution of milk without regard to the method or methods which may be adopted in the distribution of relief generally; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Director of the State Emergency Relief Board of this Commonwealth.

AMERICAN LEGISLATORS' ASSOCIATION REQUESTED TO CALL CONFERENCE OF THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE OIL PRODUCING STATES

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Finances:

In the House of Representatives, March 5, 1935.

Whereas, There is a lack of uniformity in the methods of appraising and taxing petroleum producing property by the various taxing units of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the various petroleum producing states of the United States; and

Whereas, It is desirable that the present inequities be remedied; and

Whereas, It may be desirable and practicable to adopt uniform methods and rates of taxation upon such property by the several oil producing states; now, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby request the American Legislators' Association to call a conference of the representatives of the oil producing states with a view of formulating uniform legislation and methods of taxing petroleum producing property; be it further

Resolved, That if such a conference is called, the delegates from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall consist of: a member of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker, a member of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, a member to be appointed by the Governor; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the American Legislators' Association, to the governors of the petroleum producing states, and the presidents of the Senate and speakers of the said states, with the request that they submit it for action by the Legislatures of their states.

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED TO ENACT THE FRAZIER-LEMKE BILL

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, March 19, 1935.

Whereas, Unless immediate relief is given, hundreds and thousands of additional farmers will lose their farms and their homes, and millions more will be forced into our cities and villages, and the army of the unemployed will necessarily increase to alarming proportions; and

Whereas, There is no adequate way of refinancing existing agricultural indebtedness, and the farmers are at the mercy of their mortgagees and creditors throughout this state and nation; and

Whereas, The Frazier-Lemke Refinance bill, being S. 212 and H. R. 2066, in the Congress of the United States, provides for the liquidating and refinancing of agricultural indebtedness at a reduced rate of interest, through the Farm Credit administration and Federal Land Banks; and

Whereas, The Frazier-Lemke bill has the endorsement of twenty-two state legislatures, and in addition the lower Houses of the States of New York and Delaware, and of many Commercial clubs, Chambers of Commerce, bank organizations, and of business and professional men and women, as well as the great majority of the farmers of this nation; and

Whereas, The enactment of this bill will have a vital effect not only upon agriculture, but upon all classes of industry; and

Whereas, Agriculture is the basic industry of this country, and there can be no recovery until agriculture is put upon a sound basis; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of your memorialists, the members of the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania, that the Congress of the United States should enact the Frazier Lemke Bill without further delay.

Resolved, That a copy of this Memorial, duly authenticated, be sent by the Secretary of State to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from this State, to the President of the United States, and to U. S. Senator Lynn J. Frazier and Congressman William Lemke.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from Whom no secrets are hid, we come to Thee on this beautiful morning to give Thee thanks for the health and strength that Thou hast given to us. We pray that Thou wilt guide us this day, that we may give the best we have to bring honor and glory to Thy name, to bring comfort and help to those in distress. We pray that Thou would bless those who mourn today; that they will understand that Thou are the kind heavenly Father, and that in Thine own time Thou wilt make all things right. We ask it in the Master's name. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. REISING. RESOLUTION No. 112.

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly in the session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one created a State Emergency Relief Board and other Governmental and Commonwealth agencies operating in conjunction with the Beaver County Emergency Relief Board to aid the thousands of unfortunate and starving citizens of this Commonwealth forced to depredation by the depression, and

Whereas, The Emergency Relief Administrator of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania appointed a Board consisting of several citizens in the County of Beaver to administer relief and welfare to the people of that County, and

Whereas, There have been numerous complaints of gross abuse of the discretionary power and authority vested in the Beaver County Relief Board and other Commonwealth and Governmental agencies and it is further reported that certain groups and individuals have been discriminated against, and

Whereas, The Beaver County Emergency Relief Board recently resigned their offices and have left the affairs of their office in a very unsettled and unstable condition, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives whose duty it shall be to make a rigid investigation of the conduct and operation of the Beaver County Emergency Relief Board and other agencies above mentioned operating in conjunction with said board dating back to its inception and to investigate such other facts and circumstances surrounding the conduct of the Beaver County Emergency Relief Board and other agencies above mentioned as it deems necessary for the information of the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That said Committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives during this session as early as possible, and

Resolved, That said Committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its Chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the Committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the Committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the Courts of the Commonwealth. Each member of said Committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said Committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases, And be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall have the further right and authority to issue a requisition to the aforesaid Board and Agencies for such stenographic help or other service as it may deem necessary under the circumstances in the taking of testimony and conduct of hearings, et cetera.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

By Mr. KOBELAK (Concurrent)

RESOLUTION No. 113.

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, The Bell Telephone Company of the State of Pennsylvania practically monopolizes the telephone industry in this and other Commonwealths, and,

Whereas, There have been many complaints that the rates and charges of said Telephone Company are excessive and exhorbitant, and,

Whereas, Said Telephone Company collects a twenty-five cent service charge for the use of French telephones, entirely unwarranted in view of the aforesaid rates and charges, now

Be It Resolved, That the General Assembly petition the members of the Public Service Commission and the Governor of this Commonwealth and other State agencies to cooperate and urge upon the Bell Telephone Company to discontinue any further service charge in the amount of twenty-five cents per month, or any other sum, for the use of French, or any other specially designed telephones.

Referred to the Committee on Public Utilities.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED RESOLUTION RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced returned resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1935.

Whereas, A number of bills have been introduced in the House and Senate having a single purpose—to provide for the abatement of penalties and interest, in whole or in part, on delinquent taxes if these delinquent taxes are paid; and

Whereas, Tax payers should be encouraged to pay their taxes in order that government may function, and legislation should be adopted at the earliest possible time to spur delinquent taxpayers to use every effort possible to pay their taxes; and

Whereas, Bills have passed the Senate and repose in House committees, bills have passed the House and repose in Senate committees, others are on the calendars and still others are in committee awaiting committee action; and

Whereas, It is apparent that confusion exists not only between the House and Senate as to the proper measure to be adopted, but as well among Members of the same House in passing more than one bill to accomplish substantially the same object; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker appoint three Members of the House, and the Senate appoint three Members of the Senate, who together shall constitute a special committee, whose duty it shall be to draft a new bill or select and introduce a bill, either House or Senate, which in its present or an amended form the committee deems to be a proper measure on the subject of abating penalties and interest on delinquent taxes, and to make report thereof to the Senate and House of Representatives as early as possible.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend page 2, line 2, by striking out after the word "point" the word "three," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five;" also in line 3, by striking out after the word "point" the word "three" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

They were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RESOLUTION

INVESTIGATION OF BEAVER COUNTY EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

Mr. REISING offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly in the session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one created a State Emergency Relief Board and other Governmental and Commonwealth agencies operating in conjunction with the Beaver County Emergency Relief Board to aid the thousands of unfortunate and starving citizens of this Commonwealth forced to depredation by the depression, and

Whereas, The Emergency Relief Administrator of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania appointed a Board consisting of several citizens in the County of Beaver to administer relief and welfare to the people of that County, and

Whereas, There have been numerous complaints of gross abuse of the discretionary power and authority vested in the Beaver County Relief Board and other Commonwealth and Governmental agencies and it is further reported that certain groups and individuals have been discriminated against, and

recently resigned their offices and have left the affairs of their office in a very unsettled and unstable condition, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives whose duty it shall be to make a rigid investigation of the conduct and operation of the Beaver County Emergency Relief Board and other agencies above mentioned operating in conjunction with said board dating back to its inception and to investigate such other facts and circumstances surrounding the conduct of the Beaver County Emergency Relief Board and other agencies above mentioned as it deems necessary for the information of the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That said Committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives during this session as early as possible, and

Resolved, That said Committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its Chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the Committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the Committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the Courts of the Commonwealth. Each member of said Committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said Committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases, And be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall have the further right and authority to issue a requisition to the aforesaid Board and Agencies for such stenographic help or other service as it may deem necessary under the curcumstances in the taking of testimony and conduct of hearings, et cetera.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the resolution just adopted by the House, the Chair appoints the following committee; Messrs. Reising, Nagel, Harkins, Murrin and Eroe.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY DELINQUENT TAX LEGISLATION

The SPEAKER. In accordance with Resolution No. 86, Printer's No. 390, the Chair appoints as a Committee to draft a bill or select or introduce a bill on the subject og abating penalties and interest on delinquent taxes: Messrs. Blumberg, Burke, Pearson, VanSickle and Wood.

RESOLUTION NO. 88

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 88, Printer's No. 356.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 19, 1935.

Whereas, At each session of the Legislature controversy arises as to the maximum permissible sizes and weights of commercial motor vehicles and the registration fees imposed against them, and

Whereas, It is the desire of the State through proper regulation to conserve public safety, to avoid undue damage to the highways and to impose on such vehicles only such registration fees as are properly chargeable against them, and

Whereas, The trucking industry contends that under existing laws and regulations the public is safeguarded, the highways are not damaged by their operations, the registration fees are adequate and greater than the average of the surrounding states and that more severe restriction as to demensional limitations or further increase in registration fees would result only in increased costs of their services to the public and unjustifiable injuries to them without compensating benefits, and

Whereas, The basic facts in connection with this controversy are really determinable both from financial and engineering standpoints, therefor be it

Resolved, That a joint commission to consist of three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and Speaker of the House respectively, to investigate the facts in connection with the maximum permissible size and weights of commercial motor vehicles and the registration fees that properly should be charged and to report their findings to the next session of the Legislature; the commission to function in consultation with the State Highway Department, the Department of Revenue and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and to call in such outside experts and consultants as are deemed necessary.

Resolved, That by legislation an appropriation be provided for the use of the committee.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 91

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 91, Printer's No. 414.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 18, 1935.

Whereas, Unless immediate relief is given, hundreds and thousands of additional farmers will lose their farms and their homes, and millions more will be forced into our cities and villages, and the army of the unemployed will necessarily increase to alarming proportions; and

Whereas, There is no adequate way of refinancing existing agricultural indebtedness, and the farmers are at the mercy of their mortgagees and creditors throughout this State and Nation; and

Whereas, The Frazier-Lemke Refinance Bill, being S. 212 and H. R. 2066 in the Congress of the United States, provides for the liquidating and refinancing of agricultural indebtedness at a reduced rate of interest, through the Farm Credit Administration and Federal Land Banks; and

Whereas, The Frazier-Lemke Bill has the endorsement of twenty-two state legislatures, and in addition, the lower Houses of the States of New York and Deleware and of many Commercial Clubs, Chambers of Commerce, bank organizations and of business and professional men and women, as well as the great majority of the farmers of this Nation; and

Whereas, The enactment of this bill will have a vital effect not only upon agriculture, but upon all classes of industry; and

Whereas, Agriculture is the basic industry of this country, and there can be no recovery until agriculture is put upon a sound basis, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of your memorialists, the members of the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania, that the Congress of the United States should enact the Frazier-Lemke Bill without further delay.

Resolved, That a copy of this Memorial, duly authenticated, be sent by the Secretary of State to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from this State, to the President of the United States, and to United States Senator Lynn J. Frazier and Congressman William Lemke.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is rather difficult at this point to just understand what was provided in that resolution. It is a general resolution. It appears to me from the general tenor of the resolution that the House of Representatives in Harrisburg ought to begin to set its own house in order and attend to our own business rather than memorialize Congress to do a number of things and to pass a resolution that we do not understand. I think we ought to kill this resolution and a number of others, the contents of which we cannot hear read.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, I have a similar resolution in this House and I am going to ask the Republican members to go along with it.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this resolution memorializes Congress to pass the Frazer-Lemke bill. I myself do not know what this Frazer-Lemke bill is about, and I would ask the gentleman who introduced this resolution to inform the members of the House what the provisions of this Frazer-Lemke bill are, so that we can vote intelligently on this resolution.

Mr. NAGLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this proposed legislation under the Frazer-Lemke bill is legislation designed to help the farmer. Many of them are in such circumstances that they cannot get out from under these burdens unless our Federal Government or some other agency comes to the rescue and saves them from the clutches of unscrupulous creditors. There may be some defects found in this Senate bill and in this House bill that will have to be remedied, but no doubt that will be done. This proposed legislation will enable farmers to borrow money at the rate of one and one-half per cent interest and be permitted to pay back this money in five years, as I understand the proposition. Fifteen per cent of this amount so borrowed will be paid during the four years, and the balance of eighty-five per cent to be paid at the end of this time. This provides for such terms that the farmers in all probability will be enabled to comply with it and save their homes. Unfortunately I had with me Senate Bill No. 212, but it got away from me this morning. I have been hunting for it ever since I asked for this resolution, but unfortunately I can not find it, as it has been mislaid. I shall be glad, so far as my limited knowledge goes, to answer anything further that any one may care to ask.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, and one hundred and twenty-seven members or more than a majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution was adopted.

Ordered ,That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

INTERROGATION ON RESOLUTION NO. 104

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, on Monday, March 25th, I introduced a resolution, Serial No. 133, Resolution No. 104. I understood from the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, that that resolution was in his Committee. May I now inquire from the gentleman from Berks whether he has that resolution?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, that resolution I have had before the Ways and Means Committee, and yesterday after discussion a majority of the members voted against reporting the resolution out.

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER, asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, a week ago I introduced a resolution asking for the appointment of a committee of five members of this House to study the financial situation that confronts many of our institutions and confronts the Commonwealth for the remainder of this biennium. I am not going to take up your time to point out to you something which appeared to me, and what I think was apparent to you, that there is a crisis in the affairs of our state aided hospitals and homes, and what is undoubtedly a most urgent situation in so far as unemployment relief is concerned, or the funds for unemployment relief are concerned, for the months of April and May, completing this biennium. That resolution, because of the objection of the gentleman on the other side of the house, went to the Ways and Means Committee. You have just heard the Chairman of that committee say that the committee yesterday refused to report out that resolution. I can conceive of no reason why a committee of this House should not be appointed for that purpose unless it be true, as stated to me by the Chairman of that Committee, that there were departments or agencies of the legislature already at work on the same problem. If they are already at work on that problem, certainly their report should have been here during this week. If they were at work at the time I introduced the resolution, their report should have been in before the first of April. I can not but arrive at one conclusion, and that is that nothing seriously is being done about this matter beyond the attempt to put through the tax program, out of which they anticipate receiving some of the money that might carry us through for the rest of this biennium. But, as I pointed out to you in my statement over a week ago, most of the tax program will produce no immediate money. We need immediate money. Most of the tax program was only in the Senate a week ago. If it could have been speedily enacted, it would have produced an infinitesimal part of the money that is needed for the balance of this biennium.

The Governor of this Commonwealth went down to Washington a week ago, and he came back with the story that he had money for unemployment relief to the fifteenth of April. I have been informed that the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee has said that unless the tax program goes through by the fifteenth of April, there will be a hunger march upon the legislative halls of Harrisburg. I think that that is playing upon the hardships, that is playing upon the fears of the people of Pennsylvania, in a manner in which they should not be played upon. I think we ought to be frank and honest with the people of Pennsylvania about it and not try to get a tax program across by appealing to prejudice, by appealing to fear, and take advantage of the position in which many of our people are placed. The tax program will not produce and could not produce, and it could not be put in workable condition to produce the money that we need at the present time. There is need for this legislation. You cannot pass it on to the Executive because it is out job. It is a part of the duty for which we were elected. It is the duty of the Appropriations Committee and the Ways and Means Committee of this House, and if they do not undertake to do this duty, the other members of the House should undertake the duty and undertake to do the work, in order to find out where we can find this money; how much money is needed; what we can do to raise it and how we can raise it. We only have a week practically before the fifteenth of April. The dead line, I understand, has been set. If we are going to have any appropriations next week, if we are going to have any transfers next week, we ought to be at it now.

I, therefore, say to you that either the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee ought to come before this House and frankly state what you are doing, or you ought to report out this resolution. I put no strings on it. The Speaker can appoint the Committee. He can put all Democrats on it if he wants to. I don't care who goes on it, but what I do care about is this, that I don't believe you ought to go before the people of Pennsylvania and stir them up, stir up their prejudices, play on their fears, and then sit idly by and deny the opportunity to arrive at a sensible program that will produce the money that is needed.

Mr. Speaker, in pursuance to the remarks I have made and for the purpose of carrying out some of the objectives, I desire to offer the following resolutions and ask unanimous consent for its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

INFORMATION REQUESTED FROM DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

Mr. TURNER offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, may we have the resolution read for the information of the House?

The Resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 3rd, 1935.

Whereas, The Governor has laid before the Legislature an extensive tax program to meet the ever-appropriation liability of the present fiscal biennium and to raise sufficient revenues to meet the appropriation required for the next fiscal biennium; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Department of Revenue be directed to furnish to the House of Representatives not later than Monday, April 8th, 1935, a statement showing: (a) the effective date of each proposed tax act; (b) the dates when returns or reports are to be made under each proposed tax act; (c) the period covered by the return or report; and (d) the date each respective tax becomes due and payable.

STATEMENT BY MR. RUTH

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. SPEAKER, the condition in the Commonwealth today is open to any one. The Budget Secretary's office has made a survey and we find that the State Treasury is under two hundred thousand dollars. There are three million dollars in the motor license fund that are available for transfer. That is all of the money that is available. I also want to say that the proposition of the Federal Relief Administrator, Mr. Hopkins, was that providing we had laws on our statute books by April fifteenth the Federal Government would continue helping us, otherwise relief would be absolutely shut off on that day.

As far as a hunger march is concerned, I can only say what seems to be a fact, we all know that the unemployed are the best organized of any group in the State. If we don't know it, we should know it. We know that they have means of communication and are well organized. The Federal Government in a survey throughout the United States reports that there are about ten percent of chisellers on relief. That still leaves about nine out of every ten who are deserving and who are hungry, and they are going to be fed one way or another.

We are not trying to play on the heartstrings of the people of Pennsylvania. We are trying to play on the heartstrings of the Senate, if that were possible, but nevertheless we can only state conditions as they are as to relief, and that deadline is April 15th, a week from next Monday.

I believe that anyone who is interested can find out the condition of the state funds by going into the Budget Secretary's office, where the survey has been made.

Nevertheless we want to go along as far as we can. We are not going to get anything otherwise, and therefore, I will ask the Democratic members to go along with the resolution. We want to show everything that is possible to be shown; if there is any money hidden somewhere, we want to find it. If there is anything we can do, we want to find it out—We don't want to hamstring the people in anything that will give relief to them. We want to give relief to that nine out of ten. I am sure that if it holds true for the rest of the United States that it holds to in Pennsylvania, that the ten percent are chislers, and we are going to find out that the ten percent are going to holler louder when they don't get anything. We are very much interested in that nine out of ten who are not chislers, who are going to stop eating and who are going to stop a good many other things on April 15th if we do not provide that $5,000,000 a month for that relief program.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and consent is granted.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, if you will pardon me, I realize that we ought not to carry this along in the form of question and answer or reply to everything that is said, but I do believe that this matter is of such great importance that we ought to bring it out into the open.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not believe that this is a question that we can approach by the individual going out and digging up the figures. I have been at that work for three months. I have a large file full of such figures. I know the amounts or I have the figures on paper for the various amounts of money, the balance in the treasury and in the different funds, the appropriation liabilities, and so forth. But if I can not get a simple resolution, appointing a committee to go to work, out of the Ways and Means Committee, what good would it do for me to come here with a suggested program. We can not simply sit down here and say that because a certain thing is not done, therefore, we will throw up our hands, and the people are going to be left to starve.

As I see the problem, what we ought to do is to sit down and find out what we have to do, just exactly what moneys will be needed, just exactly what moneys may be available, and then I realize that there is going to be a gap, a large gap, that is going to take some kind of legislation, because we cannot, we dare not, sit here idly and say "We cannot raise this money, the bills are blocked some place, the tax program is held up and has not gone through, and, therefore you people will have to starve." Certainly there is enough intelligence in this House to find a way, certainly there is enough intelligence in this House, to sit around a table—some group who will be charged with the issue to devise a program, and I have confidence that if a program is brought in by a committee of five, controlled by the majority party of this House,—I have confidence that the program will have some weight and will have a chance of getting some place. At least, as far as we are concerned, we will have done our part. It is an easy thing to say you can get figures. I have got a lot of figures, but that isn't going to get any money for the people of Pennsylvania or money to take care of the institutions of the State. It can not be done by guess work. It is not the easiest thing in the world to get figures from the Commonwealth. It might sound that way to the average layman, but to get these figures you have to dig for them. They are constantly changing. Therefore, I say that ought to be the job of some group. We cannot let a day go by because next week is your last opportunity. The tax bills that are now in the program, if they are passed, will produce very little money,—the gasolene tax, amusement tax, the tobacco tax and the stamp tax,—the most that they can produce in the two months, if we have the two full months, is possibly five or six million dollars. I don't know how you are going to raise the amount of money that you need. Let us not be partisan about this. I am not being partisan, only in so far as the leadership on the other side is being partisan in these matters, but I am intensely in earnest, I feel intensely the situation and I know the catastrophe that is going to face us unless we face it now.

So, I appeal to you to get the Ways and Means Committee together and either appoint a sub committee of the Ways and Means Committee to do this, or, if you don't want my name on that resolution, put anybody else's name on it. The name of the person who presents the resolution is unimportant. Let us get some committee, some group, who will be charged with the duty and who will go to work to find this money.

STATEMENT BY MR. COHEN

Mr. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement.

Mr. Speaker, at the outset I wish to thank the gentleman from Delaware for the great amount of sincere effort he has expended on this proposition. I feel sure that if the attitude had been taken by the gentleman from Delaware prior to the introduction of the tax measures and prior to the vote thereon, his sincerety would have impressed his fellow members, and the fact that at least some of this money is required, and that we are confronted with a great and tremendous financial crisis, and that the vote of the gentleman from Delaware's colleagues on the right hand side of the House would not have been decidedly "no", in opposition to each and every tax measure that has been presented to this House for their consideration.

I appreciate the figures of the gentleman from Delaware that were submitted to this House last week I appreciate that even though those tax measures are passed, even though the Senate should act favorably upon each and every one of those tax measures, by the end of the current biennium, on May 31st, 1935, we would still be confronted with a tax deficit of approximately thirty-eight million dollars. I appreciate that the institutions in this Commonwealth, to whom we have made appropriations in the past year will not have those appropriations. I appreciate that the hospitals, the homes and all types of state aided institutions will have to delay, will have to make other provision in order for them to continue their humane activities, and I think that this House and the Administration views with a great deal of concern the problem which we have now confronting us which is how we are going to raise two things. Number one, thirty-eight million dollars, suggested by the gentleman from Delaware, which will be necessary to make up the appropriations to the various institutions to whom we have made commitments. Number two, to make adequate provision for unemployment relief for the agencies of the government, to repay the deficit, to do all of the acts, all of the provisions that are intimated can no be done by the government budget, and the two hundred and three million dollars worth of extraordinary income that we must have.

I also appreciate that last week the gentleman from Delaware intimated that our constitution is so restricted, that our constitution is so hide bound, that the Commonwealth can not go out like the ordinary business man and borrow money. I appreciate that in that statement the gentleman from Delaware has made the best argument that could have been made by any member of this House for the immediate passage of the bill of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, for the revision of our constitution.

I appreciate all those facts, but I still say that that does not allow the gentleman from Delaware to present those objections to this House. This House has done its part in the attempt to solve this problem. This House has passed measures which will least make up part, or the greater part, of the two hundred and three million dollars worth of deficit that we have to make up. This House has provided the Senate with the necessary legislation upon which they can act, and I suggest to the gentleman from Delaware County and those who are thinking along these lines that they appear not before the committee of this House, but that they appear over in the halls of the Senate and present those arguments to them.

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN

Mr. WITKIN asked for and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at the inception of this debate, I did not intend to participate. I have, however, listened to the self-glorification speech of the gentleman who has just sat down, wherein he would have it go broadcast to the State of Pennsylvania that the Democrats in the House have done their part, and that all of the responsibility by innuendo rests with the Republican Senate.

I want to say to the membership of this House, I do not think you have done your part. I think the thing was handled all wrong from the very beginning. When one sets out with a definite set idea in mind, and says to a group of representatives from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: "Here is what I propose; here is what I suggest. Don't change a dot over an 'I', don't remove a cross from a 'T'. You will take what I give you, and that is the only thing I will give you, and you are going to like it," then I say that legislation that is forced through the House by the crack of the whip and by the lash of the tongue and by every maneuver known to the crafty politician, the House of Representatives that passes such a program has not done its duty. You men knew and the Democratic majority of this House knew, that there was opposition to your program. You knew, you had a right to know, that it was going to meet with obstacles. What is the natural, what is the proper thing to do under those circumstances? Why, two or three months ago there should have been a round table conference that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, referred to, and that round table conference should have consisted of the leaders of the House, the leaders of the Senate, the leaders of both parties, and they should have sat down and they should have formulated a program, not for the benefit of the Democrats, not for the glory of the Democrats but for the people of Pennsylvania, and if you are so interested in the starving and the hungry, and you are not only interested in playing upon words, then you should have considered all these matters; you should not have forced them down our throats, you should not have compelled us to adopt without amendment a program that you yourselves never saw until it was put upon your laps. The Democratic leadership in this House had nothing to do with this program. You had no more to do with it than I had, and I had nothing to do with it. The people that gave it to you believed that they were omnipotent; they believed that they could do in the House of Representatives and the Senate of Pennsylvania that which they found out they cannot do.

Oh, you gave hearings all right. Why, those hearings you gave were a joke. Every man in the House on that committee was committed one way on those bills, no matter what the hearings developed. You might fool the people who came here and talked, but you cannot fool the men who have been here for years, and who know what those hearings were.

You talk about the Constitutional Convention. Oh, yes, there's no question about that. The gentleman from York says that we will adopt it. Why, you handed us a constitutional convention bill before it was printed, before a man read it. You shot it out of committee and you rammed it down our throats. I used the expression before, and I use it again, you aeroplaned it through; you didn't give it proper consideration; you were not interested in the hungry and the starving, or you would not have used those tactics. You thought you could do it on the other side of the House, but those men are men of deliberations.

Why don't you compromise things; why don't you try to figure out the quickest means of feeding the hungry and feeding the starving and stop looking at the glorification in the next election of the Democratic Pary?

Why, you have played partisan politics, such as we of the Republican majority during the ten years I was here never dared to do. And I repeat it to you, you look over your records and you will find out that the greatest steam roller that the Republican party ever had in the House, was a mere miniature baby compared to the amount of rush that you people with less than the majority that we had put things through in this House. But it is coming back to haunt you.

I am going to say in conclusion that it is all right to criticize, but April 15th is approaching. What ought to be done? I will tell you what I think ought to be done.

I think the stubbornness, I think the obduracy, if that is the correct word, that exists on the part of some people in this Commonwealth ought to cease; it ought to cease in the interest of putting through a program to feed the hungry and the starving. I think the people of this Commonwealth might forget or might be taught to forget the mistakes of this Democratic House, if on this date, April 3rd, somebody in this Commonwealth will be big enough, someone in this administration will be strong enough to lay aside their politics to feed the hungry and the starving and not to endeavor to continue to use the whip and the lash in order to put through an unpopular program.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if he knows of a single suggestion of compromise or an alternative measure that has been offered by the minority members of the House or the Senate for a single one of the tax measures offered by the Governor of the Commonwealth?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I do, but in order to divulge that information, I would have to break faith, and I have never done that, and never will. Now, gentlemen, in order that you may understand and not laugh because of a better answer, I want to say that when I attend a conference and that conference is attended by high officials of this State, and it is understood by everyone in that conference that what takes place in that conference will not be divulged, that I won't break faith, and you can laugh from now until hell freezes over.

ORDER OF THE DAY

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day.

The SPEAKER. The order of the day is resolutions.

RESOLUTION NO. 74

Mr. MURRIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 74, Printer's No. 418.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 4, 1935.

Whereas, There is a lack of uniformity in the methods of appraising and taxing petroleum producing property by the various taxing units of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the various petroleum producing states of the United States; and

Whereas, It is desirable that the present inequities be remedied; and

Whereas, It may be desirable and practicable to adopt uniform methods and rates of taxation upon such property by the several oil producing states; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby requests the American Legislators' Association to call a conference of the representatives of the oil producing states with a view of formulating uniform legislation and methods of taxing petroleum producing property; be it further

Resolved, That if such a conference is called, the delegates from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall consist of: a member of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker, a member of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, a member to be appointed by the Governor; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the American Legislators' Association to the Governors of the petroleum producing states, and the Presidents of the Senate and Speakers of said states, with the request that they submit it for action by the Legislature of their states.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 31

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 31, Printer's No. 380.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 28, 1935.

Whereas, Unemployment relief has heretofore generally been distributed by the State Emergency Relief Board in th form of food and clothing vouchers or orders; and

Whereas, Many persons are of the opinion that such distribution should be in the form of direct or cash relief; and

Whereas, That method of distribution is already in effect in the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny; and

Whereas, It is of paramount importance that milk be always available to the needy, particularly to the ill and to children; and

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board is able to procure milk more cheaply than destitute families can purchase it directly; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the State Emergency Relief Board be urged to continue the direct distribution of milk without regard to the method or methods which may be adopted in the distribution of relief generally; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Director of the State Emergency Relief Board of this Comonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this resolution?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Habbyshaw, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, is it the intention of the sponsor of this resolution that the State Emergency Relief Board will make contracts with a milk concern or will they get it from the local dealers in the county?

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the gentleman from Philadelphia, there is nothing in this resolution to give the State Emergency Relief Board the right to make contracts with dealers or anyone else, any more than keeping on doing just as they have been doing.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. GATES offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, is this a privileged resolution?

The SPEAKER. It is not a privileged resolution.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. J. E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. J. E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, on April 1st I introduced a resolution in this House. Would it be possible to call up that resolution now?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that the resolution is still in committee, and it would not be proper to call it up at this time.

Mr. J. E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, as that resolution concerns the adjournment of this House, would it not be a privileged resolution?

The SPEAKER. The resolution was properly referred to the Committee on Rules where it still rests.

Mr. J. E. BROWN. As this resolution concerns the adjournment of the House, was it not a privileged resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read the rule of the House for the benefit of the gentleman from Washington.

"Rule 85. All resolutions fixing the date of final adjournment or fixing the last day for introduction of bills, shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and reported therefrom before being acted upon by the House; Provided, however, That said committee shall be subject to discharge from the consideration of said resolutions the same as all other committees, in case of bills."

Mr. J. E. BROWN. This resolution did not attempt to set a date for final adjournment, except for this week. The resolution recognized the drastic needs of this Commonwealth for money on April 15. My idea in offering that resolution was that we stay on the job and attempt to raise five million dollars, which we cannot do by returning home in the middle of the week.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Washington that we are still on the job.

Mr. J. E. BROWN. The resolution then is not in order, Mr. Speaker? It is not a privileged resolution?

The SPEAKER. The resolution is not in order at this time.

Mr. SIMON in the Chair.

STATEMENT BY Mr. RUTH

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, starting where we left off a while ago, I would like to answer the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, that I am very glad to see the change of heart, and that he is willing at this time to compromise. I am very sorry for the lapse of memory that he has, that he does not remember the special session of 1934, when we came here for the purpose of raising money to prevent this deficit that we are facing now. We had a program where real partisan politics was played, where there was no chance of compromise, and during the six sessions since I have been a member of this House, I have never heard the Republican organization ask for compromise with the Democrats.

If we have learned anything by our experience in the House, it should at least signify that we are not dumb, and that we can learn, and if we have played partisan politics, as I do not believe we have—I believe we have compromised more than has ever been compromised since I have been a member of this House.

We have a program, we tried to get this program to the people, there is no alternative at all offered. The Republican State Chairman offered a month ago, the first of February, to submit an alternative program, but that has not been coming forth. The only alternative that has come forth so far is the transfer of funds from the Motor License Fund and the Game and Fish Funds. Those are funds that are paid by the people, and they are paid by a certain class for a certain purpose, and the fact of the matter is that there is not sufficient money in either fund to be of much use at the present time. We are trying to carry on, Mr. Speaker—we have been trying to carry on in a way that would be of benefit to most of the people of Pennsylvania, not alone to special interests that have so long controlled this State and have had laws passed in their favor. We are trying to put up something for the people that will be a benefit to all the people.

We are ready to compromise with any group that has something to offer that will help to solve this situation, but nothing that is merely of a partisan nature can be considered.

We do not believe that the program that has been offered by the Democratic Party is of a partisan nature. It is of a nature that will be of benefit to the majority of the people of Pennsylvania and not the minority who have had the benefits all these years. We are asking that it be considered on that plan, that we are here to compromise if there is something worthwhile offered, but as far as we have gone and almost every time we have offered some sort of compromise with the minority—we respect them, but we do believe that they should remember the sessions that have gone before. I have been here for a number of years. I call your attention to the fact that if you will look up the records of the sessions, the Liquor Session, you will find we passed House Bill No. 10. What I said on that bill was not recognized—it was even left out, but today it has come true, and ten times as bad as I said it would be. Those are the conditions you are facing, and compromise was not offered, it was not even suggested at that time by the majority. So the Democratic party feels that we have put up a program for the majority of the people; it is not for the special classes, and that is the reason we believe it has been opposed, because it is not to the benefit of the special interests that have ruled this State so long.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if I caught him correctly in his statement, "We are ready to compromise." May I ask who he means by "We"?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I mean the Democratic majority in the House and the Governor.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand then that on behalf of His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the gentleman from Berks makes the statement that he is ready to compromise with the House and the Senate on the question of his tax program?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I did not say that. I said on a program that is a real program. I mean to say a program that is offered by a minority of the House and the majority of the Senate that will be of real benefiit to the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's answer confuses me. Did I understand, in answer to my question whom the gentleman meant by "We are ready to compromise," he stated, "The Democratic majority of this House and the Governor of the Commonwealth." Was I correct in so understanding his answer?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman understood my answer with this exception; I said on a program that the minority offers that is of benefit to the majority of the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WITKIN. But, Mr. Speaker, in answering the question that he was ready to compromise, of course, before one could compromise or suggest a compromise, would there not have to be a conference?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I do not think so.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, so that when the gentleman says that the Governor and the Democratic majority of this House are ready to compromise, I now ask him whether he has the authority of His Excellency, the Governor, to offer to compromise his tax program, provided there is one submitted?

ORDER OF THE DAY

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REQUEST TO INTERROGATE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

ORDER OF THE DAY

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day.

The SPEAKER. The order of the day has been called which is bills on third reading.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask consent of the House to make a very brief statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has already called for the order of the day.

RULE 14 SUSPENDED

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, for the reason that the interrogation was taking place when the order of the day was called, it being in my opinion of the most paramount importance to the people of this Commonwealth, I now move that Rule 14, with respect to the daily order of business be suspended for the purpose of permitting me to continue with the interrogation of the majority leader of this House, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, in order to ascertain an answer to one question, whether or not he is authorized to speak on behalf of His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that he is going to effect a compromise on his tax program, and I ask for a roll call.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, having called for the order of the day, I submit there is nothing is in order but the order of the day, and that the motion made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the only way in which the interrogation is permissible is by the suspension of Rule No. 14, or the unanimous consent of the House. Therefore, the point of order is not well taken.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, representing the small minority in this House that is not interested in partisan advantage to either the majority or minority, we are perfectly willing that the conversation between the majority floor leader and the minority floor leader may be carried on at any time or place convenient to those gentlemen without taking up the time of the other 200 members of this House. I do not think there is anything to be gained by a continuation of the interrogation. We have the calendar before us; let us go ahead and finish it, and if they want to talk for the benefit of the newspapers, let them do it and issue statements, but do not take up any more of our time. Let us vote "no" on this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. BLUMBERG and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Before the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Phiadelphia, the Chair wishes to make this statement:

We have fifteen bills on the third reading calendar, and if this discussion is not carried on any length of time we can likely finish up about ten or eleven of them and thus do away with the necessity of an evening session. It is up to the House whether they want an evening session or not. There is a public hearing in the hall of the House at two o'clock so that we can only remain in session up to that time.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have just one question. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, in answer to my interrogation as to who he meant by "We are ready to compromise," answered that question by saying the Democratic majority of this House and the Governor of Pennsylvania. I now ask the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, whether he is authorized to speak for and on behalf of His Excellency, the Governor.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I am not authorized to speak for the Governor. I, as one, am willing to offer myself as an intermediary to go to the Governor, because I know that the Governor and the majority of this House have always been ready to do anything to help the people of this Commonwealth, that is, the majority of the people, and not the special interests.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have finished my interrogation. I merely want to say in reply to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, that we have discussed the merits and demerits of these bills, and the constant throwing in of the words, "special interests" my opinion is merely surplusage. But the gentleman makes a very generous offer to endeavor to be an intermediary for the purpose of effecting a compromise. I believe if the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, or any delegation of the Democratic members of this House, or anybody within the confines of this Commonwealth can persuade the parties in power to serve the interests of those who are starving and hungry, can demand that a compromise be effected, and that the stubbornness that has persisted from the time that this program was introduced down to and including this time shall cease and desist then the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, will have performed a noble duty.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 638, entitled:

An Act to amend clauses (b) and (c) of section seven, and section eight of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1216), entitled "An act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen; and providing for the licensing, regulation, and supervision of resident and nonresident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business," as amended; providing an expiration date of licenses; defining the qualifications of applicants for licensure, and providing for the examination and licensure of those who desire to engage in the occupation of real estate broker and real estate salesmen, conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction in connection therewith; and eliminating penalties for failure to renew.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 889, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and six of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 437), entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the conduct and operation of public eating and drinking places within this Commonwealth; imposing certain duties on the Department of Health of this Commonwealth and on the local health authorities; and providing penalties;" including dining cars under the provisions of this act, and making it unlawful to sleep, or to permit persons to sleep in a room where food is prepared or served.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1633, entitled:

An Act to amend section eleven of the act approved the sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred thirty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the consolidation of boroughs and the government and regulation thereof" making further regulations for the election of Justices of the Peace in such consolidated boroughs.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Longaker permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONGAKER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Longaker explain the purpose of this bill?

Mr. LONGAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is up for your consideration refers to a situation existing down in Montgomery and Bucks counties. There are two boroughs there, Telford and West Telford, one Telford lying in Bucks County, and West Telford lying in Montgomery County. The people of the two boroughs desired to consolidate, and that consolidation was effected under the Act of 1893. Now, in order to permit them to arrange whereby each portion of this borough, the one portion lying in Bucks County and the other lying in Montgomery County, can have its own Justice of the Peace, it is necessary to pass the bill that is now before you, so that when Justices of the Peace are established in the consolidated borough, one will be elected on one side and the other will be elected on the other side, so that representation will be had by the people of Montgomery County, and representation will be had by the people of Bucks County. It has no effect on other boroughs in the Commonwealth, but only applies to boroughs that have been consolidated under the Act of 1893. I will be very glad to explain the bill to any of the members. I realize it needs explanation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1478, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand seven hundred and four of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred six) entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" providing authority to township commissioners by resolution to issue certificates of indebtedness.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this act as amended is to allow commissioners of first class townships to take advantage at any time of a lower rate for money in the open or competitive market, rather than to borrow from a bank at the necessarily higher rate of interest. The amendment allows one year certificates of indebtedness to be created by resolution of the board in payments for permanent improvements or contractual obligations. Such certificates now command a lower interest rate, with a consequent saving. This issuance is provided for only in case of exhaustion of township funds.

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION No. 103 AMENDED

Mr. KANE asked and obtained the unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 3, 1935.

Resolved, That in addition to the members of the committee provided for in Resolution No. 103, Serial No. 130, adopted March 27, 1935, the Speaker is authorized to add to said committee six members who shall have the same powers as provided for in the resolution above referred, and who when appointed shall be deemed to be members thereof in all respects as if originally appointed members thereof.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE TRANSPORTATION COST OF COAL

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to the resolution just adopted the Chair appoints in addition to the Committee already appointed under resolution No. 103 Messrs. O'Neill Munley, Philips, Bernhard, Shortz and Mason.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, A resolution providing for the President of the United States of America to proclaim October 11th of each year as "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" for the observance and commemoration of the death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, is now pending in the present session of the United States Congress; and

Whereas, The 11th day of October, 1779, is the date in American history of the heroic death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, who died from wounds received on October 9th, 1779, at the siege of Savannah, Georgia; and

Whereas, The States of Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and other States of the Union, through legislative enactment, designated October 11th of each year as "General Pulaski's Memorial Day;" and

Whereas, It is fitting that the recurring anniversary of this day be commemorated with suitable patriotic and public exercises in observing and commemorating the heroic death of this great American hero of the Revolutionary War; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States of America has, by legislative enactment, designated October 11th, 1934, to be "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" in the United States of America; now, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and petition the Congress of the United States to pass, and the President of the United States to approve, if passed, the "General Pulaski's Memorial Day" resolution now pending in the United States Congress;

Resolved, That certified copies of this resolution, properly authenticated, be sent forthwith to the President of the United States, the Vice-President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and each of the United States Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, April 4, 1935

The House met at 10:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, we come to Thee this morning, our Father. We thank Thee for the rest and the health which Thou hast given us during the past night. We ask Thee to guide us in this day, that we may do our full duty to the people whom we represent and thereby honor and glorify Thy holy name. We ask it in the Master's name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday when, on motion of Mr. GERARD, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. GATES. RESOLUTION No. 114.

In the House of Representatives, April 3, 1935.

Whereas, The House of Representatives on January 30th, 1935, adopted House Resolution No. 40, providing for a committee to make an audit, inventory and investigation of the Pennsylvania Liquor Stores System, pursuant to which resolution a committee of members of this House was appointed on February 5th, and which committee devoted much time and effort in taking and recording a great volume of oral testimony; and

Whereas, It now clearly appears from said testimony that the Pennsylvania Liquor Stores System has been conducted in as efficient a manner as could reasonably be expected of so prodigious an enterprise during the first year of its existence, and that the chairman and members of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board have conducted themselves in every respect with honesty, integrity and absolute fidelity to their duties as public officers, and have set up, put in operation and carried on a commercial project of such gigantic proportions as is ordinarily brought about by private initiative only after a decade or more or experimentation and research; and

Whereas, It will serve no useful public purpose to further prolong the labors of said committee at the great cost to the Commonwealth necessarily attendant thereon; therefor, be it

Resolved, That the committee of the House of Representatives, to make a rigid audit, inventory and investigation of the operation of the liquor stores system, appointed pursuant to House Resolution No. 40, adopted January 30th, 1935, is hereby discharged, with the thanks of this Body.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call of the House be dispensed with.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of high privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of privilege.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, it would be entirely in keeping with proper procedure and in keeping with the rights of this House, having established the number of those who are absent without being excused, to send for them.

It is manifestly unfair that a hand full of men should bear the burden and the heat of the day on Thursday. It is not my intention this morning to exercise or call for the exercise of the privileges of this House. But I do wish to say that if this House remains in session on subsequent Thursdays, I shall certainly use every resource of parliamentary procedure known to me to compel the attendance of those who are absent without excuse.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Cambria will be spread upon the Journal.

RESOLUTION

FIXING LAST DAY FOR INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Mr. SOWERS offered a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 4th, 1935.

Resolved, That Thursday, April 18th, 1935, be fixed as the last day for the introduction of bills in the House of Representatives for the Regular Session of 1935.

The SPEAKER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules under Rule 85 of the House. The Chair will read the rule:

"All resolutions fixing the date of final adjournment or fixing the last day for introduction of bills, shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and reported therefrom before being acted upon by the House; Provided, however, That said committee shall be subject to discharge from the consideration of said resolutions the same as all other committees, in case of bills."

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following motion and ask that it be read for the information of the House, and I then propose to follow it with a request that Monday night at 9:30 be fixed for its consideration.

The motion was read by the clerk as follows:

Motion to discharge committees from further consideration of House Bills Nos. 1361, 1362, 1560 and Resolution No. 83 (Serial No. 100)

Moved by Mr. Sowers and seconded by Mr. Walker K. Jackson, that the Committee on Ways and Means be discharged from the further consideration of House Bill No. 1361 offered by Messrs. Sowers, Moore, Reynolds, Jackson, Gates, Merrell, Van Allsberg, Condon, Wasserman, Hart and Trout, and entitled "An Act imposing a State income tax on all residents of this Commonwealth, including fiduciaries, and on income of nonresidents derived from property or business in this Commonwealth defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof; providing for information at source; providing methods and proceedings for determination and collection of the tax and imposition of liens therefor; imposing duties on prothonotaries, sheriffs, receivers, trustees, assignees, masters and other officers, and on the Department of Revenue; prscribing penalties; and making an appropriation" and which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means on March 6, 1935, and that the same be placed upon the calendar, and further that the said committee be discharged from the further consideration of House Bill No. 1362, offered by Messrs. Sowers, Moore, Reynolds, Jackson, Gates, Merrell, Van Allsburg, Condon, Wasserman, Hart and Trout, entitled:

"An Act to amend the act approved the day of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Act No. ) entitled '"An act imposing a State income tax on all residents of this Commonwealth including fiduciaries and on income of nonresidents derived from property or business in this Commonwealth; defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof; providing for information at source; providing methods and proceedings for determination and collection of the tax and imposition of liens therefor; imposing duties on prothonotaries, sheriffs, receivers, trustees, assignees, masters and other officers and on the Department of Revenue; and prescribing penalties" by classifying taxpayers according to their abilities to maintain themselves on their incomes; graduating the income taxes according to such classes; and allowing deductions on account of living expenses" and which was referred to the Committee on ways and Means on March 6, 1935. from further consideration of the Bill and the Bill be placed on the calendar, and,

Further, that the Committee on State Government be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 1560, offered by Mr. Sowers, entitled "An Act providing for the selection of employes in the Department of Revenue for the administration of an income tax law, or laws by competitive examinations" and referred to the Committee on State Government on March 14, 1935, and be placed on the calendar, and Further, thata the Committee on Ways and Means be discharged from further consideration of Resolution No. 83 (Serial No. 100, Legislative Journal Page 969) offered by Mr. Sowers and entitled "Secretary of Revenue to estimate revenue that would be produced by House Bills 1361 and 1362, also amount required to finance Old Age Pensions at different ages" and which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means on March 6, 1935, from further consideration of the Resolution, and same be placed on the calendar.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTION TO MAKE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the motion to discharge committees from further consideration of bills be made a special order of business for Monday night at 9:30 o'clock.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia was at my desk yesterday and asked me about Resolution No. 83 and House Bills 1361 and 1362. I promised him that we would take it up at the next meeting of the Ways and Means Committee, which will in all probability be held Tuesday morning. Therefore, I urge the members of the House to vote down this motion.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, it is true that I called the Chairman's attention to the resolution yesterday, but it is also true that the resolution was offered on March 6th, but I would like to state that offering this motion is calling the Chairman's attention to it.

The income tax bills referred to in the resolution were offered a month ago, and certainly the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee and the Ways and Means Committee had some notice of it long before yesterday, and it seems to me that in fairness to every one and to give every one an opportunity to study them, I am now giving notice that the matter will be called up next Monday night. If you want to vote down the motion to discharge, vote it down after you have studied it, but don't vote it down before you study it. I repeat, if you are for an income tax bill, then vote for this motion to make a special order, and if you are against an income tax bill, vote against this motion.

I ask for a roll call, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BOYER. I second the request for a roll call.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Committee of State Government, I wish to state that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, never discussed nor met the committee relative to House bill No. 1560. For that reason I join with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth in asking that this motion be voted down.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, the motion is out of order because it is an omnibus motion to discharge the committee from the consideration of more than one bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman's point of order is well taken. I merely wanted to call the public's attention to the fact that we have done nothing to pass an income tax bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken.

EMERGENCY TAX LEGISLATION

Mr. BURKE offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 4, 1935.

Whereas, The House of Representatives has been greatly concerned over the existing relief crisis; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives in its great concern, immediately directed its energies to the introduction and passage of many measures to meet this existing crisis; and

Whereas, To the astonishment of every one, these various measures were either defeated in the Senate or held back in the Senate committees; and

Whereas, It was hoped that the Senate would in time grasp the seriousness of the existing emergency and would pass the bills; and

Whereas, The minority party of the House now takes cognizance of the gravity of the emergency situation as was evidenced by the feeling address of the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Turner; and

Whereas, It was agreed on all sides that the studied address of the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Turner, was in the wrong chamber; therefore be it

Resolved, That the gentleman from Delaware County, Mr. Turner, at the earliest pssible moment, address the Senate on the immediate necessity of passing the emergency tax legislation, so that the same may become laws and thereby provide immediate funds to meet the relief demand, and to assure the people of this State that no one shall starve. This is now the responsibility of the Senate.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I naturally, with my modest disposition, hesitate to arise at this time and have anything at all to say with reference to this resolution. I thank the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, for the complimentary remarks. I trust that he will have a copy of this resolution sent to the Chester Times and the Democratic papers in our county, and I would ask that the Republicans do not object to the immediate consideration of this resolution were it not for the fact that the resolution, like so many other things in this House, is based upon a false promise. It is based on the promise that the program would relieve the immediate situation. The tax program will not do that. If it would, I would do everything that I could to get it passed.

Therefore, for the reasons stated so briefly by myself and in such a retiring manner, I object to immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections and consent is not granted. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

WELCOMING PENNSYLVANIA FEDERATION OF DEMOCRATIC WOMEN

Miss BRANCATO offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April t, 1935.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women is holding its Ninth Annual Convention in Harrisburg, and

Whereas, This distinguished group of women have carried on the spirit of Democracy through many dark years in this great Commonwealth, and

Whereas, This year finds them coming to the Capitol with light and happy hearts, for now the glorious fruitation of their efforts is theirs in having a Democratic Governor and Cabinet and a Democratic House of Representatives, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives welcomes them most heartily to the Capitol and trusts their convention will be most successful and enjoyable; and be it further

Resolved, That the House of Representatives wishes to express to the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women its keen appreciation for the many years of devotion expressed by these women for the high and noble principles of Democracy and for the constant assistance given by them to all in the formation of prosperous homes and a happy people.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS TO MEET DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained consent of the House for the Committee on Ways and Means to meet during the session of the House at the rear of the Hall of the House.

RESOLUTION NO. 110

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 110, Printer's No. 502.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas A number of investigating committees have been created by the House of Representatives to investigate the affairs of local relief boards in particular counties and

Whereas It is apparent from the widespread dissatisfaction that some inherent defect exists in the present system of relief distribution and that enormous sums of public money are being expended and are requested for the next fiscal biennium when no taxpayer appears to be assured that such expenditures are actually needed and

Whereas Taxpayers are demanding that the light of publicity be thrown upon the whole system of distributing public relief and that some system be devised to call from the list of recipients of relief those who are unworthy those who abuse the aid extended to them and those who paint false pictures of economic conditions in order to fasten a dole system foreign to American traditions on the body politic and

Whereas The system of investigating relief distribution in particular localities while beneficial to the locality affected fails to approach the task of placing relief upon a sound Statewide business basis whereby red tape may be eliminated and those actually in need aided in a manner suitable to an American citizen therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur That the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall each appoint three members of their respective Houses whose duty it shall be (a) to make a searching and impartial study and investigation of the distribution of public relief throughout this Commonwealth (b) to ascertain whether and in what respect the present system is open to abuse (c) to ascertain whether additional legal safeguards should be provided (d) to ascertain whether appropriations for relief may be reduced (e) to collate and digest reports of other investigating committees and (f) to investigate such other facts and circumstances as may be deemed necessary and advisable to enable the General Assembly to act with some degree of certainty and establish an impartial unpolitical unwasteful and business system of aiding those of our unfortunates in need and of eradicating and punishing those who take advantage of distressing economic conditions for their personal selfish ends whether as recipients of relief or as distributors thereof.

Resolved That said committee shall make a report of its findings to this General Assembly as early as possible

Resolved That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the court of this Commonwealth Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 107

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 107, Printer's No. 503.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 27, 1935.

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board has created a Lehigh County Relief Board to administer the relief funds made available for said county; and

Whereas, The Department of Labor and Industry has established a State employment office in the City of Allentown, Lehigh County; and

Whereas, There have been numerous complaints of gross abuse of the discretionary power and authority vested in the Lehigh County Relief Board and in the State employment office at Allentown, and it is reported that certain groups and individuals have been discriminaed against; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of three Members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to make a rigid investigation of the conduct and operation of the Lehigh County Relief Board and of the Allentown State employment office, and to investigate such facts and circumstances surrounding the conduct of such board and office as it deems necessary for the information of the House of Representatives;

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives during this session as early as possible;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE LEHIGH COUNTY RELIEF BOARD

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the provisions of Resolution No. 107, just adopted, the Chair appoints the following committee to investigate the Lehigh County Relief Board; Messrs. McDermott, Holstrom and Rinn.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE LAWRENCE COUNTY RELIEF BOARD

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to the provisions of Resolution No. 111, the Chair appoints the following committee to investigate the operation and conduct of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board: Messrs. Eroe, Kelso, William G. Smith, Dilley and Klingler.

RESOLUTION NO. 81

Mr. FITCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 81, Printer's No. 501.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 6, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government, in order to alleviate unemployment, is developing various public works; and

Whereas, There are thousands of dangerous grade crossings in populous centers; and

Whereas, The removal and elimination of these dangerous grade crossings would give thousands of unemployed men, useful employment; and

Whereas, The removal and elimination of these dangerous grade crossings would create great demands for timber, stone, iron, cement and other building materials and would thereby increase employment in all these related industries; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully memoralize the President of the United States to consider the advisability and feasibility of including within the public works program the removal and elimination of dangerous grade crossings within the State of Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, If the Governor approve this resolution, he be respectfully requested to urge upon the President the removal and elimination of all grade crossings in Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. ANDREWS in the chair.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that House Bill No. 1032, Printer's No. 475, on page 20 of today's calendar, bills on third reading be passed over in its order.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1070, as follows:

An Act to amend sections five hundred and four seven hundred and one and clause fifteen of section one thousand five hundred and two of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred six) entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" requiring one years residence in the township for the commissioner elected from a ward regulating the terms of office of certain commission officers and providing for a special tax on fire districts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections five hundred and four seven hundred and one and clause fifteen of section one thousand five hundred and two of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred six) entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 504 Number and Election of Commissioners in Townships Having Wards In townships having less than five wards the number of commissioners shall be five One such commissioner shall be elected from each ward and the remaining number of commissioners to which the township is entitled shall be elected at large In townships having five or more wards one commissioner shall be elected from each ward Commissioners shall reside in the ward from which elected and shall have resided in said township continuously for at least one year before their election Township commissioners shall be elected at municipal elections preceding the expiration of the terms of commissioners then in office for terms of four years each from the first Monday of January succeeding their election At the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one the commissioners from odd-numbered wards shall be elected and at the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three those from even-numbered wards shall be elected Elections at large shall be held at the municipal election preceding the expiration of the term of any commissioner elected at large

Section 701 Organization Failure to Organize The township commissioners shall organize on the first Monday of January of each even-numbered year They shall assemble for such purpose at their place of meeting at seven-thirty o'clock post meridian Until otherwise designated by ordinance the place of meeting shall be the oldest polling place in the township

The board shall organize by the election of one of their number as president and one as a vice president who as long as they continue to be commissioners shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified The president or in his absence the vice president shall preside at all meetings of the board and perform such other duties as are specified in this act or which may be prescribed by ordinance

If a majority of the commissioners shall not attend at the organization meeting those present may adjourn the meeting day to day until a majority attend

If the township commissioners of any township shall fail to organize within ten days from the time prescribed by this section the court of quarter sessions upon the petition of ten taxable inhabitants verified by the affidavit of five of the petitioners shall issue a rule upon the delinquent or delinquent to show cause why their seats should not be declared vacant The rule shall be returnable not less than five days from the time of its issue and after hearing the court may declare the seats of any delinquent vacant and appoint others in their stead to hold office until a successor is elected for the unexpired term at the next municipal election occurring at least sixty days thereafter

XV Fire and Water Districts Bond Issues and Taxes To create by ordinance fire and water districts in any portion or portions of townships when in their opinion the same is necessary for the safety and convenience of the inhabitants of said township to issue bonds restricted to the districts so created for the purpose of procuring and maintaining the necessary supply of water to said district and to levy such special tax restricted to said district as may be necessary to redeem any bonds so issued In lieu of the foregoing provisions relating to the issue of bonds the township commissioners may charge for any such water supply by an assessment of a special water or fire tax on all properties located in the water or fire district which tax shall be based on the assessmen for county purposes as established for general taxation Such tax may be levied for a single year or for a term of years as the township commissioners may determine but in the case of fire districts shall not exceed two mills per annum and shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes Provided also That in lieu of the foregoing provisions that in all cases where said township shall have established a water system and shall construct main water lines in said township the board of township commissioners may charge the cost of construction of any municipal water lines or lateral lines upon any streets alleys and thoroughfares adjacent to main lines or such portion of the cost of construction as the board may deem proper upon the properties benefited or accommodated thereby The ordinance providing for such charge shall be adopted by the board within six months from date of the final completion of such system of water lines Said charges shall be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this act for the assessment and collection of charges for the construction of sewers

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

SENATE

MONDAY, April 8, 1935.

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O Lord, our God, after another week-end, with its varied diversions, we are met in Thy Providence to resume the responsibilities confronting the Legislature of this great Commonwealth. During the time which has elapsed since last we assembled in this place of beauty and of duty we have had opportunity to rest, to reflect, to perform home tasks and to worship Thee, our God.

Grant, our Father, that the members of this Senate may now face the duties of the present hour and a new week with an eager desire to learn Thy will and a firm determination to do it. Speak unto them, lead them, use them as instruments by which Thou mayest accomplish Thy great purposes in the economy of government and civilization.

Bless our nation and its Executive Head, our State and its Governor; honor Thy name through what we are and what we do as civic leaders of America and Pennsylvania.

This our prayer is offered in the name of Thy Son and our Saviour, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HUNSICKER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH OF OFFICE TO SENATOR-ELECT ANDREW J. SORDONI

The PRESIDENT. The official returns and certification of the election of November 6, 1934, of Honorable Andrew J. Sordoni as Senator from the Twentieth Senatorial District were transmitted to the Senate by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and read on Tuesday, January 1st. Senator Sordoni has been prevented by illness from taking his seat but is present tonight to assume his duties. The Chair appoints the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Howell, and the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, to escort Senator-elect Sordoni to the bar of the Senate where the oath will be administered by Judge John E. Fox, Additional Law Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, we have the honor to present the Senator-elect from Luzerne, Mr. Andrew J. Sordoni.

The oath of office accordingly was administered.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE STATE OF COLORADO

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication which was referrd to the Committee on Interstate Cooperation:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

State of Colorado, Denver, April 1, 1935.

James H. Carr, Secretary of State.
William B. McClean, Deputy.
Honorable Thomas Kennedy,
Lieutenant-Governor,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

We are enclosing herewith copy of Senate Joint Resolution No. 10, adopted by our State Legislature, with the respectful request that a similar resolution be enacted by the Legislature of your State.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES H. CARR, Secretary of State.
W. E. ALEXANDER, Chief Clerk.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 10

BY SENATORS AFFOLTER AND KNOUS

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE THIRTIETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF COLORADO, THAT:

1. There is hereby established the Colorado Commission on Interstate Cooperation, whose function it shall be to perfect the participation of this State in the Council of State Governments, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining governmental machinery to facilitate communication, negotiation, understanding and cooperation between the State of Colorado and the other states of the Union, both regionally and nationally.

2. The said Commission shall be composed of fifteen members, namely:

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate, President Talbot, Senators Knous, Affolter, Hill and Elliott, heretofore appointed by the American Legislators Association:

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation of the House of Representatives, Representatives Smith, England, Hallen, Constantine and Strain, heretofore appointed by the American Legislators Association;

Five officials of the state named by the Governor.

3. The commission shall report to the Governor and to the Legislature on the first day of each regular legislative session, and at such other times as it deems proper. The Commission shall meet and select a chairman and a secretary. The members of the Commission shall serve without compensation. Meetings shall be called at the request of the Governor and the chairman of said Commission.

4. The said Committees of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, hereby or heretofore established, shall be standing committees, and their members shall be designated as are the members of other standing committees. These committees shall function during the regular sessions of the legislature, and also during the interim periods between such sessions; their members shall serve until their successors designated; and they shall constitute the Colorado Councils of the American Legislators Association.

5. The Secretary of State of Colorado shall forthwith communicate the text of this measure to the Governor and to the legislature of each of the other states of the Union, with the respectful request that each legislature shall enact a measure similar to this resolution, thus establishing a similar commission with like duties and powers, and thus joining with this state in the common cause of reducing the burdens which are imposed upon our citizens by governmental confusion, competition and conflict.

RAY H. TALBOT, President of Senate.
M. J. WALSH, Secretary of Senate.

MOSES E. SMITH, Speaker of House of Representatives.
John T. Doyle, Chief Clerk.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. OWLETT. Because the Senate of Pennsylvania has refused to become a mere rubber stamp for the purpose of rushing through the Legislature Governor Earle's tax program he has seen fit, over the radio, to predict dire disaster to the State. He suggests the possibility of martial law and demands the defeat of all who oppose him, saying "if they want war they shall have it."

It seems to me most unfortunate that the Chief Executive of our state in his desperation over the defeat of one of his tax bills is willing to lend himself and the influence of his office to the demagogues who are preaching class hatred throughout our land. If the time has come when representatives elected by the people are not to be permitted to exercise their calm, unbiased judgment in passing on proposed legislation, the fate of our democracy is in doubt.

The Governor states that Pennsylvania stands disgraced before the entire nation and he decries what he terms "the past forty years of misrule." I am proud of Pennsylvania and I maintain, Mr. President, that Pennsylvania's history and its contributions to the welfare of the nation during these past forty years constitute a record of which every true Pennsylvanian can be proud. It seems to me in somewhat bad taste to thus malign the state which furnished the opportunity to his father to amass the fortune upon which he is now living, and from which, by his own statement, he contributed more than $140,000 to be elected to the office which he now holds. I have confidence, Mr. President, in the good sense and sound judgment of the people of Pennsylvania and I know that they will not be led into revolution by such ill-considered appeals.

That the Senate of Pennsylvania is justified in carefully scrutinizing the Governor's budget and in refusing to be stamped into blindly adopting his whole program is very forcibly illustrated by the statement made today by State Treasurer Waters. Mr. Waters points out facts which indicate that there has been a gross underestimate of the revenues to be expected during the next biennium from the tax sources that are now operative under the law, I quote the State Treasurer: "I believe that the estimate of income as contained in the budget now before the Legislature to be realized from existing taxes is $20,000,000 below what may reasonably be expected in the next two years from these sources."

An examination of the Governor's budget, Mr. President, shows the following: On page four we note that the Governor estimates revenue from present tax laws and other sources for the 1935-37 biennium, the detail of which is carried on page forty-seven of the budget, in the amount of $128,388,995. The 1933-35 estimate on these same sources amounted to $153,795.872. The actual amount collected to March 30, 1935, from these existing sources have been $140,250,000. With the same diligence during the two months yet remaining of the biennium the budget estimate of $153,795,872 will be more than reached.

With the spending of nearly $5,000,000,000 by the Federal Government in prospect we must certainly conclude, if there is any efficacy in such spending, that revenues during the two years ahead will be at least as great as during the two years just past. Yet the Governor sees fit to submit to the Legislature a budget estimate amounting to $25,406,877 less. Surely the State Treasurer's estimate that the budget has been short-changed by $20,000,000 is conservative.

Let us analyze a few of the items which go to make up the budget estimates:

1. "Taxes on Capital Stock, Shares and Loans," were estimated for the 1933-35 biennium at $53,555,000. Collections for the past twenty-two months were $52,228,000, leaving less than $1,300,000 to be collected from this source during the next two months. The average monthly collections under this item for the biennium thus far amount to approximately $2,500,000. Yet the Governor estimates taxes from this source for the 1935-37 biennium at $47,645,000, a drop of $5,900,000.

2. "Gross Receipts Tax on Transportation, Power and Transmission." The 1933-35 biennium estimated $6,232,000, while actual collections for twenty-two months, to March 30th of the present year, amounted to $5,190,000, while collections from this source for the next two months will surely bring the total up to, if not over, the budget estimates. Yet the Governor, for 1935-37, says we will get only $5,500,000.

3. "Inheritance Taxes." The 1933-35 budget estimated $30,544,000 and the actual collections to March 30, 1935, amount to $29,000,000. Our average monthly collections from this source have been in excess of $1,000,000. There is no question that the actual collections will reach the estimate for this biennium, yet we note the Governor in his budget for 1935-37 makes a reduction of $5,000,000 in inheritance tax receipts.

Mr. President, I have no hesitancy in saying that from the figures of the Commonwealth, which are matters of public record, the revenues from existing tax sources will certainly reach as high a figure as was estimated for the current biennium, a figure which will be reached if not surpassed at the end of the fiscal period, May 31, 1935.

Surely Governor Earle has little confidence in returning prosperity when he estimates our income $25,000,000 under the actual receipts of the past biennium.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, you and the members of this Senate, will recall that on March 25th of this year I rose to a question of personal privilege as a preface to the presentation of a motion demanding the immediate discharge of the Committee on Constitutional Changes.

Since that date additional exigencies have been engendered and greater imperilment has been cast over many needed public measures.

Tonight, Mr. President, the common people of this great Commonwealth, whether in hovel, field, or shop, stand agape with consternation and wondering what next day may be the tiding from beneath this Capitol Dome.

I wish to God we could portray, tonight, the needs and wants of our bewildered people upon the screen of our understanding.

As we sit here tonight, surely our consciousness dictates that the public's patience is not infinite but that if it be sufficiently abused its vengeance is certain.

The history of mankind teaches that the culminations of an abused public patience have often soaked with gore the guillotine and stretched with hangman's skill the unyielding neck.

Prudence warns, Mr. President, that I shall not wait until that public patience is exhausted before I raise my voice in protest.

My neck I deem was never made to feast the guillotine, nor unprotestingly to grace the hangman's noose.

The necks of men, I deem, were made to hold aloft the head wherein the God of Nature lit the spark of reason that marks the realm where man begins and beast departs.

It is fitting that we take consolation from the fact that on this Senate floor there have stood in years past men of noted abilities who knew how to use the contents of their heads to solve the problems of their times.

The common people of this Commonwealth are tonight, no doubt, wondering whether we, of the present, can do the same to solve the problems of our times.

Let us, Mr. President, have implicit regard for the integrity of this Senate.

Let us bask arrogantly in the buoyancy of Senatorial dignity and integrity.

Let us strut about this Senate floor in turkey gobbler fashion.

Let us regard our Senatorial seats with peacock eyes.

But, after we have consummated all this vanity, let us condescend to the level of common men so that we may be better able to receive and solve the problems of our people.

Though extremely jealous of our own Senatorial integrity and dignity, we have not hesitated upon the floor of this Senate to flaunt, defame, deride, ridicule and vituperate the integrity and dignity of all other branches of our government that do not respond with servility to the expediencies of our own whims and caprices.

Upon the floor of this Senate, we have heard the tongue of party spirit and party chief hurl salvo after salvo of captious abuse against the integrity and dignity of our Federal Administration.

Upon this Senate floor our Senatorial integrity and dignity has held in ridicule and contempt the honest efforts of our State Administration to solve with justice and wisdom the troubled problems that confront our Commonwealth.

A fortnight or so ago the integrity and dignity of the House of Representatives was unwarrantedly and sophistically attacked on the floor of this Senate.

Last week the sincerity of a member of this body was questioned when he sought in a constitutional and parliamentary way to offer a necessary amendment to a bill then under consideration.

It appears as though the mind of Longfellow was belaboring with a situation akin to the one before us when he penned these beautiful verses of Hiawatha:

"Never stoops the soaring vulture
On his quarry in the desert
But another vulture watching
From his high arial look-out
Sees the downward plunge and follows,
And a third pursues the second
Coming from the invisible ether,
First a speck and then a vulture
Till the air is dark with pinions.
So disasters come not singly,
But, as if they watched and waited,, ,
When the first descends the others follow,
Follow flock-wise around their victim sick and wounded,
First a shadow and then a sorrow
Till the air is dark with anguish."

It must be alarming, Mr. President, to our constituents to behold how deeds of parliamentary insobriety pursue each other flock-wise on the floor of this Senate.

For a time it seemed as though the crowning abuse of parliamentary integrity and dignity was reached several weeks ago when the sincerity of the President of this august body was mangled beneath parliamentary insolence for committing to a certain committee a particular bill.

Not only was that a deliberate attack upon the integrity of the President of this body but, it was also a malicious taint upon the integrity of the committee that considered and reported the bill to the floor of this Senate.

But the acme of parliamentary enormity is now being groomed for unleashment upon the harassed, tax-burdened and poverty-stricken people of this Commonwealth.

Not many days ago the halls of this chamber vibrated with the sonorous notes of that enchanting refrain entitled "compromise", sung in masterly operatic style by the Republican Lorelei, under the deleterious baton of obstinate Republican predatory party spirit.

Mr. President, the patriot with literary mood has written that "They enslave their children's children who make compromise with sin," While another in moral mood cries out

"They betray their lawful duty who make compromise with crime."

Mr. President, cries of "compromise" on the floor of this Senate must of course breed in the minds of the public suspicion and anxiety.

Sincerity admits no compromise, Justice repudiates compromise, and honesty needs no compromise.

Do the gentlemen who cry "compromise" and those who are moved by the "spirit of compromise" on the floor of this Senate doubt the sincerity, justice and honesty of His Excellency, the Governor, in offering a program to ease the burdens of our people?

Do these gentlemen question the integrity and dignity of His Excellency in the discharge of his constitutional duties to the people of this Commonwealth?

If these gentlemen would alleviate the suspicion and anxiety of the public whose patience they brazenly flaunt, they should, in the words of my colleague from Centre County, "show us the horse which they expect to swap."

On what is their offer of compromise predicated?

Shall we say that they will compromise on the program if His Excellency will shake into their laps a few plums from the patronage tree?

Or shall we say that they will compromise on the program if His Excellency will emasculate his tax program so that capital and other predatory interests may continue to escape their just share of taxation?

Is the horse they want to swap the white elephant they have kept hitched at the public trough for many years?

Mr. President, these cries of "compromise" need explanation.

These matters blacken the integrity and dignity of this Senate and its sincere members.

Let us not wait until the abused public moves with sternness to vindicate its sovereign rights.

Let us set aside our partisan stubbornness.

Let us cease this studious abuse of parliamentary integrity and dignity.

Let us accept the common people's approval of His Excellency's tax-program.

L. 624), entitled "Banking Code" by further providing for the powers and limitations upon the acts of corporations and persons authorized to engage in a banking or a fiduciary business, or both, and of affiliates of such corporations or persons, and of officers, directors, trustees, and employes of such corporations and persons.

Which was committed to the Committee on Banking.

MEMORIALIZING THE PRESIDENT TO CONSIDER THE ELIMINATION OF GRADE CROSSINGS IN THE PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAM

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, March 6, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government, in order to alleviate unemployment, is developing various public works; and

Whereas, There are thousands of dangerous grade crossings in populous centers; and

Whereas, The removal and elimination of these dangerous grade crossings would give thousands of unemployed men useful employment; and

Whereas, The removal and elimination of these dangerous grade crossings would create great demands for timber, stone, iron, cement and other building materials and would thereby increase employment in all these related industries; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully memorialize the President of the United States to consider the advisibility and feasibility of including within the public works program the removal and elimination of dangerous grade crossings within the State of Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, If the Governor approve this resolution, he be respectfully requested to urge upon the President the removal and elimination of all grade crossings in Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLIC RELIEF THROUGHOUT THE COMMONWEALTH

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1935.

Whereas, A number of investigating committees have been created by the House of Representatives to investigate the affairs of local relief boards in particular counties; and

Whereas, It is apparent, from the widespread dissatisfaction, that some inherent defect exists in the present system of relief distribution, and that enormous sums of public money are being expended and are requested for the next fiscal biennium when no taxpayer appears to be assured that such expenditures are actually needed; and

Whereas, Taxpayers are demanding that the light of publicity be thrown upon the whole system of distributing public relief and that some system be devised to cull from the list of recipients of relief those who are unworthy, those who abuse the aid extended to them, and those who paint false pictures of economic cconditions in order to fasten a dole system, foreign to American traditions, on the body politic; and

Whereas, The system of investigating relief distribution in particular localities, while beneficial to the locality affected, fails to approach the task of placing relief upon a sound State-wide business basis, whereby red tape may be eliminated and those actually in need aided in a manner suitable to an American citizen; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall each appoint three members of their respective Houses, whose duty it shall be (a) to make a searching and impartial study and investigation of the distribution of public relief throughout this Commonwealth, (b) to ascertain whether, and in what respect, the present system is open to abuse, (c) to ascertain whether additional legal safeguards should be provided, (d) to ascertain whether appropriations for relief may be reduced, (e) to collate and digest reports of other investigating committees, and (f) to investigate such other facts and circumstances as may be deemed necessary and advisable to enable the General Assembly to act with some degree of certainty and establish an impartial, unpolitical, unwasteful, and business system of aiding those of our unfortunates in need and of eradicating and punishing those who take advantage of distressing economic conditions for their personal selfish ends, whether as recipients of relief or as distributors thereof.

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report of its findings of this General Assembly as early as possible.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the followingbill had passed both Houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 169, entitled:

An Act to validate certain proceedings for municipal improvements, municipal assessments, municipal claims and municipal liens, in the several cities of the third class, boroughs, and townships of the first class of this Commonwealth, and validating such improvements, assessments, claims, and liens; providing for the filing of claims and liens therefor, and the proceedings for the collection of such assessments, claims, and liens.

COMMUNICATION

The CHAIR laid before the Senate the following communication, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

State Senate,
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania..
Gentlemen:

The Unemployed League, Inc., and the Citizens' Vigilance Association, representing tens of thousands of men, women and children throughout this Commonwealth—all of them the unfortunate victims of economic conditions beyond their control—have viewed with grave misgivings the tactics of delay and obstruction which have characterized the actions of the Republican majority in the State Senate.

Our organizations have waited patiently, for many weeks, in the hope that the Senate majority would be impelled, by considerations of common humanity, to declare a moratorium on politics during the crisis which our Commonwealth faces.

Instead the Senate has become the slaughter house for all measures proposed by the Administration and passed by the House of Representatives. In the face of universal distress, the members of the Senate have ruthlessly butchered measures drafted to provide food for the hungry and shelter for the homeless.

We have waited for the Senate, if it opposed the Administration's program, to present a substitute program. No such program has appeared, although it was promised weeks ago by supposedly responsible Republican leaders.

We are forced to conclude that the Senate majority does not intend to provide an alternative program, and we respectfully submit that Federal relief will stop in this State on April 15th—only one week hence—unless the Legislature demonstrates by enacting tax legislation that Pennsylvania will pay her share.

Therefore we, the unemployed, demand that the members of the Senate lay aside partisanship, give heed to the sufferings of the poor, and immediately enact the revenue measures which have been proposed by His Excellency, George H. Earle, Governor of the Commonwealth.

We make this demand in the name of justice and common humanity.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 139, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four and seventeen of the act approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 149), entitled "An act imposing a State tax, payable by those herein defined as distributors, on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth, which are ordinarily, practically, and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power; providing for the collection and lien of the tax, and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof; requiring such distributors to secure permits, to file corporate surety bonds and reports, and to retain certain records; imposing duties on retail dealers, common carriers, county commissioners, and such distributors; providing for rewards; imposing certain costs on counties; conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments; providing for refunds; imposing penalties; and making an appropriation," by providing for refunds of taxes paid on liquid fuels, consumed for purposes other than the operation of motor vehicles on the public highways of this Commonwealth and providing penalties.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections four and seventeen of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4 Imposition of Tax Exemptions and Deductions A State tax of three cents a gallon or fractional part thereof is hereby imposed and assessed upon all liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by distributors within this Commonwealth excepting liquid fuels delivered to the United States government on presentation of a duly authorized United States government exemption certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the department and such liquid fuels used or sold and delivered as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States Provided That the tax herein imposed and assessed shall be collected by and paid to the Commonwealth but once in respect to any liquid fuels

[Distributors shall be liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the tax imposed by this act]

The tax imposed by this section shall be payable by the distributor but shall be borne by the last purchaser and the payment by the distributor shall be deemed to have been for the account of such purchaser However the intent of this act is to place the ultimate burden resulting from such tax so far as possible on persons who use the public highways of the Commonwealth for operating motor vehicles thereon on persons who operate motor boats on the waters of this Commonwealth or the boundaries thereof and on persons who operate air craft over this Commonwealth and to that end provisions for refunds are made hereinafter where the tax has been paid by a distributor on liquid fuels used for other purposes

The tax shall be payable upon liquid fuels sold and delivered to or used by the Commonwealth and every political subdivision thereof

Each distributor who shall promptly pay on or before the last day of a particular month the tax due for the preceding month shall be allowed in consideration of leakage spillage shrinkage evaporation and any expense to which he may be put in carrying out the provisions of this act a discount of two per centum on the aggregate amount of tax which is payable by the distributor for such preceding month The discount may be deducted by the distributor from the amount of tax payable for such month

Section 17 Refunds The Board of Finance and Revenue may refund to distributors taxes penalties and interest paid by them on liquid fuels delivered to the United States government or paid as the result of an error of law or of fact or of both law and fact Claims for such refunds shall be made under the procedure prescribed by The Fiscal Code

Any person who shall buy liquid fuels on which the tax imposed by this act shall have been paid and shall consume the same in any manner except in the operation of a motor vehicle upon or over the highways or motor boats on waters or air craft through the air of this Commonwealth shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of such tax All such claims for refund shall be made by affidavit in such form and containing such information and be presented within such time as the Board of Finance and Revenue by rules and regulations shall prescribe and the claimant shall satisfy the board that he has borne the tax and that the liquid fuels have been consumed by him in a manner other than in the operation of a motor vehicle upon or over any of the highways or a motor boat on the waters or aircraft through the air of this Commonwealth The board may require such further information or proof as it shall deem necessary Any person making any false or fraudulent affidavit for the purpose of a refund of the tax shall be guilty of perjury

All refunds of moneys allowed hereunder shall be paid from the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund in amounts equal to the original distribution and payment of such moneys into said funds

As much of the moneys from time to time in the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Board of Finance and Revenue for the purpose of making refunds as herein authorized Estimates of the amounts to be expended from these funds for refunds from time to time by the board shall be submitted to the Governor for his approval or disapproval as in the case of other appropriations to administrative departments boards and commissions and it shall be unlawful for the Auditor General to honor any requisition of the Board of Finance and Revenue for the expenditure of moneys hereunder in excess of the estimates approved by the Governor

On the question,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 222, as follows:

An Act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county city borough township school and poor purposes in counties of the second class and abolishing the existing board for the assessment and revision of taxes the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the city assessor in cities of the third class in such counties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pnnsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in each county of the second class there is hereby created a board to be designated as the board for the assessment and revision of taxes composed of nine persons citizens of the county The members of such board shall be appointed by the county commissioners of such county and shall hold their office for the term of four years from the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and the county commissioners shall fill all vacancies in the board for the unexpired term thereof Each member of such board shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars per annum payable monthly out of the treasury of the county

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in each county of the second class to make and to have supervision of the making of all assessments and valuations of property whether real or personal taxable for county or city purposes and of all lists of residents and inhabitants as required by existing law

Section 3 The said board shall divide the county into convenient districts and shall appoint one subordinate assessor for each of said districts The subordinate assessors shall receive such compensation as the salary board shall fix The board shall have the right to appoint such clerk as the salary board of the county may allow for the proper discharge of the duties of said board All salaries herein provided for shall be fixed by the salary board and all such salaries and all other expenses in connection with the making of assessments under the provisions of this act shall be paid out of the county treasury

Section 4 The subordinate assessors shall make the assessment and valuations of all property taxable for county and city purposes together with a list of all persons within their respective districts as provided by existing law and in so doing shall view all property in their district taxable for such purposes and in cities of the second class shall classify all real estate in such cities in such manner and upon such testimony as may be adduced before them so as to distinguish between the buildings on land and the land exclusive of the buildings The subordinate assessors shall make a personal house-to-house canvass of their district in order that such lists of persons may be accurate and correct in so far as it is possible to so make them All such assessors who shall fail to make such assessments and lists in the manner as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and in default of the payment of such fine and costs to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding ninety days

Section 5 The subordinate assessors shall make such assessments of property and occupations each year preceding the triennial assessment in such counties and shall file the same with the board for the assessment and revision of taxes on or before the first Monday of November of such year

Section 6 The board shall as provided by this act and by the provisions of existing law examine and revise the said assessments and valuations increasing or decreasing the same as in their judgment may seem proper and shall add thereto such property or subjects of taxation as may have been omitted After such revision the board shall by rule fix convenient times for the hearing of appeals from said assessments and valuations and after the hearing of said appeals and the making of whatever changes may be considered proper the valuations as so ascertained and revised unless changed in the manner hereinafter provided or as provided by existing law shall stand as the valuations for the assessments of all county city borough township school and poor taxes until the next triennial assessment

Section 7 When the triennial assessments shall be fixed either for the whole county or in districts thereof notice of that fact shall be given by publication in at least two newspapers of the county of the time when appeals will be heard and a copy of the assessments made in boroughs and townships shall be placed in some public place in each such borough or township by the assessor After the hearing of appeals the board shall take such action in regard thereto as may be right and proper

Section 8 After action on such assessments by the board for the assessment and revision of taxes any taxpayer dissatisfied with the assessment of his property may within sixty days after the board has held the appeals provided for by this act appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of the said county as provided by existing law and it shall be the duty of the court at once to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary to make such changes therein as may be right and proper

Section 9 The subordinate assessors shall between the triennial assessments revise any assessmnt or valuation according to right and equity by correcting errors and by adding thereto any property or subjects of taxation which may have been omitted or any new property or subjects of taxation which may have come into being since the last triennial assessment In each such case the subordinate assessors shall in cities of the second class classify all real estate in such cities in such manner and upon such testimony as may be adduced before them so as to distinguish between the buildings on land and the land exclusive of the buildings

They shall also add thereto the names of any persons who may have moved into such district and strike therefrom the names of any persons who have removed from such districts since the last triennial assessment

The assessors shall also revise assessments and valuations between the triennial assessments by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed or valued has changed by reason of any change of conditions thereon or adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or for the reason that the property assessed or valued has been subdivided or laid out into a plan of lots or other subdivisions or for the reason that improvements have been placed thereon or added thereto or for the reason that any public or other improvement has been adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or where for any other reason whatsoever the value of the property has changed and it seems to the board necessary and equitable to make a change in the valuation thereof The assessors shall also between the triennial assessments in all cases where it is apparent that any assessment is not in accord with the generality or uniform standard of assessments revise and correct the same by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed do not conform to the generality or uniform standard of assessments Provided however That is such revision or correction of such assessment shall increase the amount thereof the owner of such subjects of taxation whose assessment has been so increased between the triennial assessments shall be given at least ten days written notice of such revision or correction and have the right of appeal to the court of common pleas in the same manner as provided in section ten of this act

All assessments required to be made by the subordinate assessors in the years between the triennial assessment shall be returned to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes not later than the first Monday of November of the year preceding the one for which it is made

Section 10 At least ten days written notice shall be given to any taxable person whose assessment shall be changed between triennial assessments setting forth any change which has been made and the time and place set for hearing objections thereto

Such notice shall be served by the board or any member thereof or by any subordinate assessor or by any other person authorized so to do by the board upon said taxable person if he or she can be found in the county or upon an adult person residing upon the property in question in case the taxable person cannot be found in the county

When no service is made upon the taxable person or upon an adult person residing upon the property assessed said notice shall be deemed to have been properly served if tacked or conspicuously posted upon the property assessed

No defect in service of any such notice shall be sufficient ground for setting aside any assessment so made but upon proof thereof being made the taxable person shall have the right to a rehearing before said board relative to said assessment and to appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas as hereinafter provided

Section 11 After the hearing of any objections thereto and the making of any changes that may be deemed proper the valuation as so ascertained shall unless changed in the manner herein provided or as provided by existing law stand as the valuations for the assessments for county city borough township school and poor taxes in such county until the next triennial assessment

Section 12 Any taxable person dissatisfied with changes made in any assessment in the years between the triennial may within thirty days after the final fixing of the same appeal to the court of common pleas of said county and it shall be the duty of the court at once to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary make such changes therein as may be right and proper

Section 13 No appeal taken from any such assessments shall affect the validity of any taxes assessed but if such assessment shall thereafter be reduced an exoneration shall be granted or restitution ordered for the excess of taxes paid by reason of any improper increase in the assessment

Section 14 Upon request by any taxpayer he shall at any time receive from the board a statement of his taxable property and its valuation

Section 15 When the said valuations and assessments have been made all taxation for county city borough township school and poor purposes within the limits of such county shall be based upon such valuations and the board for the assessment and revision of taxes shall certify to the councils of all cities in the county the aggregate valuation of city property in each of such cities subject to taxation for city purposes

Section 16 On the first Monday of January one thouand nine hundred and thirty-six the terms of all members of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes and of all subordinate assessors and clerks employed by the board in counties of the second class and of all members and employes of the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the city assessor in cities of the third class in such counties shall cease and terminate and the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as now constituted in counties of the second class and the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the office of city assessor in cites of the third class in such counties are hereby abolished

It is the intent and meaning of this act that in counties of the second class there shall be but one assessment made for taxation purposes and that all county city borough township school and poor taxes shall be levied on the basis of such assessment

Section 17 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstituional provision not been included therein

Section 18 Except where inconsistent therewith this act does not repeal any of the provisions of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws"

Section 19 The act approved the twenty-second day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand ninety-three) entitled "An act creating in counties having a population of from eight hundred thousand to one million five hundred thousand a board for the assessment and revision of taxes providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners fixing their salaries payable by the county defining the powers and duties of such board and regulating the assessment of property and occupations for State and county purposes authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors and clerks defining their duties and providing for their compensation payable by such counties imposing a penalty on subordinate assessors for failure to comply with certain provisions of this act and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessor in so far as respects the assessment of property and occupations for State and county purposes" are hereby repealed

Section 20 Except as to the appointment of the members of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes which may be done at any time after the final enactment of this act the provisions thereof shall become effective on the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six Provided That this act shall not affect assessments made under existing laws as the basis of city taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and such laws shall remain in force as long as may be necessary for such purposes

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EALY from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, the following resolution:

JOINT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLIC RELIEF THROUGHOUT THE COMMONWEALTH

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1935.

Whereas, A number of investigating committees have been created by the House of Representatives to investigate the affairs of local relief boards in particular counties; and

Whereas, It is apparent, from the widespread dissatisfaction that some inherent defect exists in the present system of relief distribution, and that enormous sums of public money are being expended and are requested for the next fiscal biennium when no taxpayer appears to be assured that such expenditures are actually needed; and

Whereas, Taxpayers are demanding that the light of publicity be thrown upon the whole system of distributing public relief and that some system be devised to cull from the list of recipients of relief those who are unworthy, those who abuse the aid extended to them, and those who paint false pictures of economic conditions in order to fasten a dole system foreign to American traditions, on the body politic; and

Whereas, The system of investigating relief distribution in particular localities, while beneficial to the locality affected, fails to approach the task of placing relief upon a sound State-wide business basis, whereby red tape may be eliminated and those actually in need aided in a manner suitable to an American citizen; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall each appoint three members of their respective Houses, whose duty it shall be (a) to make a searching and impartial study and investigation of the distribution of public relief throughout this Commonwealth, (b) to ascertain whether and in what respect the present system is open to abuse, (c) to ascertain whether additional legal safeguards should be provided, (d) to ascertain whether appropriations for relief may be reduced, (e) to collate and digest reports of other investigating committees, and, (f) to investigate such other facts and circumstances as may be deemed necessary and advisable to enable the General Assembly to act with some degree of certainty and establish an impartial, unpolitical, unwasteful and business system of aiding those of our unfortunates in need and of eradicating and punishing those who take advantage of distressing economic conditions for their personal selfish ends, whether as recipients of relief or as distributors thereof.

Resolved, That said committee shall make a preliminary report of its findings to this General Assembly as early as possible, and shall make a final report to the General Assembly not later than February 1, 1937.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them, and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions lie on the table be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the House of Representatives with the information that the Senate has passed the same, with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HARRIS from the Committee on State Government reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 691 (House Bill No. 1480), entitled:

An Act to amend the title and section one as amended, and section three, of the act approved the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 23), entitled as amended, "An act providing for the acceptance by the Commonwealth of a gift of lands from the American Petroleum Institute, located on the left bank of Oil Creek, in Oil Creek Township or Cherry Tree Township, or both, Venango County, to establish the Drake Well Memorial Park, under the control and supervision of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission; providing for cooperation by the Department of Forests and Waters; empowering the Department of Property and Supplies to acquire additional lands for such Memorial Park without cost to the Commonwealth; and making an appropriation," by transferring the control and supervision of said park to the Department of Forests and Waters.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HUNSICKER from the Committee on State Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 695 (House Bill No. 609), entitled:

An Act to further amend section seventeen of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 858), entitled "An act establishing a State employes retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," permitting the assignment of rights by members in certain cases.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCREESH from the Committee on Pensions rereported as amended, Senate Bill No. 147, entitled:

An Act providing for the granting of pensions by the Commonwealth to blind persons destitute of the sense of seeing creating and imposing duties upon the Board of Blind Pensions in the Department of Internal Affairs and providing penalties.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report form committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FREY from the Committee on State Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 690 (House Bill No. 1479), entitled:

An Act to amend the title and section three of the act approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1667), entitled "An act authorizing the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to acquire all real and personal property included in the Conrad Weiser Memorial Park, in Heidelberg, Township, Berks County, from the Conrad Weiser Memorial Park Association; providing for the control, management, supervision, restoration and improvement thereof; authorizing the commission to make and enforce rules and regulations for the preservation and visitation thereof; and making an appropriation therefor," by transferring the control, management, supervision, restoration and improvement of said park, and the power to make and enforce rules and regulations for the preservation and visitation thereof to the Department of Forests and Waters.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in attempting to solve the financial and the unemployment relief problems of Pennsylvania, the important question is whether we are to isolate Pennsylvania, or may we include it as an integral and important part of the United States of America? Are we to be permitted to make the logical assumption that the expenditure of approximately Five Billions of Dollars by the Government of the United States, in public works, will tend in a great measure to facilitate employment and increase buying power, or must we take the view of the "glooms" that there will not be the slightest change for the better in the status and number of unemployed for the next two years. I prefer to take, and I think I am justified by reason and logic in doing so, the position that the expenditure of this colossal sum of money must have a helpful effect upon the present deplorable conditions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; otherwise, the intent of those who authorize the expenditure will be wholly lost. The fiscal program of the present Administration assumes that there will be no change of our "unemployment" condition before the end of the next two years.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, will state his point of order.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it being 12:25 o'clock, I call for the order of the day.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there is no order of the day—there is no legislative order of the day; and I object to the motion. That may be some other Senator's idea, but never heard of it. There is an order of the day on the last legislative day, when the time is fixed.

The PRESIDENT. The clock points to the hour of 12:25, and the call for the order of the day is sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his point of order.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, according to the rules of this body the order of the day must be called precisely at twelve o'clock.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order raised by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, is well taken. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, has slept upon his rights.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do not adjourn.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, will state his point of order.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, is out of order in making the motion. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has the floor on a question of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the motion to adjourn is in order, and that the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, is not out of order.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, seventeen Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty-two in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has the floor.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the fiscal program of the present administration assumes that there will be no change of our "unemployment" condition before the end of the next two years. It also assumes a reduction in the normal income of the Commonwealth during the same period as compared with the past two years. It seems to me, therefore, that a two-year plan, based upon conjecture in both important elements, is too long and creates the necessity of imposing an unnecessary burden of taxation upon citizens of all classes. It appears logical to me therefore to suggest that we adjust our minds towards a one-year program instead of the usual two-year plan. I am the more convinced that this is proper because I have said the vast governmental expenditures above referred to must necessarily have a favorable effect upon conditions, and because I notice that the budget prepared by the Administration estimates that the normal income of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the next two years will be $25,000,000.00 less than that of the previous biennium. I can account for $9,000,000.00 of the decrease, by the fact that that sum is a non-recurring income returned to the Commonwealth by the Delaware River Bridge Commission. But as to the remaining $16,000,000.00, I suggest that an examination of the following statement proves conclusively that the estimates are matters of conjecture:

The $16,000,000.00 difference is made up as follows:

1. Receipts from taxes on capital stock, shares and loans, 1933-1935, $53,555,613.00; Governor's estimate, $47,645,000.00; difference, $5,910,613.00.

2. Receipts from taxes on income receipts, premiums and commodities produced, $34,628,131.00; Governor's estimate, $29,258,400.00; difference $5,370,131.00.

3. Receipts from inheritance tax, $30,554,792.00; Governor's estimate, $25,500,000.00; difference, $5,044.792.00.

Total difference, $16,325,536.00.

With the fact established that both the receipts and the amount necessary for unemployment relief are subject to future conditions, and playing as they do so important a part in the fiscal program of the Commonwealth, I repeat that a one-year plan, where such a tremendous sum is involved, is the better method of attacking the problem.

For the consideration of my colleagues in the Senate, and of His Excellency, the Governor, and his advisors, I submit the following suggestions:

FIRST: That we reduce our program to a one-year plan.

SECONDLY: That we assume for the purpose of this plan that there will be a constitutional revision with an increase in the borrowing capacity of the Commonwealth

THIRDLY: That we eliminate from the amounts said to be necessary those amounts that are not absolutely necessary during the next fiscal year. With that start we find that the $203,000,000.00 required can be reduced to one-half, or approximately $101,500,000.00; that this sum is subject to the following deductions:

(a) One-half of $1,750,000.00—cost of collection of new taxes, to wit, $875,000.00.

(b) Repayment to special funds of money borrowed and spent for relief during 1933-1935, to wit, $13,843,000.00 which may be postponed.

(c) Unexpended portion of the $15,000,000.00 included in the Governor's budget for relief from March 1st to May 31st which, up to April 15th, will amount to $7,500-000.00.

TOTAL—$22,218,000.00.

When we direct this sum from the $101,500,000.00, we have $79,282,000.00 as the approximate necessary sum for the one year program.

I suggest to meet that sum the following "Tax Program for One Year:"

1. Extending capital stock tax under present laws to domestic manufacturing corporations which, under the Governor's estimate for two years should net for one year $16,500,000.00.

2. Extending capital stock tax under present laws to foreign manufacturing corporations, which under the Governor's plan estimate for two years of $1,300,000.00, should net for one year $650,000.00.

3. Increase taxes paid by foreign corporations to equalize them with taxes paid by domestic corporations which, under the Governor's estimate for two years should net for one year $1,500,000.00.

4. Impose tax upon transfers of property by gift at the same rate as the present inheritance tax taxes which under the Governor's estimate for two years should net for one year $750,000.00.

5. Impose a documentary tax at the rate of two cents per hundred on all notes, deeds, bonds and mortgages which, under the Governor's estimate for two years should net for one year $1,000,000.00.

6. Reduce the time limit for escheating or payment of uncollected deposits to the State by banking or saving institutions which under the Governor's estimate for two years should net for one year $687,500.00.

7. An imposition of tax on chain stores and chain theatres with a rate increase according to the number of store or theatre units in the State which, under the Governor's estimate for two years should net for one year $2,000,000.00.

8. Impose for State purposes only a two mills personal property tax which under the Governor's estimate of six mills with a return of one-half to the counties for two years amounts to $49,000,000, should at two mills to the State alone net for one year $16,500,000.

TOTAL—$39,687,500.00.

9. Transfer from the road fund as it is received up to $42,000,000.00.

TOTAL—$81,687,500.00.

As I have pointed out the Governor's budget estimates that the receipts for the next biennium will be $16,325,- 536.00 less than the previous biennium. That makes an estimated decrease in income of over $8,000,000.00 for one year and that means that the sum required for the next year will fluctuate between the $79,218,000.00 that I have itemized above, and $71,056,000.00 depending upon the income from taxes on Shares and Loans income, and commodities and the inheritance tax, and therefore the transfer from the Motor Fund may be reduced by $8,000,000.00 or the major portion thereof.

It is to be understood that these taxes are to be entitled "Emergency Taxes" and are to end by the terms of the Act at the end of the fiscal year.

My reason for taking this position is that I feel as I have said that the one year plan is dependent upon a constitutional revision allowing an increase in the borrowing capacity of the State, and I hope that the committee on constitutional changes will shortly report out a Bill providing for a Constitutional convention. It can provide for submission to the people for approval and to save time the action for approval or disapproval and the election of delegates can take place at the same time; In this connection I should like also to make the following suggestions:

I feel that it is dangerous to make changes in the constitution of a State or Nation in times of stress, and that if such changes are necessary they should be made with care and entrusted only to persons who have a true regard for the traditions of the country and the form of Government under which we have so long prospered. In this respect I think I should say in fairness that the Committee which His Excellency the Governor of this Commonwealth appointed to draft a suggested revised constitution, as a whole, consist of citizens who can be looked to to guard with care the fundamental structures of our Government and the rights and obligations of the institutions created and existing under it. That being so, I suggest to the Constitutional Revision Committee that they shall accept the nominees of the Governor's Committee as the delegates at large to the Convention and so provide in the Act which they report out. Setting aside political partisanship, and viewing it as a whole, no one can deny that the Committee represents almost every walk of life and consists of men who will not be carried away by public clamor in dealing with so responsible a task. With an additional delegate from each Senatorial District elected by the people to join this Committee of sixty-five citizens as delegates at large, I think that the people of Pennsylvania need have no fear that their rights and privileges will be frittered away, or that the obligations of individuals or corporations to the Commonwealth will be disregarded. It seems to me that the success of the one year plan and its acceptance is dependent upon this constitutional revision so that if our present condition still continues at the end of the next fiscal year there may be a borrowing capacity which will enable us to spread the obligations over a longer period of time so that the burden may be lightened.

I hope that any constitutional convention, however, will provide, as I think it should, in connection with borrowing, that any effort to borrow shall first receive the approval of the people at an election, and that any borrowing program shall carry with it an imposition of taxes to meet the debt and interest in accordance with the terms of the loan.

I should like also to point out that the proposed taxes to be levied under this one year plan can in no sense be termed a "sock-the-poor" tax. Not a single one of these taxes can be criticized on that score. The first two impose taxes on domestic and foreign corporations of five mills where none existed before, and will not be burdensome upon any manufacturer. Other corporations who sell goods pay the same tax and there is a great deal of force in the argument that the reason for the exemption of manufacturing corporations no longer exists.

Increasing taxes to be paid by foreign corporations to equalize those taxes paid by domestic corporations effects only foreign corporations who are enjoying in this State practically the same privileges as domestic corporations and there can be no just criticism against that tax.

As to the tax upon a transfer of property by gifts, it is sufficient to say that in these times those who can afford the joy of making gifts can have no complaint as to the tax.

The documentary stamp tax cannot touch the poor and can have very little material effect upon others.

The imposition of a tax on chain stores and chain theatres would in my humble opinion in no way increase unemployment or the prices of food products. It can only effect the stockholders of these corporations.

The imposition of a two mills tax on stocks and bonds will certainly not effect materially the person who owns a few bonds. It amounts to but one-fifth of one per cent, and as to those who own many bonds I am sure that they will be able to bear this temporary burden in the interest of a needy community.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, give up, in his plan of last week, his proposed taxes?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, had listened to my plan last week he would have noticed, would have heard, I made three suggestions. They were not my plans; they were suggestions. I suggested a sales tax of two cents for one year, and a sales tax of three cents for two years. I have studied the problem further and I have come to the conclusion that it can be solved without a sales tax; and therefore, if any problem can be solved without any tax that will hurt, and without its hurting the poor, I am in favor of abandoning it.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, has the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, also abandoned his plan of last week to transfer funds from the Motor Fund?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, not at all. I am in favor of letting up on the construction of new concrete roads, and giving the poor something concrete in the way of help, in the way of food to eat.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, does the Senator from Philadelphia County, Mr. Shapiro, still propose doing away, then, with the normal highway construction during the next year?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I propose, in the suggestion I make, to leave $61,000,000 in the Highway Fund for maintenance purposes; and I think that under present conditions we can temporarily abandon new construction, for the time being; and I may further answer the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, by suggesting that according to the figures of the Highway Department there is $5,700,000, which the Federal Government pays the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for interstate use of highways, which can be used for matching purposes with the Government, so that there can be at least $10,400,000 worth of new construction work done.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, read his proposals so rapidly perhaps I did not catch all of them, but, as I listened to them, I understood that he also proposed to eliminate the suggested tax on utilities. Is that correct?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I did not have any suggested tax on utilities in the suggestions I made last week. I do not think it necessary. There are taxes on utilities now, and I take the view that we cannot just put the utilities out of business and then expect to increase employment; that would increase unemployment. I am trying to find a source of revenue, where taxes do not now exist, so as to distribute the burden as lightly as possible. I am of the opinion that we need the corporations to employ help; and I therefore suggest that they can be taxed in certain ways, and that is why I read them off this evening.

MOTION TO READ BILLS THE FIRST TIME

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I move that all bills reported from committees at today's session be read the first time.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, April 8, 1935.

The House met at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Eugene S. Keller, State Chaplain of the American Legion offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Father and our God, creator of all things visible and invisible, we Bless Thee for Thy great love. We thank Thee for life and we acknowledge Thee as our God.

We pray Thee to bless all who are assembled here this evening, and may Thy richest blessing rest upon this commonwealth of ours, and upon these Representatives of Thy people. Grant that our fellow-ship one with the other this evening, may inspire us all to greater service to Thee and this beloved state and nation of ours, and keep us ever true to the principles for which we were founded, of justice, freedom and democracy.

Grant Heavenly Father, that these who serve us and guard our public welfare may receive from Thee, Thy richest blessing of wisdom and understanding—which shall enable them to discharge their privileged and honorable duties of statesmanship honestly and well.

Keep us all steadfast in the cause of human rights, justices and liberties, of law and order, and true Americanism. Give us the power to see, and the will to do the right.

Finally O, God, we would ask Thee to grant us the blessings of health, strength and good courage, and may our lives show forth our gratitude by our upright conduct.

Bless to us we pray Thee, a sweet peace of mind, that peace that passeth all understanding, and the counsel and wisdom of those who live with Thee and are made strong and wise.

We ask all in the name of the Master of Men, our God and our Redeemer. Amen.

Mr. Ruth asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. LaRUE on account of illness.

Mr. Falkenstein asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. SCANLON on account of illness.

Mr. Wood asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. SPANGLER for the balance of the week on account of illness.

Mr. Conner asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. ROBERT S. HAMILTON for the balance of the week on account of death in the family.

RESOLUTION FROM COMMITTEE ON RULES

Mr. RUTH offered a resolution from the Committee on Rules which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
April 8, 1935.

Resolved, That Thursday, April 18th, 1935, be fixed as the last day for the introduction of bills in the House of Representatives during the present session of the Legislature, except bills relating to social security or for the raising of revenue which may be introduced after said date.

Wilson G. Sarig
Frank W. Ruth
Roy E. Furman
William Sinwell
H. G. Andrews
Herbert B. Cohen

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. JOHN J. BAKER, from the Committee on Cities reported as committed, House Bill No. 766, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven (P. L. 219), entitled "An act providing for the classification of real estate and other property for purposes of taxation, and for the election of assessors and prescribing the duties thereof in cities of the second class," providing for appeals from assessments in years other than the triennial year.

RESOLUTIONS

SYMPATHY EXTENDED ON DEATH OF HON. JOSEPH T. EVANS

Mr. WOOD offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

In the House of Representatives, April 8, 1935.

Whereas, On April fourth, God in his infinite wisdom removed from our midst the Honorable Joseph T. Evans, a member of this House from the second district of Lancaster County during the sessions of 1919-1921-1929-1931-1933; and

Whereas, This body, which he long honored by his membership, by his counsel and wisdom, desires to express its high regard for his character and its sorrow for his loss; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that we should take official note of his passing and inscribe in our records a tribute to his memory; therefore be it

Resolved, That the people of the community in which he resided have lost a modest and kindly man whom they always delighted to honor, but whose record among them will always stand as one above reproach and well worth emulation. and be it further

Resolved, That while we feel the ineffectiveness of any act or expression on our part to in any way reduce the grief and sense of loss to his family who sorrowfully survive and mourn his death, we extend to them our deepest and most profound sympathy; trusting that in their knowledge of our love and admiration for him, and of our grief at his passing, they may perhaps find a fuller measure of joy in the life that was; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the family of the late Honorable Joseph T. Evans.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Ways and Means be discharged from further consideration of Resolution No. 83 (Serial No. 100, Legislative Journal page 969) offered by Mr. Sowers and entitled, "Secretary of Revenue to estimate revenue that would be produced by House Bills 1361 and 1362, also amount required to finance Old Age Pensions at different ages" and which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means on March 6, 1935, from further consideration of the Resolution, and same be placed on the Calendar.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the resolution before the House is to discharge the Ways and Means Committee from further consideration of a resolution No. 83.

The resolution was offered on March 6 and referred to the Ways and Means Committee on the same day. The resolution merely requests that the Secretary of the Commonwealth furnish information to this House as to how much tax would be derived from income taxes assessed by different methods, that is, graduated, one per cent, two per cent, and so on to eleven per cent, and asks for information as to how much would be required to finance the Old Aged Pensions at seventy, sixty-five and sixty years. The resolution is merely calling upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth for information so that this House may be guided and pass legislation accordingly. I ask every member of this House to vote to discharge the Committee and request the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the information so that we can work intelligently.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I arise to oppose this motion. When the gentleman from Philadelphia called on me last week I promised him that this resolution and these two bills would be taken up when the Committee on Ways and Means met. That Committee has not met but will meet this week, probably Tuesday morning, or Wednesday morning for sure.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SOWERS. If I understand rightly, the gentleman from Berks says that tomorrow the Ways and Means Committee will meet and will consider this resolution, House Bill No. 1361, and 1362.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I have a request from Senator Woodward on Senate Bill No. 99, Resolution No. 83 and House Bills Nos. 1361 and 1362 to be taken up by the Committee tomorrow morning.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE WITHDRAWN

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, under the circumstances I would request the privilege to withdraw the motion to discharge the Committee, without prejudice, and to renew it at a later date.

STATEMENT BY MR. BLUMBERG

Mr. BLUMBERG asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, during previous sessions of the Legislature, the middle of April has always been significant because it marked the time of a possible adjournment of the General Assembly. At this session of the Legislature it is important for a much more vital reason with no possible date of adjournment in view, there is a much graver question and situation that confronts us.

Yesterday in one of the Governor's fireside broadcasts he said the following: "We are all living on the top of a volcanoe, and no one knows when it will erupt. In eight more days we will reach our relief deadline, and what may happen after that, God only knows."

April 15th is only one week off. We have been informed that Federal Administrator Hopkins, has advised us that unless we provide $5,000,000 per month as this state's share of unemployment relief, that further Federal grants for unemployment relief will no longer be available.

Several weeks ago it must have been apparent to us that the tax program of the Governor could not pass the Senate in its entirety. Today we are absolutely certain that no portion of that program can be enacted in the time to provide any revenue, any necessary revenue to be made available by April 15 for unemployment relief. At this late date there certainly is not sufficient time to expect compromise, and when the executive and the objectors to his present tax program find themselves in that situation, what are we going to do? Are we to sit idly by and permit April 15 to arrive and pass by without this Legislature having made any provision to insure the continuance of unemployment relief, and administer to the needy and the hungry after April 15? Are we going to hide behind the statement that this House has passed a program and let the Senate act? Are we going to hide either behind technicalities or sophistries, and say "It is up to the Senate"? I say that we should face the situation, and that we must under no circumstances permit the fifteenth of April to arrive without having made some adequate provision to meet the situation. I for one am unwilling to subscribe to and stand upon the statement that we have already done our duty in providing revenue, merely by the passage in this body of tax bills.

Tonight I have introduced at the desk House Bills Numbers 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1985. These bills provide for the transfer of inactive funds in special pockets of the State to the general fund, to be used solely for unemployment relief and needs, to be available immediately, and to be returned from the general fund to those special funds by December 31, 1935.

These transfers are as follows:

From the liquid fuels tax fund, the bill provides for a transfer of $2,000,000. There is at present in that fund and up to and including May 31, upwards of $3,000,000.

Another bill provides for the transfer of $1,000.000 from the liquor license fund. At the present time, not including the expected additional license fees between now and the end of the biennium, there is one and three-quarter millions in that fund.

Another bill provides for the transfer of two and a half million dollars from the Veterans' Compensation Fund. There is at the present time in that fund $5,637,000 plus, so that after the transfer thereof a balance of $3,000,000 is still available for other bonus applications which will arrive between now and the date of repayment.

Another bill provides for the transfer of $1,000,000 from the State Liquor Store profits.

The last bill provides for the transfer of one million dollars from the motor license fund, where there is at present $5,000,000 unencumbered, not including the additional five million dollars of estimated revenue to the end of the biennium.

In this manner we can assure the Federal Government that there will be available immediately, certainly by April 15, seven and one-half million dollars as Pennsylvania's share at the rate of five million dollars a month to insure Federal grants from the government.

We are not using these special funds for general purposes. We are merely borrowing temporarally for relief for a period not to exceed eight months, for unemployment relief needs.

If this House will agree with that plan, and it is the only solution that I have been able to think of, and the only one that I know of that is available, because the Appropriation Committee has no bill either in Committee or on the floor of the House, which will make available that sum by April 15, nor is there any other bill of the Governor which will so do. If the Speaker of this House will immediately refer these bills to the appropriate committee and a recess of the House is declared to permit that Committee to meet and immediately report back bills to the House, with a request that first reading be given by unanimous consent, this House can pass these bills by Wednesday, and message them over to the Senate and secure final enactment in the Senate by April 15.

In the firm belief that this action is of the most paramount importance might I say that we have not done our full duty unless we approve some such system as this, and I unanimously consent, Mr. Speaker, that you refer these bills immediately to the appropriate committees, and that a recess of this House be declared to permit that committee to act upon these bills during the session of the House this evening.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give it unanimous consent for the immediate reference of the bills?

Are there objections?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, this is simply a cheap political maneuver on the eve of an election in Montgomery County.

Last September we were called in a special session, and we robbed these funds, we robbed the boroughs and the townships and the cities of their liquor license money and their liquid fuel tax money. Today the cry comes from every municipality, "Where is our money?" They have budgeted it and they don't have it. This action is not required by the Federal Relief Administrator. The only thing he puts up to us is that we shall have legislation on our books by April 15th that will show our good faith, that we will meet the program of five million dollars a month. That has not been done. The House has done its duty. We have passed it on to the Senate. There is no place in the budget for these bills which have been brought in. This will add an additional one million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars of new taxes. We have passed the tax bills and we can go no further. We have no reason to feel sure if we added seven million and a half dollars more in new taxes, it would pass in the Senate; it might possibly pass in the House, but we are not sure whether it would pass in the Senate. We should see that the tax program is passed in the Senate, and if that is done all the requirements of the Federal Administrator are met. We have robbed all these funds. We were told that it is illegal to transfer money out of the soldiers' bonus fund for other purposes. In the liquid fuel tax fund we have also been told that it is illegal to transfer money out of that fund for other purposes. The boroughs and the cities are almost in bankruptcy because they have not received what belonged to them in the early part of the year. The promise was made in this House that this money would be returned by the first of June if we robbed these funds, and they have not received it. They have not received the share that they should have gotten at the beginning of this year, and if we continue to rob the funds there will be none to distribute on the first of June. We should not pass these bills. We should not have special committee meetings for the purpose. We have met here with a plan and a program, and that program has had the approval of this House. The opposition has presented no program, none whatsoever. Any one conversant with conditions in Pennsylvania know that taxes have been sorely needed. You were told that this was a comic opera. The Democrats are the stage hands in presenting the plan, but the players are not doing their part in the program and in the opera. We should fight and see that this tax program is passed in the Senate and then we will satisfy the Federal Administrator of Relief, who has said that we should provide the necessary legislation on our tax books. He did not say that we should lay five or seven and a half million dollars on the table of April 15th. We cannot meet that obligation by robbing these special funds, and I oppose the idea.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, the Chair will read Section 2 of Article III of the Pennsylvania State Constitution, which is as follows:

"No bill shall be considered unless referred to a committee, returned therefrom, and printed for the use of the members."

Therefore, the bills could not be read tonight.

STATEMENT BY MR. BROWNFIELD

Mr. BROWNFIELD asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we met in special session last September, faced with a crisis, a relief crisis, and we transferred $14,000,000 of funds in much the same way as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, asks shall be done again.

I would ask the patience of the House while I read from the record of the special session in September. At this particular time Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Witkin were speaking.

Mr. Fitzgerald said: "Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin."

The Speaker said: "Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated"?

Mr. Witkin answered, "I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Fitzgerald said, "I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia how he intends to repay this money"?

Mr. Witkin gave the following answer: "The next session of the Legislature will have to enable the repayment of this money by finding out a means of taxation that will affect most of the people the least. I also believe that economies can be affected in the State Government and thereby prevent great additional taxation. This money is to be borrowed now and repaid at the next session, and in that manner I presume, and know that it will be paid."

Mr. Witkin further stated: "The next legislature in their wisdom, will have to sit down and devise ways and means of raising this money. I am not the next legislature. The next legislature will well know what this legislature has said and that this money must be paid by a specified time. The legislature of Pennsylvania has never failed to fulfill their duties and have always maintained their honor and their integrity and I am sure that the next legislature will be able to meet that situation, and if the gentleman from Erie comes back then I know that the problem will be solved."

I believe that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, was voicing the feeling of his group at that time. He said that the funds were to be transferred then and they were to be paid back now. Now then, they make the same maneuver to again transfer money. When and how long will this continue? Just when is it going to stop? We transferred $14,000,000 then to meet a crisis, and now the same maneuver is made again towards the transferring of money. I am unable to understand ladies and gentlemen of this House, after hearing what was said here, how the gentleman on the other side of the House can be consistent in this respect.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, with reference to the excerpts of the constitution which you read for the information of the House and for my information I am wondering whether that article of the constitution prevailed when the administration bill for constitutional revision was introduced into this House, referred to a Committee the same night and after twelve minutes session reported back to this House and given a first reading. I am asking for these bills the same treatment that was received to the administration bills then, and because there is a much graver situation now than that which confronted the constitutional revision bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman that the constitutional revision bill was in pink at the time.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I beg to differ with you. I am a member of that Committee and attended a meeting of that Committee and pleaded for delay because of that reason. We were informed that someone had spoken to a gentleman in the Attorney General's office, and he said it was perfectly alright to go ahead. We only had the original bill before the Committee on the night of its introduction. We had a subsequent meeting of the Committee, after a re-referring of that bill to the Committee, at which time we had the bills in pink.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to answer the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, that a bill cannot be given first reading unless it is printed, and the constitutional revision bill at that time, the Chair was informed, was in pink print, and therefore, could be considered.

The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. BLUMBERG. I merely desired to make a reply that the bill was referred to the Constitutional Amendments Committee of which I am a member, and was considered the night of its introduction, the original bill, and returned to this House given first reading.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to read from the history. The bill was reported as committed, on January 21st, passed first reading on January 22nd.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I simply felt that I ought to express my resentment at the statement of the gentleman from Berks to the effect that my introduction of these bills tonight was a cheap political maneuver for the purpose of affecting the voting in Montgomery County.

The gentleman from Berks has served with me in this House long enough to know that I am not a cheap political trickster; that if there is a thing that I have brought to this Legislature it is my absolute sincerity of purpose. In introducing these bills tonight, I do it under the gravest sense of my responsibility as a member of the House, and in the desire to do my part and to help the House do its part towards making certain that there is no cessation of unemployment relief in Pennsylvania after April 15.

The gentleman from Berks further said that these bills will in effect increase the budget by seven and one-half million dollars. Might I say to the gentleman from Berks that if he will take the budget up in his hand as I have it in mine, he will see that the Governor has included in the budget $15,000,000 of unemployment relief for the months of March, April, and May, at the rate of $5,000,000 per month, so that the seven and one-half million dollars provided for by these bills is now in the budget, and it cannot affect the budget in any way.

Might I also say to the gentleman that so far as the transfer of funds in the special session of 1934 is concerned, that special session of the Legislature provided that this sum was to be repaid by December 31, 1935 by acts of this Legislature, and the Governor early in his budget provided for the return of $13,483,000 borrowed from special funds in September, 1934. So that also does not affect the situation. These amounts are included in the budget.

We are confronted with this situation, that there is nothing in sight to make this Legislature feel certain that the present tax program will pass, either as a whole or in part. If we provide this means of insuring the Federal grants of unemployment relief until the end of this biennium it gives us six additional weeks during which intelligence and sane consideration of the tax program can be made; during which time there will be further opportunity of effecting a compromise as suggested by the gentleman from Berks here on the floor last week.

Let me assure you, gentlemen, it is in absolute good faith, and there is nothing of a political nature behind it. I request the members on the other side of the House to feel the situation just as keenly as we feel it, and to join with us in putting these bills through at the earliest possible moment. If the Speaker rules that we cannot consider these bills and they will have to be printed, it means but the delay of one day. That also can be taken care of. If the Senate can pass these bills by April 16th, I am quite certain that Federal Administrator Hopkins, will go along with us for one day more.

Mr. WEISS asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement :

Mr. Speaker, the move of the Republican leadership to transfer $7,500,000 from special funds for unemployment relief needs for the months of April and May is one piece of political juggling which will fool no one.

In making this proposal, the Republican leadership shows itself in absolute ignorance of the critical situation with respect to unemployment relief which exists today. It is a flimsy effort on the part of the sponsors of this program to divert attention of the people of Pennsylvania from the obstructionists tactics of the Republican majority in the Senate towards Governor Earle's program to finance unemployment relief as well as the other needs of the Government. It is a clumsy maneuver to conceal the fact that the Republican leadership has brazenly refused to submit its own tax program for the solution of the State's financial problems, despite the fact that this Legislature has been in session since January 1st, and despite the fact that Governor Earle, on February 12th in his Budget Message, notified the Legislature that it will be necessary to levy $203,000,000 in new taxation to provide funds for unemployment relief, Old Age Assistance, Blind Pension, $50,000,000 deficit inherited from the preceding Adimnistration and the normal needs of Government during the next two years.

In pursuing its ruinous policy, the Republican leadership has failed to take time out to acquaint itself with the real facts of the financial crisis confronting the State.

On March 25th, two weeks ago today, Governor Earle called upon Federal Emergency Relief Administrator, Harry L. Hopkins, at Washington. He did so in response to a summons of the Federal Relief Administrator who desired to know from the Governor just what steps were being taken by Pennsylvania to meet its share of the unemployment relief burden. Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins, in his conference with the Governor, pointed out that the Federal Government had given Pennsylvania approximately $58,000,000 for unemployment relief in Pennsylvania for the months of January, February and March without the State putting up a single dollar of its own. He told the Governor that it would be necessary for Pennsylvania to pay its fair share of unemployment relief costs in Pennsylvania amounting to approximately $20,000,000 per month. Governor Earle thereupon made an agreement with the Federal Relief Administrator that Pennsylvania would, beginning with April, put up $5,000,000 per month if the Federal Government would put up the rest of the money needed, approximately $15,000,000 per month. The Governor, however, pointed out that under the tax program which he had submitted that it would be impossible for Pennsylvania to put up $5,000,000 monthly in cash inasmuch as most of the money which would come in under his tax program would not be forthcoming until after the first of next year and that only approximately two and a half million dollars monthly would come in from the emergency taxation such as gasoline, amusements and tobacco, included in the Governor's program.

Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins, in view of this situation, agreed that if Pennsylvania, within the next three weeks, that is, by April 15th, would enact a tax program which would provide for unemployment relief that the Federal Government would not insist upon the cash payment of $5,000,000 per month by Pennsylvania but would treat such appropriation as a promissory note on the part of the State, payable when the tax revenues came in, at which time the Federal Government would be paid. The Federal Relief Administrator gave a three week grace period to the State of Pennsylvania so as to permit sufficient time for the enactment of a tax program, whether Governor Earle's or some other program. He warned, however, that unless tax legislation was passed that the Federal relief would be shut off on April 15th.

All the facts that have just been stated were incorporated in an announcement made by the Federal Relief Administrator in the public press on March 25th. Despite that fact the Republican majority in the Senate has pursued its policy of obstruction and do-nothing. Intent more on its course of killing the Governor's tax program, it has failed to present a program of its own. Now, one short week before the dead-line fixed by the Federal Relief Administrator, the Republican leadership is presenting this program to raid special trust funds of $7,500,000 so as to put itself in the light of champion of the unemployed of the State, knowing full well in its heart, first, that there is no necessity actually to provide $7,500,000 in cash by April 15th and knowing furthermore that if it had done its duty and enacted a tax program that that would be sufficient, even though such a tax program would not immediately yield the $5,000,000 per month cash needed for unemployment relief.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Blumberg, as one of the leaders of the minority of this House, whether he has sponsored or proposed publicly any legislation attempting to raise money that has not been covered by the taxes levied and the tax bills passed in this House by the majority.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, my reply is to the effect that this House has already approved the Governor's program, and it is now the duty of this House to await the action of the Senate. The resolution offered by the Committee on Rules to night fixing the last day for the introduction of bills specifically excepts bills pertaining to social security and revenue raising.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Philadelphia then wish this House to understand that he has not publicly sponsored or proposed legislation as a substitute for that which has been enacted?

Mr. BLUMBERG. That is a fact, Mr. Speaker; I personally have not.

Mr. BARBER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia kindly tell this House whether as a leader of the minority in this House, he has conferred with the leaders of the majority in the Senate for the purpose of effecting a plan to use as a substitute for the plan that has been proposed by the administration, and whether or not the leaders of the minority in the House and the leaders of the majority in the Senate have publicly sponsored such a plan, if one has been arrived at?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I cannot, of course, speak with any authority for the Senate, but as an individual I can state to the gentleman from Erie that I and others of the minority in this House have been in conference with representatives of the majority in the Senate for the very purpose which the gentleman mentioned, and because of the shortness of time there will not be time for any substitute program to be offered, which will produce sufficient revenue by April 15, and I have taken this action tonight to provide the necessary state contribution.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Philadelphia aware that for the last three weeks the leaders of the minority party in the House and the leaders of the majority party in the Senate have been talking about affecting a compromise and passing acts that will be a compromise to the plan proposed?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I have no such knowledge, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. BARBER

Mr. BARBER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for about two months we have been discussing a plan for the raising of two hundred and three million dollars for emergency purposes. For the last two months the members of the minority in this House, and the members of the majority in the Senate have been doing anything and everything that they could for the purpose of obstructing those plans. For the last three weeks I as a member of this House have heard the members of the minority state to the majority that we should get together at a round table conference; that we should adopt plans that would be a compromise, and at the same time I have heard members in the Senate speak of this same compromise, but as yet I have heard no one in this House belonging to the minority suggest that they as a minority in this House, and the majority in the Senate have a plan which they can propose as a substitute to the one that has been offered. They have had ample time so to do, and I believe that we as members of the majority of this House should stand by the platform that has been adopted, and we should stand pat on the acts that have been passed by this House and submitted to the Senate for their consideration, and until such time as the membership of the minority here and the majority of the Senate see fit to sponsor publicly a plan, which will be a fit substitute, I thing we ought not allow them to further plunder our special funds.

STATEMENT BY MR. FURMAN

Mr. FURMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in regard to this transfer of money from different funds, there is one angle that has not been discussed very much, and that is the source from whence these funds come.

To begin with, two million dollars is to be transferred from the liquid fuel tax fund. Whose money is that? That money is allocated to the different counties, and the counties of this state have made up their budgets, with the expectation of receiving that money. Now, if we take that money away from them at the present time, we are causing them a great deal of trouble. It is going to upset their financial system. The money that they have provided, the taxes they have levied to run their own counties on top of the troubles that we have here in the state, they are having troubles locally.

It is also proposed to transfer two and one-half million dollars from the Veterans' Pension Fund. In that fund, as the gentleman from Philadelphia has stated, there is five million six hundred and thirty-seven thousand dollars. Two million four hundred and fifty thousand dollars of that total is presently due for payment to soldiers who have already presented their claims, and there are other applications that no doubt will be acted upon favorably very soon. Now, if it is proposed to borrow this money, would it be fair to those soldiers who have not already received their bonus, to further delay these payments to them? I say that it would not. And I also say that this Legislature does not have the right to borrow this fund, since it was set up, it was borrowed on a bond issued by a vote of the people of this state to be used for a specific purpose, and we have no right to transfer that money.

In regards to the Liquor License Fund, it is also the property of the counties, which are depending upon that revenue to run their counties, or rather, all municipalities in this state, and this legislature has no right to transfer the fund.

Further in regard to the amount that is proposed to be borrowed from the Motor License Fund, the money in that fund is already obligated,—there were contracts let by the previous administration,—and if this money is taken away, we are breaking a contract, and I ask the membership of this House if it is fair for the state to set an example in breaking contracts.

The only real proposal that is offered is the one to borrow from the Liquor Store profits, and that could be done providing there are profits to be borrowed. That is very small, less than one-seventh of the total amount proposed to be borrowed.

As the gentleman on the opposite side of the House has already said, this House has performed its duty by passing the only tax program that has been presented. The Senate has failed to act. They have known for several weeks that it will be necessary to act by the fifteenth of April, and why should we, in view of this, try to take the blame away from them. They know what is needed in the state. It is their duty to act and to act in a way that will be approved by the people of this state. I ask the membership of this House to have no part in the transfer of these funds, because we do have a program, and we have had plenty of time to enact that program into law. That program is a fair program. It is one that will meet with the approval of the majority of the people of this state. The money under that program, the majority of it, is raised by taking out of the present laws exemptions that have been in there for years, and I ask you who has benefited by these exemptions? When they were exempted, the public and the people of the state knew that they should not be exempted, but should pay their fair share of this burden along with the average citizen of this state. I ask again this membership to have no part in this robbing of funds, over which we have no control, funds that do not belong to this body to be transferred.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and unanimous consent for the immediate reference of the bills is not granted.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move you that this House do now take a recess of twenty minutes to permit the Speaker to refer House Bills 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, and 1985 to an appropriate committee, and to further direct that committee to meet during said recess to consider those bills.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read for the information of the House Rule 17 as follows:

"Bills will be introduced by filing with the Chief Clerk to be by him numbered and handed to the Speaker for reference to appropriate committees, and report at the session following the day of presentation."

It will therefore be necessary to move to suspend the rules if the gentleman from Philadelphia wishes to proceed.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 17

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, because this House has in the past done exactly the things that I proposed in that motion I now move you that House Rule No. 17 be suspended for the specific purpose of permitting reference of House Bills, 1981 to 1985 inclusive to an appropriate committee to permit action by that committee on those bills.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I again rise to oppose this motion, for the very reason that the House has done its part and the obstruction methods of the opposition have caused this program to go over. I, therefore, rise to oppose this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Blumberg and Mr. Witkin and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the debate that has just taken place. I have listened to the Democrats deploring the taking and the transferring of the special funds. I have heard them refer to the last session of the Legislature as being the Legislature that ought to be severely condemned and criticized because of this absolutely wrong and improper thing they did.

I wonder if the Democrats of this House are aware of the fact that the exponent of this session of the Legislature, not the last session, but this one, for the transferring of special funds to meet a special emergency, happens to be His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who on March 4, 1935, to meet an emergency that may have been an emergency but certainly not as great an emergency as the present one, came before this Joint Assembly and said: "Members of this Honorable Body, what we have to do in order to raise this immediate fund is to take money from special funds and transfer them to the general fund."

If your memory is good, you will recollect that the Republicans said in effect, "O. K. Governor we are with you." But you seem to have a lax memory, you seem to forget that at that time you wanted special funds transferred to the general fund. Therefore, so that if the session prior to this one was wrong, you certainly have started off on the wrong foot, and you are getting us into bad habits in this session.

Let us compare the emergencies. What are they? I have read it in the newspapers, I have heard it shouted from the house tops, that the deadline is April 15. I do not want to criticize the language that is used by our high officials in the state, but I am frank to say when reading the wording of some of those statements eminating from high authority, you are given to think that the danger of war does not only exist on the other side, but you are almost given to think that it is being advocated by high officials in this state. They say that the emergency is great. They say that relief will stop by April 15 unless we do what the Federal Administrator said we ought to do, to wit, pay our share each month towards unemployment relief.

I do not care whose fault it is. You are trying to put it on the Republicans, and let us assume for the sake of the argument that the Republicans are trying to put it on you. In passing, I must say this, I have got to laugh, and I say to laugh perhaps sadly when the Democrats will interrogate the Republicans of this House and say, "What measure did you introduce to accomplish thus and so?" In the first instance, the history of this Legislature is such that we were taught in the beginning of the legislative session that it was dumb, stupid, assinine and ridiculous for us to introduce any good measures because the minute we did so, to use the common vernacular it was taken away from us and became one of yours. So, we have a right to assume in introducing any measure in the beginning they would have been taken over by you. But that is neither here nor there. If you asked whether the Republicans have introduced any measures for taxes, then I am sure that I am correct in saying that those who ask this question ought to know better, because there have been introduced in this House by Democrats and there have been introduced in this House by Republicans, both by the Democrats and the Republicans, a lot of tax measures that did not happen to have the stamp of approval of the administration. What did you do with those bills? Did not pay any attention to those bills? Did you consider them? Or have you pigeon-holed them within the confines of their own committee? You have all kinds of other tax bills before you, but you were set, you had a hard and fast orders placed upon you. You were told to get this out, get that out, leave that in, don't dare to get that out. I don't blame you. You did what you were told to do, but don't blame us after you did it, and don't blame us for not doing other things. Go through your history and you will find a lot of Democrats who have introduced good measures, and a lot of Republicans who have introduced good measures. So that to reach the situation, coming back to what I started to say, when I digressed, where we are told that relief is going to be shut off, you have got to have this money.

Why do you talk about a cheap political trick. All you have to do is to read the Philadelphia and Norristown newspapers, and you will find that every man on relief, every school teacher or educator, and everybody in the whole Commonwealth is told, "Be for my tax program. Be for my tax program or you will starve," even going so far as to say, "You might even not get paid." The people in Montgomery County tonight are being told that they will starve.

What are we facing? We are facing a situation where we believed what you said, we believed you when you told us if we didn't put five million dollars into the unemployment relief fund by the 15th of April relief would stop. We also believed you when you told us that if we didn't put in five million dollars, the hungry were going to march, were going to come up here, and then God help us—believing you.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, spent a great deal of time finding out these figures, and as a result he found out that we could take from five funds the money that he is taking from those five funds, being inactive for the present.

In answer to the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman, I wish to say that the money that he proposes taking from the Veterans' Compensation fund won't stop a single veteran in the whole confines of Pennsylvania between now and the 31st of December, 1935, from getting his money.

So, what do we do? We present those bills, we present them in the hope that you are going to put them through. I am going to follow it up in a few minutes with a resolution, so that the sense of this body will be determined.

I am going to close by saying to this House in order that the unemployed and the starving may get what is coming to them, and in order that you cannot improperly put upon us the burden which belongs on your own shoulders—if the fault be yours, or if the fault be ours, or no matter where the fault is, whether it is yours individually or ours individually or both of us collectively, irrespective of all that, the one primary purpose that is in our minds is to take inactive money that the Commonwealth is not using and temporarily transferring it to the general fund.

In reply to the gentleman who read what I said at the using and temporarily transferring it to the general fund. special session, I reaffirm every word that I said, and everything that I said then, I believed then and I believe now, and I say to you that all those moneys are provided for in the Governor's budget, to be returned before the 31st of December, 1935, so that we on this side of the House are not breaking faith, we have not broken faith and we won't, and in order to give you the opportunity of stating how you stand on providing the moneys set forth in the bills introduced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg I offer a resolution, which I am going to ask the clerk to read, and after it has been read will ask your unanimous consent for its immediate consideration. Whether you are for it or not, I hope you will stand on the record and vote one way or the other.

In closing, I want to pay a tribute to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, who on March 26th, directed your attention to this subject as well as to other subjects, and if this House had not played politics with unemployment relief, his resolution introduced that day would have gone through this House and we would not have had to act in the haste that we do. So, when you criticise, when you ask questions, look at your own record, and when you find who is at fault and don't try to criticise us.

Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolutions and I ask unanimous consent of the House for its immediate consideration at this time.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, is it a privileged resolution?

The SPEAKER. It is not a privileged resolution.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I object.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask that the resolution be read for the information of the House?

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the reading of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the genleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, to object merely to the reading of the resolution because I, on behalf of the Republican minority in this House, have introduced it in order that the members, both of the minority and the majority, may know its contents?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I think we all know its contents.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I further interrogate the gentleman from Berks?

ORDER OF THE DAY CALLED

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day. I think we have gone about long enough.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, calls for the order of the day. The order of the day is resolutions.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire further to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks will state his point of order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, this is an interrogation; it is not a resolution.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 88

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rule—I think it is 88, but I am not sure—be suspended for the specific purpose of considering the resolution that I have just offered and in order that the members of this House may intelligently vote upon that motion to suspend the rule, I ask that the resolution be read for the information of the membership of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, is informed that it is necessary to suspend the rule before the resolution can be read, introducing it from the floor.

Mr. WITKIN. May I ask the Speaker how it is possible for the members of the House to vote upon a motion to suspend a rule to consider a resolution, if the membership of the House does not know the contents of the resolution?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, is informed that a motion for the suspension of a rule is made for the purpose of introducing the resolution from the floor, otherwise, it would have to be filed with the Clerk.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to withdraw the motion that I have just made, and ask for recognition immediately thereafter.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 88 WITHDRAWN

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, withdraws the motion to suspend the rule. If there are no objections, the motion is withdrawn. The Chair hears none.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will state his question of information.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, what rule do I have to move to suspend in order to get this resolution read?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Philadelphia that he will have to suspend rule 84 to have this resolution read. The Chair will read the rule relative to resolutions:

"All resolutions originating in the House, (except those privileged), shall be introduced by members filing four typewritten copies thereof with the Chief Clerk, signed and dated, to be numbered by the Chief Clerk and handed to the Speaker, who shall refer all such resolutions, including all Senate Concurrent Resolutions, (not privileged), to appropriate committees in the same manner as bills."

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 84

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that rule 84 be suspended for the purpose of having the resolution just offered by me read for the information of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in asking you to vote for the suspension of this rule, all that I am doing is asking you to permit the membership of this House to know what is in that resolution.

I, for the life of me, can't comprehend the workings of one's mind, who would object to information being given to this membership as to what a member of this House has offered. I particularly resent this, and I say this with modesty, because I have been entrusted by the Republican membership of this House with responsibility, that the membership of this House have a right to suppose that the Republican membership of this House, consisting of some eighty odd men, are only asking you to permit them to know what this resolution contains, and when an objection is made of this kind, I think that when you talk about cheap politics, that this is the cheapest thing I have ever encountered on the floor of this House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. BLUMBERG and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

SYMPATHY EXTENDED ON DEATH OF HON. WILLIAM J. HAMILTON

Mr. BALDI offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 8, 1935.

Word has just reached this body of the death of the Honorable William J. Hamilton, the father of our fellow-Member, Robert S. Hamilton, today, at the age of sixty-six years;

A life long Philadelphian, the senior Mr. Hamilton was a Member of the House during the Session of 1919;

The written word is a futile way to convey sympathy to the son in his sorrow, and yet is the only way open to us; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania take this means to express its condolences to our associate, the Honorable Robert S. Hamilton, and to members of the bereaved family; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to our fellow-Member and to the members of the family of the late Honorable William J. Hamilton.

SENATE MESSAGE

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 8, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, April 15, at nine o'clock; and that when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvenes on Monday evening, April 15, at nine o'clock.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to a question of personal privilege, because some recent comments in the Press have served to prejudice my position with reference to certain pending legislation. I never quarrel with the gentlemen of the Press. The Press gallery maintains such a high average of accuracy that its statements pass current upon their face. Therefore, it is necessary to call attention to minor errors lest they be generaly believed.

Widely read Harrisburg and Philadelphia newspapers have carried a recent statement concerning House Bill 811, sponsored by me and now upon the postponed calendar. The stories contain an intimation that the measure in question was postponed at the instance of the "Governor's office." Whatever that phrase may mean. There is also an intimation that the measure in question might possibly have been introduced with some purpose in mind of "embarrassing the administration." I quote that phrase. The news comment concludes with the statement that if the bill in question is ever called up for action, it will be sent back to committee to be pickled, and I am again quoting, "If Andrews makes the motion to return the bill to committee, it will be because he was told what he had to do."

First of all, I have no wish to embarrass the administration. Second, I realize that the administration has so many major matters on its hands that it is in no wise concerned about any of my little legislative ventures. I really could not embarrass this administration if I tried.

Mr. Speaker, I am inclined to resent the intimation that what is known as the "Governor's office" is actively interfering with the course of measures which are not a part of the administration program. And I also submit, Mr. Speaker, that it is a perfectly fair conclusion that if I actually had pending upon the calendar a bill in which the Governor's office was actually interested—for or against, whatever the case might be—that I would have been informed directly.

I assure the members of this House that no one connected with the Governor's office directed me to place House Bill 811 upon the postponed calendar. I also assure this House that Press reports are in error since no one even remotely connected with the Governor's office has ever informed me that House Bill 811 was embarrassing to anybody.

I make these remarks under a question of personal privilege, because it is the only way I can make them, and thus clear the way so that when the measure in question ultimately reaches the floor, it will be considered solely upon its merits.

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, if by any chance I am in error, and if the Governor's office has confided to others sentiments which should have been more properly revealed to me, I can only request, in the interests of good faith and in order that the House may be correctly informed that those who have the information at hand concerning the sentiment in the Governor's office will at the proper time acquaint the membership of this House with any message or word or information concerning the measure in question, in which the membership might probably be interested.

In the absence of any such statement, it would seem to me to be a fair conclusion that there was a lack of interest in high places concerning the entire matter.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Northampton will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I submit that when a statement is made on the floor of this House that the members are guided solely by the fact in forming their judgments as to whether bills should come out of committee or be enacted into law—that they are guided solely by the fact of whether those measures have been introduced by Republicans or Democrats, it is an insinuation and an intimation that the members of this House are not performing their duty.

In this connection, I wish respectfully to call the attention of the members of the House to page 535, index of laws in the History of the House, and especially to Senate Bill 118, Senate Bill 25, Senate Bill 20 and House Bill 233, sponsored by Republicans, passed by the House and the Senate and signed by the Governor.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. FURMAN in the Chair.
